resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the United Nations Reforming the United Nations [electronic resource] Joachim Müller, 2006 The United Nations is in need of reform There has always been widespread agreement that this is the case indeed throughout the 60 year history of the Organization Differences over the best cure reflect the political confrontation between its 191 member states The institution has been criticized to lack legitimacy to need accountability and to be inefficient with a bloated bureaucracy Recently allegations of mismanagement and corruption in the Oil for Food Program have led to a crisis of confidence The public debate followed reform initiatives for enlarging the Security Council achieving the Millennium Development Goals and establishing new collective mechanisms to protect human rights counter terrorism and respond to crimes against humanity Strengthening oversight governance and management practices aimed at introducing fundamental institutional changes The publication describes the reform process leading to the United Nations Summit in September 2005 The achievements remain disappointing with the failure to approve a grand bargain A number of recommendations are put forward to facilitate the reform process in the United Nations realising however that this will remain cumbersome and a lengthy step by step effort The United Nations in The Era of Globalization Mazid Reza Momeni , 2021-08-03 The United Nations as a world organization has gone through different epochs of time facing various challenges and changes since its inception While it has done a lot in saving humankind in its diverse fields of activities yet it has failed to function legitimately and effectively according to the principles of its Charter which have brought its existence and relevance under criticism and questioning The UN after the end of the Cold War for a short period of time gave a new hope to the world that it would now work genuinely according to its member states will in an environment of cooperation and understanding between its member states for common goals However right after the collapse of the communist bloc and the end of capitalist communist antagonism the process of globalization already in force gained momentum which brought about a new era in the UN s life affecting international relations and the world politics too The emergence of globalization has created many new challenges not only to the individuals and countries but also to the international institutions and global organizations This study is an attempt to analyze the real purpose of the emergence of globalization as a policy and its effects on the UN in particular and the international political economic relations in a wider context CONTENTS Preface V Acknowledgement VII Abbreviations XI Chapter I Introduction 15 Chapter II Bretton Woods Institutions and Globalization Their Impact on the UN 61 Chapter III The Global Compact Project 117 Chapter IV Millennium Development Goals and The Reform Initiatives 155 Chapter V Civil Society Organizations and the United Nations 218 Chapter VI Conclusion 265 Appendix 283 Select Bibliography 284 Index 295 The A to Z of the United Nations Jacques Fomerand, 2009-07-29 Consisting of 192 Member States the United Nations was founded in 1945 to maintain international peace and security to develop friendly relations among nations based on the respect for the principle of equal rights and self determination of peoples to achieve international cooperation in solving problems of an economic social cultural or
