Touchton, Mariela A. Rodríguez, Gary Ivory, Michele

Acker-Hocevar,2017-08-16 This book provides insights into the everyday practices of school leaders as told through the real life stories of principals The editors and their contributors blend practice with theory helping aspiring leaders to discover that school leadership is not simply putting prescribed solutions into action but a constant encounter with quandaries that demand thinking responding and adjusting to the situations at hand Readers build their capacities to view quandaries from multiple lenses consider a variety of responses and draw conclusions based on perspectives that may vary from those initially identified The chapter authors encourage a sharper self awareness of what scholars value and envision about education encouraging them to think about how to navigate decision making through a variety of theoretical frameworks and practices while balancing their own leadership platform development Finding, Preparing, and Supporting School Leaders Sharon Conley,Bruce S. Cooper,2010-12-16 With dwindling funds and resources tougher state and federal standards and fatigue from more regulations and testing many school administrators are giving up _or crashing and leaving their posts This book examines the process of preparing encouraging and retaining quality leaders at the school and district levels Beginning with a chapter outlining six steps of critical organizational supports subsequent chapters address factors in preparing administrator candidates effectively improving novice teacher retention through principal support and mentoring utilizing more fully mid career teachers who come to schools having worked outside of education the role of isolation in new principals sense of efficacy research findings about assistant superintendents about job satisfaction efficacy and ambitions for promotion and finally contemporary leadership challenges existing at the superintendent level Concluding with thoughts about administrator accountability the various chapters offer contemporary views on the preparation utilization and retention of school administrators throughout the life cycle The chapters provide needed insight into what should and must be done to grow the best leaders for US schools The Creation of a Professional Learning Community for School Leaders Amalia Humada- Ludeke,2013-09-03 The unwavering culture of continuous improvement efforts to bring about school change has irrevocably changed the role expectations for the school leader The school leader in the 21st century is increasingly perceived as an instructional leader expected to implement whole school reform models that can shape teacher practice and influence student outcomes The significant changes in role expectations for school leaders present considerable challenges to an educational system that was not designed to incorporate these conceptualizations In light of the increased acceptance of changed leadership expectations the elements that are needed for developing supporting and sustaining instructional leaders who can lead systemic change efforts are frequently not present are fragmented or are observed at various developmental stages throughout the PK 20 pipeline This book is centered on the learning and changed behaviors of school leaders who engaged in a sustained job embedded professional learning community facilitated through a university district partnership The learning from the findings suggested that job embedded learning with their peers can be instrumental for these principals to build the capacity to lead systemic change efforts The findings further suggested that creating conditions for new understanding to occur and sustained opportunities to apply new learning in context to their role entailed a collaborative effort by a partnership involving two separate institutions with different priorities The author makes a case for the educational pipeline to prioritize the support and understanding of complex systemic change efforts and innovations as they are linked to school improvement
