Religion Civique A Lepoque Medievale Et Moderne:

Churchmen and Urban Government in Late Medieval Italy, c.1200-c.1450 Frances Andrews, Agata Pincelli, 2013-11-28 Major new study of secular religious boundaries and the role of the clergy in the administration of Italy's late medieval city states

The Late Medieval Cult of the Saints Carmen Florea, 2021-11-11 This is a book that explores the nature of sainthood in a region at the margins of medieval Latin Christendom Defining the model of sanctity that characterized Transylvania between the fourteenth and sixteenth centuries the study considers how the cults of saints functioned within specific local social and cultural contexts Analyzing case studies from a multi ethnic region influenced by both the Latin and Eastern Christian traditions this book provides a close reading of little surveyed primary sources and offers a comprehensive understanding of sainthood in Transylvania enhancing the broader study of medieval saints cults and their relationship to social power structures It will be of great interest to scholars of medieval religion researchers in medieval studies and religious studies scholars engaged in comparative research

Civic Ceremony and Religion in Medieval Bruges c.1300-1520 Andrew Brown, 2011-03-10 Public religious practice lay at the heart of civic society in late medieval Europe In this illuminating study Andrew Brown draws on the rich and previously little researched archives of Bruges one of medieval Europe's wealthiest and most important towns to explore the role of religion and ceremony in urban society The author situates the religious practices of citizens their investment in the liturgy commemorative services guilds and charity within the contexts of Bruges highly diversified society and of the changes and crises the town experienced Focusing on the religious processions and festivities sponsored by the municipal government the author challenges much current thinking on for example the nature of civic religion Re evaluating the ceremonial links between Bruges and its rulers he questions whether rulers could dominate the urban landscape by religious or ceremonial means and offers new insight into the interplay between ritual and power of relevance throughout medieval Europe

Late Medieval France Graeme Small, 2009-10-23 A fresh introduction to the political history of late medieval France during the turbulent period of the Hundred Years War taking into account the social economic and religious contexts Graeme Small considers not just the monarchy but also prelates noble networks and the emerging municipalities in this new analysis

The Oxford Handbook of the Protestant Reformations Ulinka Rublack, 2017 This Handbook takes a broad overview of the Protestant Reformations seeing them as movements which stretched far beyond their European beginnings Written by a team of international scholars of history and theology the contributions offer up to date perspectives on Reformation ideas and the lasting historical impact of Protestantism

The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity John Arnold, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity takes as its subject the beliefs practices and institutions of the Christian Church between 400 and 1500AD It addresses topics ranging from early medieval monasticism to late medieval mysticism from the material wealth of the Church to the spiritual exercises through which certain believers might attempt to improve their souls

Each chapter tells a story but seeks also to ask how and why Christianity took particular forms at particular moments in history paying attention to both the spiritual and otherworldly aspects of religion and the material and political contexts in which they were often embedded This Handbook is a landmark academic collection that presents cutting edge interpretive perspectives on medieval religion for a wide academic audience drawing together thirty key scholars in the field from the United States the UK and Europe Notably the Handbook is arranged thematically and focusses on an analytical rather than narrative approach seeking to demonstrate the variety change and complexity of religion throughout this long period and the numerous different ways in which modern scholarship can approach it While providing a very wide ranging view of the subject it also offers an important agenda for further study in the field 1995 Massimo Mastrogregori,2014-02-21

Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors A Printed Icon in Early Modern Italy Lisa Pon,2015-03-23 In 1428 a devastating fire destroyed a schoolhouse in the northern Italian city of Forl leaving only a woodcut of the Madonna and Child that had been tacked to the classroom wall The people of Forl carried that print now known as the Madonna of the Fire into their cathedral where two centuries later a new chapel was built to enshrine it In this book Lisa Pon considers a cascade of moments in the Madonna of the Fire s cultural biography when ink was impressed onto paper at a now unknown date when that sheet was recognized by Forl s people as miraculous when it was enshrined in various tabernacles and chapels in the cathedral when it or one of its copies was and still is carried in procession In doing so Pon offers an experiment in art historical inquiry that spans more than three centuries of making remaking and renewal Confession and Criminal Justice in Late Medieval Italy Lidia Luisa Zanetti Domingues,2021-08-26 In medieval Italy the practice of revenge as criminal justice was still popular amongst members of all social classes yet crime also was increasingly perceived as a public matter that needed to be dealt with by the government rather than private citizens Confession and Criminal Justice in Late Medieval Italy sheds light on this contradiction through an in depth comparison of lay and religious sources produced in Siena between 1260 and 1330 on criminal justice conflict and violence Confession and Criminal Justice in Late Medieval Italy argues that religious people were an effective pressure group with regards to criminal justice thanks both to the literary works they produced and their direct intervention in political affairs and that their contributions have not received the attention they deserve It shows that the dichotomy between theories and practices of private and of public justice should be substituted by a framework in which three models or discourses of criminal justice are recognised as present in medieval Italian communes with the addition of a specifically religious discourse based on penitential spirituality Although the models of criminal justice were competing they also influenced each other Jean Bodin, 'this Pre-eminent Man of France' Howell A. Lloyd, 2017-05-26 Jean Bodin was a figure of great importance in European intellectual history known as a jurist associate of kings and courtiers in sixteenth century France and author of influential works in the fields of constitutional and social thought historical writing witchcraft and a great deal else besides Best known for his contribution to formulating the modern doctrine of sovereignty Bodin was a scholar of exceptional range whose works provoked controversy in his own time and have continued to do so down the centuries Hugh Trevor Roper described him as the Aristotle the Montesquieu of the sixteenth century the prophet of comparative history of political theory of the philosophy of law of the quantitative theory of money and of so much else Much has been written on Bodin and his ideas but in this new intellectual biography Howell A Lloyd presents the first rounded treatment of the thinker and his times his writings major and minor and his ideas in their contemporary context as well as in that of broader intellectual traditions
