Richard Burton Explorer Of Arabia And Africa:

Paths Without Glory James L. Newman, 2009-12-31 Few people have garnered so much enduring interest as Sir Richard Burton. A true polymath, Burton is best known today for his translations of the Kama Sutra and Arabian Nights. Yet Africa stood at the center of his adult life. The Burton Speke expedition, 1856-59, that put Lake Tanganyika on the map led to years of controversy over the source of the White Nile. From 1861 to 1864, Burton served as British consul in Fernando Po and traveled widely between Ghana and Angola. He wrote prodigiously and contributed some of the first detailed ethnographic accounts of Africa's peoples. In many ways, however, Africa proved to be Burton's undoing. Injuries and sickness sapped his strength; he made enemies in high places; and ironically, even the discovery of Lake Tanganyika worked to his disadvantage. Increasingly frustrated and bitter, he turned to alcohol as a frequent remedy. In this fascinating story of the relationship between a man and a continent, geographer James L. Newman provides an intimate portrait of Burton through careful examination of his journals and biographers' rich analyses. Delving deepest into Burton's later life and travels, Newman pinpoints the thematic mainstays of his career as a diplomat and explorer: namely, his strong advocacy of aggressive imperial policies and his belief that race explained crucial human differences. Historians and scholars of the golden age of empire, as well as armchair adventurers, will not only discover what defined this famously enigmatic figure but venture themselves into the heart of mid-nineteenth-century Africa.

First Footsteps in East Africa, Or, An Exploration of Harar Sir Richard Francis Burton, 1894 Burton Byron Farwell, 1963 Biography of English adventurer Sir Richard Burton, who was a linguist, scholar, Orientalist, collector of erotica, secret agent, and explorer of the Nile.

Explorers DK, 2010-09-20 From the first people to leave Africa to the first to leave the planet, the urge to explore the unknown has driven human progress. Explorers tells the story of humanity's explorations, taking the reader into the lives of some of the most intrepid people ever known. Throughout history, exploration has arisen from a wide range of impulses: from trade and the search for lands to colonize to scientific curiosity and missionary zeal. This book tells the story of explorers of every type, from those chasing glory to those seeking enlightenment. In its pages, readers will meet some of history's most famous trail blazers: people whose courage opened frontiers, turned voids into maps, forged nations, connected cultures, and added to humankind's knowledge of the world by leaps and bounds. Each life is captured in context by considering the knowledge of the world in which the explorers lived, the factors that gave rise to their expeditions, and the technology available to them at the time. Their discoveries and the consequences are also considered in depth and highlighted with beautiful maps, photographs, and illustrations. The tales of the explorers, assistants, and companions are woven into the overall story, along with an examination of the qualities that made them drop everything in pursuit of discovery.
