Sabella O. Abidde, 2020-12-05 This book discusses the phenomena of refugees and internally displaced persons IDP across several African countries There are 40 million IDP worldwide of these an estimated 12.6 million are in 37 of Africa's 55 countries Written by a team of fifteen scholars across four continents this book uses both quantitative and qualitative data to analyze the causes and consequences of this displacement the role of the state in creating and mitigating these situations and potential policy solutions The volume is divided into three sections Chapters in Section 1 discuss the causes of displacement Chapters in Section 2 discuss refugees in their regional context Chapters in Section 3 discuss IDP camps in Kenya Nigeria and Ghana Bringing scholarly analysis to address two humanitarian crises this book will be useful to students and researchers interested in African politics forced migration and policy as well as members of the diplomatic corps governmental and non governmental organizations actively working towards solving these challenges African Refugees

Toyin Falola, Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, 2023-01-03 African Refugees is a comprehensive overview of the context causes and consequences of refugee lives discussing issues policies and solutions for African refugees around the world It covers overarching topics such as human rights policy frameworks refugee protection and durable solutions as well as less studied topics such as refugee youths refugee camps LGBTQ refugees urban refugees and refugee women It also takes on rare but emergent topics such as citizenship and the creativity of African refugees Toyin Falola and Olajumoke Yacob Haliso showcase the voices and experiences of individual refugees through the sweep of history to tell the African refugee story from the historical past through current developments covering the full range of experience from the causes of flight to living in exile all while maintaining a persistent focus on the complicated search for solutions African Refugees recognizes African agency and contributions in pursuit of solutions for African refugees over time but avoids the pitfalls of the colonial gaze where refugees are perpetually pathologized and Africa is always the sole cause of its own problems seeking to complicate these narratives by recognizing African refugee issues within exploitative global colonial and neo colonial systems of power

African Migrants and the Refugee Crisis Olayiwola Abegunrin, Sabella O. Abidde, 2020-11-12 This book discusses African migration and the refugee crisis Economic political and social tension in the Middle East and in many parts of the Global South has induced historic mass migration across national and international borders The situation is especially dire in Africa where a sizable number of Africans have chosen or have been forced to leave their countries of origin for Europe and North America Written by an international team of scholars this edited book traces the refugee crisis around the world telling the necessary story of forced migration intentional exclusion and human insecurity from an Afrocentric lens The volume is divided into three sections Section I places African migration within the broader contexts of international history law economics and policy Section II discusses cases of African migration to Europe Latin America and the Mediterranean Section III considers negative consequences of mass African migration including the restriction and criminalization of migration post traumatic stress disorder and gender based violence A compelling account of risk resilience and global power dynamics this volume will be useful to students and researchers interested in African studies migration peace and conflict studies and policy as well as professionals practitioners NGOs IGOs governmental and humanitarian organizations Briefing on the Growing Refugee Problem United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on International Organizations,1979

Refugee Coloniality Bosco Opi,2024-04-27 This book presents a decolonial and Afrocentric critique of prolonged encampment of refugees centred on the case study of refugee camps in Kenya introduced through the author's decades long experience of forced displacement His positionality as a former refugee contributes to a wider discussion on representation voice and power within the refugee studies literature Likewise the revisiting of the refugee camp as site and tool of power from a colonial perspective is an important and timely contribution to the literature This book examines the camp as a colonial innovation and the enduring colonial logics of supposedly humanitarian extended encampment Drawing on the anti colonial theorists such as Fanon Mbembe and Nyerere etc it argues for an Africa without borders or encampment The study is interdisciplinary encompassing forced migration refugee studies camp studies decolonial studies and African studies More broadly it seeks to contribute to the literature on the politics of asylum in Africa through a critical examination of the colonial origins and the practice of encampment in Kenya World Hunger, Health, and Refugee Problems: Food scarcity, nutrition, and health United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee to Investigate Problems Connected with Refugees and Escapees,1973
