men and women as they begin to settle in Egypt's great second city and explores how the Second World War starting in supposedly faraway Europe comes crashing down on them affecting their lives in fateful ways Central to the novel is the story of a striking friendship between Sheikh Magd al Din a devout Muslim with peasant roots in northern Egypt and Dimyan a Copt with roots in southern Egypt in their journey of survival and self discovery Woven around this narrative are the stories of other characters in the city in the villages or in the faraway desert closer to the fields of combat And then there is the story of Alexandria itself as written by history as experienced by its denizens and as touched by the war Throughout the author captures the cadences of everyday life in the Alexandria of the early 1940s and boldly explores the often delicate question of religious differences in depth and on more than one level No One Sleeps in Alexandria adds an authentically Egyptian vision of Alexandria to the many literary but mainly Western Alexandrias we know already it may be the same space in which Cavafy Forster and Durrell move but it is certainly not the same world

Before the Throne Naguib Mahfouz, 2012-07-03 Nearly sixty of Egypt's past leaders from the time of the Pharaohs to the twentieth century are summoned to judgment in the Court of Osiris in the Afterlife in this extraordinary novel by Nobel Prize winning author Naguib Mahfouz Before the Throne calls forth a parade of those who have shaped the modern nation of Egypt from the ruler who first unified Egypt in 3000 BC to Anwar Sadat the president assassinated by religious extremists in 1981 and including figures as various as the famous pharaoh Ramesses II and the medieval vizier Qaraqush As they defend their decisions under questioning by Osiris Isis and Horus those who acted for the nation's good are honored with immortality in paradise while those who failed to protect it are condemned either to the inferno or to the place of insignificance Full of Mahfouz's unique insight into his country's timeless qualities this provocative work skillfully traces five thousand years of Egypt's past as it flows into the turbulent present

Translated from the Arabic by Raymond Stock The Scents of Marie-Claire Habib Selmi, 2010-03-15 A Tunisian novel shortlisted for the International Prize for Arabic Fiction the Arabic Booker This novel from one of Tunisia's leading writers the first of his works to be translated into English narrates a love story in all its stages in all its glorious and inglorious details Moment by moment we become acquainted with the morning rituals the desires of the flesh the turbulence of the spirit and even a few unattractive personal habits It is a journey that takes us inside the nuances of what passes between two lovers from the first glances of attraction to the final words of anger It is a journey filled with all the hallmarks of the complex relationship between one man and one woman the mystery and the ambiguity the intricacy and the confusion which in the end serve to expose its fragility This is an intimate tale that manages to tell not only the story of two individuals but also that of the collision of two cultures

Life's Wisdom Naguib Mahfouz, 2006 With a writing career spanning some seventy years Naguib Mahfouz is one of the most recognized writers in the world His study of philosophy at what is now Cairo University greatly influenced his works as did his wide readings and his work in the government and in the Cinema Organization Life's Wisdom is a unique collection of quotations selected from the great author's works offering philosophical insights on themes such as childhood youth love marriage war freedom death the supernatural the afterlife the soul immortality and many other subjects that take us through life's journey Naguib Mahfouz's works abound with words of wisdom As Nadine Gordimer states in her foreword to his Echoes of an Autobiography The essence of a writer's being is in the work not the personality though the world values things otherwise and would rather see what the writer looks like on television than read where he or she really is to be found in the writings In keeping with Gordimer's comment Mahfouz's true nature can be found in his writing The quotations included here offer a broad yet profound insight into the writer's philosophy gained through a life's journey of experience and writing zaat sonallah ibrahim,2004 This novel tells the story of the life of an Egyptian woman the eponymous Zaat during the regimes of three Egyptian presidents Abdel Nasser Sadat and Mubarak It takes a humorous but often black look at the changes that have occurred in Egypt over the past few decades Zaat's life experiences and relationships are set against economic and social upheavals in a style that is both sophisticated and bawdy highly ironic and often extremely poignant

The Essential Yusuf Idris Denys Johnson-Davies,2009-05-01 Yusuf Idris 1927-91 who belonged to the same generation of pioneering Egyptian writers as Naguib Mahfouz and Tawfiq al Hakim is widely celebrated as the father of the Arabic short story He studied and practiced medicine but his interests were in politics and the support of the nationalist struggle and in writing and his writing whether in his regular newspaper columns or in his fiction often reflected his political convictions He was nominated for the Nobel Prize for literature more than once and when the prize went to Naguib Mahfouz in 1988 Idris felt that he had been passed over because of his outspoken views on Israel In all Yusuf Idris wrote some twelve collections of superbly crafted short stories mainly about ordinary poor people many of which have been translated into English and are included along with an extract from one of his novels in this collection of the best of his work

Specters of World Literature Mattar Karim Mattar,2020-04-02 At the heart of this book is a spectral theory of world literature that draws on Edward Said Aamir Mufti Jacques Derrida and world systems theory to assess how the field produces local literature as an elsewhere that haunts its universalising assimilative imperative with the force of the uncanny It takes the Middle Eastern novel as both metonym and metaphor of a spectral world literature It explores the worlding of novels from the Middle East in recent years and focusing on the pivotal sites of Middle Eastern modernity Egypt Turkey Iran argues that lost to their global production circulation and reception is their constitution in the logic of spectrality With the intention of redressing this imbalance it critically restores their engagements with the others of Middle Eastern modernity and shows through a new reading of the Middle Eastern novel that world literature is always already haunted by its others the ghosts of modernity

The Other Place Ibrahim Abdel Meguid,2006-09-01 The Other Place portrays the shallowness of the petrodollar culture and the price one pays for quick money The protagonist of this prize winning novel an educated middle class Egyptian from Alexandria describes his experiences and those of migrant workers and professionals in one of the Gulf states and their interaction with the oil rich country's local elite and with agents of western businesses The book pictures rather than states the desolation brought about when market values take over and the ravages that such an order causes to all who partake in it Ibrahim Abdel Meguid succeeds in representing imaginatively the important phenomenon of migration and the barren landscape of the petrodollar culture and at the same time penetrates the rationalizing mechanisms of the migrants and their psychological make up The Other Place was awarded the Naguib Mahfouz Medal for Literature in 1996

Nile Sparrows Ibrahim Aslan, 2009 Set in the author's own Nile side neighborhood of Warraq Aslan's second novel the first to be translated and published in English chronicles the daily rhythm of life of rural migrants to Cairo and their complex webs of familial and neighborly relations over half a century It opens with the mysterious disappearance of the tiny grandmother Hanem who is over 100 years old and is last seen by her daughter in law Dalal Dalal does not have the heart to tell Hanem that her grown children Nargis and Abdel Reheem have both been dead for some time Her grandson Mr Abdalla who has children of his own and not a few flecks of gray in his hair reluctantly sets out for their home village to search for her embarking on a bittersweet odyssey into his family's past and a confrontation with his own aging In an elliptical narrative Aslan limns a series of vignettes that mimic the workings of memory moving backward and forward in time and held together by a series of recurrent figures and images There is Abdalla's father the tragic al Bahey Uthman his quirky and earthy uncle Abdel Reheem and his sweet mother Nargis who dies with her simplest desires unfulfilled Aslan's moving portrait of the quotidian dramas that constitute the lives of ordinary Egyptians is untainted by populist pretensions or belittling romanticism and full of the humor and heartbreaking pathos that have become trademarks of the author's style

No One Sleeps in Alexandria Ibrahim Abdel Meguid, 2006-04-01 This sweeping novel depicts the intertwined lives of an assortment of Egyptians Muslims and Copts northerners and southerners men and women as they begin to settle in Egypt's great second city and explores how the Second World War starting in supposedly faraway Europe comes crashing down on them affecting their lives in fateful ways Central to the novel is the story of a striking friendship between Sheikh Magd al Din a devout Muslim with peasant roots in northern Egypt and Dimyan a Copt with roots in southern Egypt in their journey of survival and self discovery Woven around this narrative are the stories of other characters in the city in the villages or in the faraway desert closer to the fields of combat And then there is the story of Alexandria itself as written by history as experienced by its denizens and as touched by the war Throughout the author captures the cadences of everyday life in the Alexandria of the early 1940s and boldly explores the often delicate question of religious differences in depth and on more than one level No One Sleeps in Alexandria adds an authentically Egyptian vision of Alexandria to the many literary but mainly Western Alexandrias we know already it may be the same space in which Cavafy Forster and Durrell move but it is certainly not the same world

A Comparative Analysis of the Great American and Arab Novel Alen Ontl, 2018-07-26 This book represents the first comparative reading of the Great Novel of American and Arabic literature to date The Great American Novel that most elusive and frustrating of concepts ever present in film and literary scholarship has been an object of pursuit inspiration and contention for more than a century By reviewing the most serious literary scholarship in the field this book identifies the work often recognized by critics as the quintessential American novel the work that best captures the different aspects of American society and compares and contrasts it with its counterpart in Arabic culture Intended for both academics and serious readers of literature the book serves to establish a new trend in cross cultural literary scholarship in addition to opening up new vistas for literary exploration in this politically charged field The Dreams Naguib Mahfouz, 2011-10-05 In his final years Egyptian Nobel Laureate Naguib Mahfouz distilled his storyteller's art to its most essential level Written with the compression and power of dreams these poetic vignettes originally collected in two books The Dreams and Dreams of Departure here combined in one volume for the first time These stories telescope epic tales into tersely haunting miniatures A man finds his neighborhood has turned into a circus but his joy turns to anger when he cannot escape it An obscure writer finally achieves fame through the epitaph on his grave A group of friends telling jokes in an alley face the murderous revenge of an ancient Egyptian queen Figures from Mahfouz's past women he loved men who inspired him even fictional characters from his own novels float through tales dreamed by a mind too fertile ever to rest even in sleep Translated by Raymond Stock
