Riding The East Wind A Novel:

Riding the East Wind 東風, 1999 A Japanese American pilot in the days before Pearl Harbor is the hero of this novel which illuminates the tensions between the U S and Japan as war between them became inevitable The hero Ken Kurushima is torn by his loyalty to both countries Marshland Otohiko Kaga, 2024-07-09 Otohiko Kaga's Marshland is an epic novel on a Tolstoyan scale running from the pre World War II period to the turbulence of 1960s Japan At forty nine Atsuo Yukimori is a humble auto mechanic living an almost penitentially quiet life in Tokyo where his coworkers know something of his military record but nothing of his postwar criminal past Out of curiosity he accompanies his nephew to a demonstration at a nearby university and is gradually drawn into a friendship then a romance with Wakaka Ikuta the brilliant but mentally unstable daughter of a university professor As some of the student radical groups turn to violence and terrorism Atsuo and Wakaka find themselves framed for the lethal bombing of a Tokyo train During their long imprisonment the novel becomes a Kafkaesque procedural revealing the corrupt intricacies of the police and judicial system of Japan At the end of their hard pilgrimage to exoneration Atsuo and Wakaka are finally able to return to his original hometown Nemuro on the eastern most peninsula of Hokkaido island Here is the marshland of the title a remote and virtually unspoiled region of Japan where Kaga sets a large number of extraordinarily beautiful pastoral scenes Marshland is a revelation of modern Japanese history and culture a major novel from the hand of a master well known in his own country but virtually unheard of so far in the United States and Anglophone world in general Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions The Commodore's Story Ralph Middleton Munroe, Vincent Gilpin, 2018-12-05 The changes which brought the city of Miami of today are delightfully described in this book of personal reminiscences written by one of Florida's earliest settlers in collaboration with his life long friend Vincent Gilpin Ralph Munroe first went to Biscayne Bay in 1887 Soon after that time he and his friends built his home The Barnacle in Coconut Grove where he has lived ever since From this center his influence has been felt for almost fifty years during the vivid and exciting period of early exploration and settlement during the slow development which led up to Flagler and the railroad through the boom the disastrous hurricanes against which the Commodore's warnings went unheeded down to the present time No one interested in southern Florida or in the sea can afford to miss this picturesque story of a Biscayne Bay pioneer who is today so widely and affectionately known One of Florida's earliest lovers the Commodore has been unswervingly devoted to the best interests of the region and has been close to the most significant incidents of its growth Beautifully illustrated throughout with photographs from Ralph Munroe's private collection the earliest on the Bay Farnorth. A Novel ... Second Edition Theo Kennedy, 1871 LIFE

Beauty & The Beast The Editors of LIFE, 2017-03-03 Celebrating the release of Walt Disney's much anticipated live action version of the beloved 1991 animated feature LIFE delivers the fascinating story behind the fairy tale itself from its hidden origins as an ancient sometimes bawdy story told by firesides did you know the beast was once depicted as a pig to its later incarnations as a Brothers Grimm tale a classic French film a hit television series even an opera Culminating in a behind the scenes look at the new musical starring Emma Watson this is an enchanting look at the enduring power of a story that began Once upon a time Walter's Story Barbara Atwater, 2013-07-05 Several years ago while working on a family tree for the community of Pedro Bay I became intrigued by the region's past and its many fascinating characters Soon thereafter I decided to document the history of the north Iliamna Lake region through the eyes of one of my uncles Walter Johnson Walter is the son of a man from Estonia and a local Dena'ina Russian woman Annie my great grandmother Although Walter was one of nine children he grew up alone with his mother From her he learned the Dena'ina language and its folklore Walter's wonderful storytelling captures well what life was like on the lake for most of the 20th Century The Harvard Classics

The Harvard Classics Shelf of Fiction Complete 20 Volumes is an expansive anthology that captures the essence of 19th and early 20th century literature through a rich tapestry of narratives and innovative literary styles. This collection embodies a vast array of themes from existential inquiry to romantic idealism and societal critique. The anthology is renowned for its diversity, featuring both poignant realism and the ethereal mysticism that characterize this era's fiction. Highlighted within these volumes are stories that deftly weave complex characters and settings, demonstrating the timelessness of human emotions and the intricacies of social mores. Curated by the preeminent voices of their times, this anthology includes compelling contributions from Victor Hugo, Fyodor Dostoevsky, Charles Dickens, and Jane Austen. Each author brings their unique cultural and historical context to life, enriching the reader's understanding of the societal frameworks and movements such as Romanticism, Realism, and Victorianism that shaped literature during these periods. The collective imagination of these writers presents a dynamic mosaic of perspectives illustrating the universal yet distinctly personal themes resonating across different cultures and histories. Readers seeking to immerse themselves in the profound creativity and intellectual vigor of classical literature will find The Harvard Classics Shelf of Fiction an invaluable resource. This collection is recommended for its extraordinary breadth, offering an unparalleled opportunity to experience the multitude of narratives that defined an era. It stands as an educational and enlightening journey into the interplay of diverse literary voices, fostering a deeper appreciation of the timeless dialogue between these pioneering authors and their unforgettable stories.
