The Routledge Handbook of Refugee Narratives Evyn Lê Espiritu Gandhi, Vinh Nguyen, 2023-02-17 This Handbook presents a transnational and interdisciplinary study of refugee narratives broadly defined. Interrogating who can be considered a refugee and what constitutes a narrative, the thirty-eight chapters included in this collection encompass a range of forcibly displaced subjects, a mix of geographical and historical contexts, and a variety of storytelling modalities. Analyzing novels, poetry, memoirs, comics, films, photography, music, social media, data, graffiti, letters, reports, eco-design, video games, archival remnants, and ethnography, the individual chapters counter dominant representations of refugees as voiceless victims. Addressing key characteristics and thematics of refugee narratives, this Handbook examines how refugee cultural productions are shaped by and in turn shape socio-political landscapes. It will be of interest to researchers, teachers, students, and practitioners committed to engaging refugee narratives in the contemporary moment. The Open Access version of this book is available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> and has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 license.

The Making of Israeli Militarism Uri Ben-Eliezer, 1998-06-22 an original interpretation of the wide-ranging impact of the military on Israeli society, one of the most insightful works on Israeli society in general. Gershon Shafir: From the early days of the Yishuv, militarism and the military have become a way of life for Israelis. Focusing on the period between 1936 and 1956, Uri Ben-Eliezer traces the ways in which military force acquired legitimacy in civilian society and how the use of organized violence became an acceptable solution to conflicts, especially the Arab-Israeli conflict.

Black Muslim Refugee MOHAMED. ABUMAYE, Maxamed Abumaye, 2025 This multisited project, the first of its kind, exposes the links between US military violence abroad and police brutality at home through a profound exploration of Somali refugee lives. Black Muslim Refugee traces the globe-spanning journeys of these refugees from civil war-era Somalia to the Dadaab refugee camp in Kenya to their eventual arrival in San Diego. Maxamed Abumaye analyzes their experiences through the dual lenses of anti-Blackness and Islamophobia. He situates their displacement within the larger context of East Africa's colonial history as well as the policy consequences of the American-backed war on terror and war on drugs. Throughout, Abumaye's centering of Somali subjectivity underlines this community's critical and creative capacity to defy the mechanisms that seek to manage and ultimately control them.

Archipelago of Resettlement Evyn Lê Espiritu Gandhi, 2022-04-26 A free open access ebook is available upon publication. Learn more at www.luminosoa.org. What happens when refugees encounter Indigenous sovereignty struggles in the countries of their resettlement? From April to November 1975, the US military processed over 112,000 Vietnamese refugees on the unincorporated territory of Guam. From 1977 to 1979, the State of Israel granted asylum and citizenship to 366 non-Jewish Vietnamese refugees. Evyn L. Espiritu Gandhi analyzes these two cases to theorize what she calls the refugee settler condition: the fraught positionality of refugee subjects whose resettlement in a settler colonial state is predicated on the unjust dispossession of an Indigenous population This groundbreaking book explores two forms of critical geography first archipelagos of empire examining how the Vietnam War is linked to the US military buildup in Guam and unwavering support of Israel and second corresponding archipelagos of trans Indigenous resistance tracing how Chamorro decolonization efforts and Palestinian liberation struggles are connected through the Vietnamese refugee figure Considering distinct yet overlapping modalities of refugee and Indigenous displacement Gandhi offers tools for imagining emergent forms of decolonial solidarity between refugee settlers and Indigenous peoples Refugees from Militarism Renee Goldsmith Kasinsky,1971 Feminist Praxis against U.S.

Militarism Wonhee Anne Joh,Nami Kim,2019-12-04 Feminist Praxis against U S Militarism provides critical feminist and womanist analyses of U S militarism that challenge the ongoing U S neoliberal military industrial complex and its multivalent violence that destroys people s lives especially women and other vulnerable populations It highlights the intentional critique of U S militarism from feminist womanist perspectives that seek to show the ways in which gender race ethnicity sexuality and violence intersect to threaten women s lives especially women of color s lives and the broader environment upon which women s lives are dependent Most of all this volume challenges the readers to understand the U S as the warfare counterterror carceral state and its devastating effects on the everyday lives of women especially women of color locally nationally and globally This volume also helps readers understand the racialized gendered impacts of U S militarism in conjunction with the ongoing global economies of dispossession and militarized violence across the borders of nation states Interrogating U S military interventions in other countries can show how the U S War on Terror directly affects U S domestic affairs and daily lives in the United States Transpacific Studies Janet Alison Hoskins,Viet Thanh Nguyen,2014-08-31

The Pacific has long been a space of conquest exploration fantasy and resistance Pacific Islanders had established civilizations and cultures of travel well before European explorers arrived initiating centuries of upheaval and transformation The twentieth century with its various wars fought in and over the Pacific is only the most recent era to witness military strife and economic competition While Asia Pacific and Pacific Rim were late twentieth century terms that dealt with the importance of the Pacific to the economic political and cultural arrangements that span Asia and the Americas a new term has arisen the transpacific In the twenty first century U S efforts to dominate the ocean are symbolized not only in the Pacific pivot of American policy but also the development of a Transpacific Partnership This partnership brings together a dozen countries not including China in a trade pact whose aim is to cement U S influence That pact signals how the transpacific up to now an academic term has reached mass consciousness Recognizing the increasing importance of the transpacific as a word and concept this anthology proposes a framework for transpacific studies that examines the flows of culture capital ideas and labor across the Pacific These flows involve Asia the Americas and the Pacific Islands The introduction to the anthology by its editors Janet Hoskins and Viet Thanh Nguyen consider the advantages and limitations of models found in

Asian studies American studies and Asian American studies for dealing with these flows The editors argue that transpacific studies can draw from all three in order to provide a critical model for considering the geopolitical struggle over the Pacific with its attendant possibilities for inequality and exploitation Transpacific studies also sheds light on the cultural and political movements artistic works and ideas that have arisen to contest state corporate and military ambitions In sum the transpacific as a concept illuminates how flows across the Pacific can be harnessed for purposes of both domination and resistance The anthology s contributors include geographers Brenda S A Yeoh Weiqiang Lin sociologists Yen Le Espiritu Hung Cam Thai literary critics John Carlos Rowe J Francisco Benitez Yunte Huang Viet Thanh Nguyen and anthropologists Xiang Biao Heonik Kwon Nancy Lutkehaus Janet Hoskins as well as a historian Laurie J Sears and a film scholar Akira Lippit Together these contributors demonstrate how a transpacific model can be deployed across multiple disciplines and from varied locations with scholars working from the United States Singapore Japan and England Topics include the Cold War the Chinese state U S imperialism diasporic and refugee cultures and economies national cinemas transpacific art and the view of the transpacific from Asia These varied topics are a result of the anthology s purpose in bringing scholars into conversation and illuminating how location influences the perception of the transpacific But regardless of the individual view what the essays gathered here collectively demonstrate is the energy excitement and insight that can be generated from within a transpacific framework

Asi, 2024-01-30 Armed conflict poses a huge threat to public health but perhaps not in the way you would think It s time to reconsider our entire approach to human security Thanks to our increasingly connected world we can now witness the worst manifestations of war in ways we never could before This makes it easier than ever to recognize dangerous conflicts as a threat to health and well being at least for those populations living in war zones In How War Kills Yara M Asi exposes the devastating repercussions of war that extend far beyond the battlefield By tracing the trajectory of violence throughout history with a focus on contemporary conflicts Asi argues that war has been overlooked from a public health perspective From the breakdown of sanitation and other vital infrastructure to the scarcity of essential resources war creates a perilous environment ripe for disease outbreaks and widespread suffering far beyond the reach of bullets and bombs She also challenges the reactive nature of current humanitarian responses and calls for more proactive measures to prevent the catastrophic consequences of war and militarism Drawing on data and stories from around the world Asi breaks down the complex mechanics of war and how they impact human security War is not an inevitable part of the human condition but is rather a global health crisis in dire need of intervention Aimed at anyone seeking to understand why increased national security spending has left us feeling more insecure than ever this book provides an eye opening perspective on the war machine and makes an urgent call to dismantle it for everyone s sake Bodies at Borders: Analyzing the Objectification and Containment of Migrants at Border Crossing Louise Ryan, Izabela Grabowska, Vidal Romero, María Encarnación López, 2023-12-22 By the end of 2020 the number of forcibly displaced people globally had reached 82.4 million as a result of persecution conflict violence human rights violations and events seriously disturbing public order UNHCR 2021 Efforts to prevent these people from crossing national boundaries have resulted in draconian legislation and the vilification of migrants at various international borders In the Mediterranean at the border with fortress Europe there have been thousands of fatalities as migrants risk the treacherous crossing in tiny boats The so called weaponization of migration is apparent in recent events on the Polish Belarussian border as hundreds of asylum seekers are trapped between rival forces of armed soldiers Under the UK government s hostile environment policy many legal immigration routes have been closed and the rights of asylum seekers have been severely curtailed The so called migrant caravan which began in Honduras in October 2018 prompted the US and Mexican governments to deploy active duty military officers to the border creating more chaos in the area Displacing Kinship Linh Thuy Nguyen,2024-03-15 This book examines the family as a site of articulation for Vietnamese American experiences of racialization identity and trauma through an analysis of the art literature music and film by the children of Vietnamese refugees Caribbean Military Encounters Shalini Puri,Lara Putnam,2017-05-19 This book provides a much needed study of the lived experience of militarization in the Caribbean from 1914 to the present It offers an alternative to policy and security studies by drawing on the perspectives of literary and cultural studies history anthropology ethnography music and visual art Rather than opposing or defending militarization per se this book focuses attention on how Caribbean people negotiate militarization in their everyday lives The volume explores topics such as the US occupation of Haiti British West Indians in World War I the British naval invasion of Anguilla military bases including Chaguaramas Vieques and Guant namo the militarization of the police sex work and the military drug wars and surveillance calypso commentaries private security armies and border patrol operations
