Reforming Retirement Policies Committee for Economic Development. Research and Policy Committee, 1981

Social Security Reform and Retirement Income Policy United States. Congress. Senate. Special Committee on Aging, 1982

Reforming Early Retirement in Europe, Japan and the USA Bernhard Ebbinghaus, 2008-10-16 Since the 1970s early exit from work has become a major challenge in modern welfare states Governments employers and unions alike once thought of early retirement as a peaceful solution to the economic problems of mass unemployment and industrial restructuring Today governments and international organizations advocate the postponement of retirement and an increase in activity among older workers Comparing the USA eight European countries and Japan this book demonstrates significant cross national differences in early retirement across countries and over time The study evaluates the impact of major variations in welfare regimes production systems and labor relations It stresses the importance of the pull factor of extensive welfare state provisions particularly in Continental Europe the push factor of labor shedding strategies by firms particularly in Anglo American market economies and the role of employers and worker representatives in negotiating retirement policies particularly in coordinated market economies Over the last three decades early retirement has become a popular social policy and employment practice in the workplace adding to the fiscal crises and employment problems of today s welfare states Attempts to reverse early retirement policies have led to major reform debates Unilateral government policies to cut back on social benefits have not had the expected employment results due to resistance from employers workers and their organizations Successful reforms require the cooperation of both sides This study provides comprehensive empirical analysis and a balanced approach to studying both the pull and the push factors affecting early exit from work needed to understand the development of early retirement regimes Reforming Pensions in Developing and Transition Countries K.

Hujo, 2014-08-22 This book moves beyond technical studies of pension systems by addressing the political economy of pension reform in different contexts It provides insights into key issues related to pension policy and its developmental implications drawing on selected country studies in Africa Asia Eastern Europe the Middle East and Latin America

Transition Economies Mr.M. Cangiano,Mr.Carlo Cottarelli,Mr.Luis M. Cubeddu,1998-10-01 This paper reviews

developments in pension systems in 11 transition economies during the 1990s highlighting the forces behind their rapid weakening It focuses on the challenges these systems face including those arising from demographic factors and discusses why most transition countries are considering shifting or have already shifted from traditional defined benefit pay as you go systems to defined contribution fully funded systems Finally the paper looks at the main options that arise in introducing fully funded components including the relative mix between funding and pay as you go and the speed of the transition toward the new system

Reforming the Greek Pension System Mr. Alvar Kangur,Niki Kalavrezou,Mr. Daehaeng Kim,2021-07-16 The Greek pension system has been costly complex and distortive which has contributed to Greece s fiscal problems and discouraged labor force participation Several attempts to reform the system faltered due to lack of implementation pushback by vested interests and court rulings leading to reversals A series of reforms introduced throughout 2015 17 unified benefit and contribution rules removed several distortions and reduced fragmentation and costs If fully implemented throughout the long term these reforms can go a long way towards enhancing the pension system affordability However reforms faced setbacks and fell short of creating stronger incentives to build long contribution histories to deliver sustainable growth by improving the fiscal policy mix and to ensure fairness and equitable burden sharing across generations and interest groups Policy priorities should aim towards fully implementing the 2015 17 reforms and complementing them with additional reforms to address these remaining objectives
