Regarding Children A New Respect For Childhood And Families:

Regarding Children Herbert Anderson, Susan B. W. Johnson, 1994-01-01 Discusses child rearing identifies children's needs and outlines the support church and society should provide Children, Theology, and Bioethics Jessica Bratt Carle, 2024-12-15 Children remain at the periphery when bioethics envisions autonomous adults as normative human beings Children Theology and Bioethics Beyond Autonomy explores the full humanity of children inviting greater recognition of their place in the moral landscape of healthcare Theological insights into vulnerability dependence and agency summon appreciation for the experiences of pediatric patients and reveal what it means to be human at every age Interdisciplinary dialogue between bioethics childhood studies and pastoral theology is woven throughout with illustrative clinical vignettes from Bratt Carle's experience as a pediatric chaplain and clinical ethicist Children and Childhood in American Religions Don S. Browning, Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2009-02-16 Whether First Communion or bar mitzvah religious traditions play a central role in the lives of many American children In this collection of essays leading scholars reveal for the first time how various religions interpret reconstruct and mediate their traditions to help guide children and their parents in navigating the opportunities and challenges of American life The book examines ten religions among other topics How the Catholic Church confronts the tension between its teachings about children and actual practice The Oglala Lakota's struggle to preserve their spiritual tradition The impact of modernity on Hinduism Only by discussing the unique challenges faced by all religions and their followers can we take the first step toward a greater understanding for all of us Through the Eyes of a Child Anne Richards, Peter Privett, 2018-06-29 Looking through the eyes of a child is not a twee cosy or easy experience It can be unsettling uncomfortable edgy from the Introduction Who has the right to do theology Only academics Only adults Or do we all have a voice in the kingdom of God Through the Eyes of a Child considers 14 key theological themes from one of the most neglected of perspectives that of children Honouring Jesus' command to place the child at the centre theologians psychologists and educationalists take us from our comfort zone to look afresh at some of the most grave difficult and beautiful topics in Christian theology Challenging conventional readings of theology this landmark work will fascinate and challenge anyone who cares about children and their place in the world and the church "Streetism" Isaac Ishmael Arthur, 2013-09-10 This book is a study that investigates the phenomenon of streetism the manner of life of homeless or unmonitored youth on the streets of Accra Ghana and other urban centers in a country where barrenness and childlessness are socially undesirable The study utilizes a qualitative ethnographic and critical theory based approach to present a socio-culturally nuanced addition to the literature on street children The work engages in theological reflection on the basis of the experiences of poverty and marginalization of the youth on the streets and for their liberation This thesis also utilizes an intercultural methodology to examine the causes of streetism and liberation praxis for its eradication The findings of the study include how poverty dropping out of school breakdown of the extended family systems parental death urbanization adventure and earning of personal income influence the migration of youth to the streets The study also examines the effects of rape and the resilient and hopeful attitudes of the homeless youth The study proposes pastoral responses on three ecological levels At the macro level advocacy is proposed for addressing the problems embedded in social structures and government policies and ideologies At the meso level congregational and community response is offered to deal with issues emanating from local communities and institutions Dealing with the psychosocial effects at the micro level the study offers pastoral counseling for street youth and parents and individual group and narrative counseling approaches for individuals and groups within the community

Theologies of Childhood and the Children of Africa Jan Grobbelaar, Gert Breed, Alfred Brunsdon, Marcia J. Bunge, Sam Ndogo, Hannes (J.J.) Knoetze, Nico Vorster, 2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theologies from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It wants to convey the importance of considering Africa's children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa's children The individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research which the authors have done in the past Most of the academic literature in the field of Theologies of Childhood is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa's children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provide insights that is also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere before
