

Internet service types and speeds: Which one is for you?

Wondering which type of internet service is best for you? Read on to find out how each type works, its average speed and price and its pros and cons.

Which internet service type is right for you?

Fiber internet

Fiber is the fastest and most technologically advanced internet option on the market today. It uses fiber optic cable to relay data which travels as fast as 70% of the speed of light. Fiber internet can reach up to 2000 Mbps in speed and is ideal for multiple users with several devices.

PROS:

- Not as susceptible to bad weather
- Fastest download speeds

CONS:

- Limited availability
- Pricier plans

Cable internet

Cable internet uses the same infrastructure as cable television. Its speed may not be as fast as fiber, but cable internet can reach 1000 Mbps. Because cable internet shares bandwidth with other users in the area, you may experience slower speeds during peak hours.

Uses the same cable for TV and internet

PROS:

- Faster than average download speeds
- Affordable plans

CONS:

- Longer lock-in periods
- Slows down at peak times

Uses the same cable for phone and internet

DSL internet

DSL internet uses the infrastructure of an existing telephone network and transports data through the same wiring. Its signal may be slower the farther a user is from the main network and may not be the most reliable for 4K resolution video streaming. DSL suits small households with fewer devices.

PROS:

- Widely available
- Highly affordable plans

CONS:

- Slower speeds
- Speed depends on location

How much internet speed do you need?

Different internet types offer different speeds. How much internet speed you need depends on your household and day-to-day activities.

of devices used daily	1 - 3	4 - 9	10+
of people WFH	0	1 - 2	3+
Video streaming	HD streaming	HD streaming	4K
Online gaming	No online gaming	Casual gamer	Competitive
File downloads	No large file download	Occasionally download large files	Frequently downloads large files

No Nonsense Weightloss Guide Richard K. Mai, 2015-12-27 Are you carrying a little extra weight around the middle Maybe you ve got more than just a little weight problem maybe it s a rather large one and you need to get rid of the fat for health reasons Rest assured that you re not alone Obesity in America is at an all time high One of out of every three Americans is obese a number that has doubled in just ten years This epidemic is growing out of control in other countries as well as fast food franchises open in China Japan gery and other industrialised nations When you are overweight it s a serious issue Carrying extra weight can make you more susceptible to heart problems diabetes stroke and various types of cancer It can also affect your body image as well thus causing problems with your self esteem You deserve to be healthier and take off some of that weight that is making you unhealthy But what if you re like me and love food so you hate the idea of having to eat rice cakes and alfalfa sprouts or starving yourself just to help the weight come off We have good news for you You don t have to starve yourself to lose weight Many people associate weight loss with being hungry all the time They re afraid to start a weight loss plan because they want to avoid the frustrations of hunger And yes a lot of times for many people they think it s better to be overweight than to starve I m no exception I really like to eat so there s no way I would be constantly hungry for the sake being thin What kind of life is it if you re always feeling hungry Our natural instinct tells us to eat when we are hungry Hunger is a signal telling the body that it needs to eat It is also a signal to the body that it is in danger that it needs food now Our self preservation instinct makes us scarf down everything in sight in response to feelings of starvation Our body doesn t care that we live in the modern world where food is plentiful It acts the same as it would if we were living in a wild having to hunt for our food And it is not wise to go against the instinct that is designed to protect us from starvation death So get ready for a surprise you do not have to be hungry in order to lose weight On the contrary eating regular meals and keeping yourself full is what will actually help you stick to your healthy eating plan and reach your goals Keeping your hunger in check will help you avoid overeating It will also prevent you from feeling miserable frustrated and out of control Diet and weight loss is big business these days It seems you re always seeing and hearing ads for weight loss products that promise amazing results Some of them have their own meal plans some are just small little pills that purport to burn fat and others ask you to cut certain foods out of your diet in order to adjust the body s metabolism Enjoy your ebook NO NONSENSE WEIGHT LOSS GUIDE
