The Gendered Pulpit Roxanne Mountford, 2003 In this feminist investigation into the art of preaching one of the oldest and least studied rhetorical traditions Roxanne Mountford explores the relationship between bodies space race and gender in rhetorical performance and American Protestant culture Refiguring delivery and physicality as significant components of the rhetorical situation The Gendered Pulpit Preaching in American Protestant Spaces examines the strategies of three contemporary women preachers who have transgressed traditions rearranged rhetorical space and conquered gender bias to establish greater intimacy with their congregations Mountford's examinations of the rhetoric inherent in preaching manuals from 1850 to the present provide insight into how manliness has remained a central concept in American preaching since the mid nineteenth century The manuals illustrate that the character style method of delivery and theological purpose of preachers focused on white men and their cultural standing leaving contemporary women preachers searching for ways to accommodate themselves to the physicality of preaching Three case studies of women preachers who have succeeded or failed in rearranging rhetorical space provide the foundation for the volume These contemporary examples have important implications for feminist theology and also reveal the importance of gender space and bodies to studies of rhetoric in general Mountford explores the geographies of St John's Lutheran Church and the preaching of Rev Patricia O Connor who reformed rhetorical space through the delivery of her sermons At Eastside United Church of Christ Mountford shows Rev Barbara Hill employed narrative style and prophetic utterance in the tradition of black preaching to address gender bias and institute change in her congregation The final case study details the experiences of Pastor Janet Moore and her struggles at Victory Hills United Methodist Church where the fractured congregation could not be united even with Pastor Moore's focus on theological purpose and invention strategies Publisher description

Literary Circles and Gender in Early Modern Europe Julie Campbell, 2018-01-18 A comparative analysis this study examines the interactions of early modern male and female writers within the context of literary circles In particular Campbell examines how the querelle des femmes as a discursive rhetorical tradition of praise and blame influenced perceptions of well educated women who were part of literary circles in Italy France and England from approximately 1530 to 1650 To gain a better sense of how querelle language and issues were used for or against learned women writers Campbell aligns selected works by female and male writers pairing them to analyze how the woman writer responds deflects or rewrites the male writer's ideological script on women She focuses first on the courtesan Tullia d'Aragona's response in her Dialogo della infinit di amore to Sperone Speroni's Dialogo di amore and contrasts the actress writer Isabella Andreini's pastoral La Mirtilla with Torquato Tasso's Aminta She then discusses the influence of Italian actresses upon the manners and mores of French women of the Valois court especially focusing on performative aspects of French women's participation in court and salon rituals To that end she examines the influential salon of the aristocratic learned Claude Catherine de Clermont duchesse de Retz who encouraged the writing of positive querelle rhetoric in the form of Petrarchan Neoplatonic encomiastic poetry to buttress her reputation and that of her female friends Next Campbell reads Louise Labé's De Folie et d'Amour against Pontus de Tyard's Solitaire premier to illustrate the tensions between a traditional and nontraditional querelle stance She then discusses Continental influence upon English writers in the context of the Sidney circle in England Moving to the closet dramas of the Sidney circle Campbell examines the solidarity these writers demonstrated with nontraditional stances on querelle issues and finally she explores how three generations of English literary circles con

Formations of Class & Gender Beverley Skeggs, 1997-06-03 Explanations of how identities are constructed are fundamental to contemporary debates in feminism and in cultural and social theory Formations of Class & Gender demonstrates why class should be featured more prominently in theoretical accounts of gender identity and power Beverley Skeggs identifies the neglect of class and shows how class and gender must be fused together to produce an accurate representation of power relations in modern society The book questions how theoretical frameworks are generated for understanding how women live and produce themselves through social and cultural relations It uses detailed ethnographic research to explain how real women inhabit and occupy the social and cultural positions of class femininity and sexuality As a critical examination of cultural representation informed by recent feminist theory and the work of Pierre Bourdieu the book is an articulate demonstration of how to translate theory into practice

Emmett Till in Literary Memory and Imagination Harriet Pollack, Christopher Metress, 2008-01-01 The horrific 1955 slaying of fourteen year old Emmett Till marks a significant turning point in the history of American race relations An African American boy from Chicago Till was visiting relatives in the Mississippi Delta when he was accused of wolf whistling at a young white woman His murderers abducted him from his great uncle's home beat him then shot him in the head Three days later searchers discovered his body in the Tallahatchie River The two white men charged with his murder received a swift acquittal from an all white jury The eleven essays in Emmett Till in Literary Memory and Imagination examine how the narrative of the Till lynching continues to haunt racial consciousness and to resonate in our collective imagination The trial and acquittal of Till's murderers became in the words of one historian the first great media event of the civil rights movement and since then the lynching has assumed a central place in literary memory The international group of contributors to this volume explores how the Emmett Till story has been fashioned and refashioned in fiction poetry drama and autobiography by writers as diverse as William Bradford Huie James Baldwin Langston Hughes Gwendolyn Brooks Audre Lorde Anne Moody Nicol s Guill n Aim C saire Bebe Moore Campbell and Lewis Nordan They suggest the presence of an Emmett Till narrative deeply embedded in post 1955 literature an overarching recurrent plot that builds on recognizable elements and is as legible as the lynching narrative or the passing narrative Writers have fashioned Till s story in many ways an the annotated bibliography that ends the volume discusses more than 130 works that memorialize the lynching calling attention to the full extent of Till s presence in literary memory Breaking new ground in civil rights studies and the discussion of race in America Emmett Till in Literary Memory and Imagination eloquently attests to the special power and artistic resonance of one young man s murder economic and political change in early twentieth century Ontario identifies factors that created or foreclosed on women lawyers professional success The book s final section explores how some current women lawyers despite their increased numbers must remain quiet rebels to succeed Knowledge That Matters Lucy Tatman,2001-12-13 Lucy Tatman identifies the events and ideas that influenced the formation of a North american feminist paradigm She explores the components of this paradigm particularly the way in which they affect the understanding of knowledge She then examines the representation of these elements in the theologies of three prominent feminist theologians in North America Rosemary Radford Ruether Carter Heyward and Sallie McFague From her discussion of these scholars she proposes that a responsible feminist practice of epistemology requires participatory discernment
