Ride For The Brand:

Ride for the Brand Red Steagall, 1993 Riding for the Brand Wes Walton, 2024-12-03 When I was nineteen years old and my mother Tahleatha was thirty nine years old she was diagnosed with stomach cancer She was the most godly and compassionate person I knew She was in the hospital when I took her my first saddle bronc riding check I won in my first PRCA rodeo I thought it would make her happy because she was at the high school rodeo when I covered my first bull and I could hear her over the entire crowd cheering me on I thought it would bring her joy that her son finally became a man but I could read disappointment on her face The rodeo check didn't even put a smile on her face so I asked her Mom what would make you happy She knew I gave my heart to Jesus at a young age So she said I wish you'd give your life to Jesus So I told her on her deathbed that I would and I signed up for a one year Bible institute in the Adirondack Mountains I asked God Please get a hold of my life or when I get out I'll probably go back to rodeo and hunting and manly stuff I learned God wasn't about taking and stripping everything from us but using the talents and interests he gave us in the first place as a platform for God to display his glory Riding for the Brand Jim Whitt, 2005-06 Riding for the Brand is a western that's set in the future It's a short novel about leadership human motivation and change The story revolves around two men Bob Fooshee a freelance writer and Burns Marcus a rancher who builds a business empire The year is 2030 and Fooshee is dispatched by a magazine to write about Marcus whose ranch was near bankruptcy 25 years earlier It was then that Marcus searching for answers attended the cattlemen's convention in San Antonio and heard a speaker who provoked him to radically change the way he approached his business This was the catalyst that led Marcus to start Diamond Enterprises which becomes the model organization of the 21st century While interviewing Burns at his ranch in Oklahoma Bob rides pasture ropes a few steers and discovers the key to Burns Marcus success the power of purposeful leadership Riding for the Brand Michael Pettit, 2012-11-27 Folks all over West Texas and eastern New Mexico will tell you Cowdens have been ranching here for as long as anyone can remember The Cowdens in fact have been at the forefront of the cattle business for 150 years Arriving in Texas in the 1850s Cowden men and women raised and trailed cattle sought out water and better grazing land tangled with Comanches and helped extend the western line of Anglo settlement as they raised their families They eventually moved to New Mexico where they established the renowned JAL Ranch Award winning writer Michael Pettit a Cowden descendant and former rancher offers a compelling portrait of this genuine American ranching family Riding for the Brand spans six generations and two states to serve up a real slice of the Old West complete with cowboys and Indians cattle and buffalo open range and barbed wire Pettit skillfully blends family saga with an urbanite's firsthand look at life on today's 50 000 acre Cowden Ranch where the one dependable factor is the constant wind Riding for the Brand traces the evolution of the Texas and New Mexico cattle business from the era of intimate ranching communities to today's oil enriched or corporate operations But it's also the story of one man's search for identity through his connections to a family a place and a way of life
