Richard Spencer Napoleonic War Hero And Australian Pioneer:

Richard Spencer: Napoleonic War Naval Hero and Australian Pioneer Gwen Chessell, 2005 Richard Spencer G. S. J. Chessell, 2005 Captain Sir Richard Spencer RN was a nineteenth century man of action He was adventurous resourceful devoted to those in his care and had as Gwen Chessell put it a quarterdeck manner He is remembered today as the early Government Resident of the fledgling settlement in Albany on the south coast of Western Australia Albany was a shanty town when the ship bearing Richard and Ann Spencer and their nine children soon to be ten anchored in Princess Royal Harbour in 1833 Their carefully selected goods from window frames glass and roof slates to assorted fruit trees were carried precariously ashore The family all but doubled the town's population Richard Spencer worked diligently to administer the turbulent pioneer settlement living peacefully with the local Aboriginal people and helping guarantee Albany's future as a settlement and port He established Strawberry Hill Farm and built a comfortable home there for his family All this he achieved in middle age The story of his early life in the Royal Navy of Admiral Lord Nelson's day is told here for the first time Zealous intrepid to the point of foolhardiness and a hero to his men Captain Spencer was a rising star during the Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars BOOK JACKET The Life and Times of Alexander Thomson: Surgeon, Settler and Founder of Geelong Gwen Chessell, 2019 A biography of Dr Alexander Thomson of Aberdeen Scotland who founded the City of Geelong and became its first Mayor He played a significant part in the development of the State of Victoria Australia

Never Again Andrea Gaynor, Peter Newman, Philip Jennings, 2018 The lead up to the 2017 Western Australian state election saw a large and lively protest over the construction of stage 8 of the Roe Highway Roe 8 and the Perth Freight Link Years of opposition to Roe 8 culminated in civil disobedience mass arrests and media theatrics as the bulldozers tore across Aboriginal heritage sites and through much loved bushland and wetland just weeks out from an election the government appeared likely to lose When Labor was swept to power in the biggest landslide victory ever delivered by Western Australian voters the Roe 8 contracts were cancelled However the planning systems that enabled Roe 8 and the Perth Freight Link remain in place and in need of reform This book illuminates what was at stake in the conflict for Perth residents Aboriginal heritage and the environment It traces the history of Roe 8 and the Perth Freight Link to show what needs to be done in order to ensure that Western Australian people and environments never again have such a damaging project thrust upon them It surveys the issues and makes recommendations across transport planning environment health and Aboriginal heritage policy areas It also captures the nature of the diverse and vigorous resistance to the project setting the struggle and its bittersweet victory in a wider context Subject Environmental Studies Australian Studies Aboriginal Studies Charles Darwin in Australia F. W. Nicholas, Jan Nicholas, 2008-11-07 Drawing upon Darwin's diary this lavishly illustrated book traces Darwin's travels in Australia in 1836 A Boy's Short Life Anna Haebich, Steve Mickler, 2013 Warren Braedon named by his adoptive parents Louis St John Johnson was taken from his mother in Alice Springs at just three months old Told he had been abandoned Louis's adoptive parents Bill and Pauline Johnson raised him in a loving family in Perth

Dancing in Shadows Anna Haebich, 2018 Dancing in Shadows explores the power of Indigenous performance pitted against the forces of settler colonisation. Historian Anna Haebich documents how the Nyungar people of Western Australia strategically and courageously adapted their rich performance culture to survive the catastrophe that engulfed them and continue to generously share their culture, history and language in theatre. In public corroborees they performed their sovereignty to the colonists and in community-only gatherings they danced and sang to bring forth resilience and spiritual healing. Pushed away by the colonists and denied their culture and lands, they continued to live and perform in the shadows over the years in combinations of the old and the new, including indigenised settler songs and dances. Nyungar people survived and they now number around 40,000 people and constitute the largest Aboriginal nation in the Australian settler state. The ancient family lineages live in city suburbs and country towns and they continue to perform to celebrate their ancestors and to strengthen community well-being by being together. Dancing in Shadows sheds light on the little-known history of Nyungar performance. Subject: Theatre Studies, Sociology, History, Australian History, Aboriginal Studies.

Fire and Hearth Sylvia J. Hallam, 2014. Originally published by the Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies, this facsimile edition of Professor Sylvia J. Hallam's classic 1975 work Fire and Hearth includes a substantial Afterword by the author and a Preface by Emeritus Professor John Mulvaney. The book has been produced in light of the considerable new interest in the subject of Aboriginal land management before European settlement in Australia. The land the English settled was not as God made it; it was as the Aborigines made it. Such is the challenging claim which opens Sylvia Hallam's majestic pioneer memoir on the interconnections between Aboriginal society, Country, and the varied applications of deliberate firing. From the Preface by Professor John Mulvaney. Subject: History, Anthropology, Ethnography, Australian Studies, Aboriginal Studies, Land Conservation.

Invisible Country Bill Bunbury, 2015. When Europeans first settled in Australia, the land withheld many of its secrets from these new arrivals. There were broad rivers, wide plains, and tall forests, all of which to European eyes suggested promising sites for settlement. However, to many of the new settlers, the First Australians, the Aboriginal people were a puzzle. They moved freely through the country they knew intimately. What few settlers realized then was that the Aboriginal people and the land they lived in were indistinguishable. Invisible Country describes the environmental changes that have occurred in southwestern Australia since European settlement through four case studies of the development of local rivers, forests, and coastal plains. These stories, compiled through extensive conversations with farmers, ecologists, traditional owners, and others who rely on the land, are book-ended by an examination of the historical perspective in which these changes have occurred. It is a reminder that the land owns the people, not the other way around, and this is the beginning of a conversation about understanding and caring for the land that all Australians are fortunate to live in. Librarians' ebook available. Subject: Australian Studies, Environmental Studies, History.
