Lia, 2007-05-07 Globalisation and the Future of Terrorism Patterns and Predictions is devoted to understanding how international terrorism is shaped how it evolves over time and what we are to expect in the future Trans-Atlantic Divide

John J. Metzler, 2010 Trans Atlantic Divide The USA Euroland Rift presents a historical view woven with context infused with informed commentary and presented with clarity The book outlines a contrarian and realistic view that offers a clear common ground for both sides as illustrated in booming business trade and tourism relations between the USA and the EU In spite of the unavoidable diplomatic residue following the Iraq war American relations with Europe remain unquestionably vital for commercial cultural and geopolitical reasons Book Jacket European Security After 9/11 Matthew Sussex, 2017-07-05

Much scholarly attention has been paid to the United States response to the events of 9 11 This timely volume broadens our understanding of the impact of the attacks by instead considering their consequences for European security and for the relationship between the US and leading European states Bringing together an impressive collection of experts this work will be an excellent resource for courses on international security European politics and international relations Europe: A Civilian Power? Mario Telò, 2005-11-29 What is the European Union international role and identity becoming after the cold war September 11th and the transatlantic rift Is the second global actor challenging the trends towards a pax americana EUROPE A CIVILIAN POWER provides an original account of the features and the external relations of the EU as a civilian power in the making It addresses the key questions on the new security threat world emergencies challenging the EU not only as a peace and democracy stabilizer on a continental scale but also as an actor which shares responsibility for global governance and world order MARIO TELO provides a comparative analysis of regional cooperation in Europe Africa Asia and Latin America and focuses on the interregional relations with the EU He highlights the international relevance of the current EU constitutionalization process and gives a critical review of the concepts of civilian power soft power civilizing power multilateralism multipolarism international fragmentation empire hegemonic stability and global legitimacy Analysis of the best literature on international relations and European integration is completed by MARIO s practical experience as an advisor to the EU institutions and a lecturer in Asia and Americas America and Europe after 9/11 and Iraq Sarwar A. Kashmeri, 2006-11-30 American foreign policy toward Europe is merrily rolling along the path of least resistance in the belief that there is nothing really amiss with the European American relationship that multilateralism will not fix Not true argues Kashmeri The alliance is dead cannot be fixed and must be renegotiated It has not grown to accommodate Europe s emergence as a major power A kind of United States of Europe with foreign priorities different from those of the United States has arrived at America s doorstep But America is still forging foreign policy for Europe using Cold War realities both Democrats and Republicans expect the European Union to fall into step and report for service as needed under American leadership Europe however has other plans and as it becomes more powerful on the world stage competing visions of European leadership have emerged The Iraq War has brought them into stark relief For example as Kashmeri points out the

Atlantic divide over Iraq was more about French British competition for leadership of Europe than it was about a division between American goals and European goals He portrays British foreign policy as out of touch with reality as a policy that has done a disservice to the United States as a result of the Blair government's exaggerated and self-serving view of the British American special relationship Kashmeri concludes with prescriptions for forging a new alliance based on a special relationship with the European Union This agenda is inspired by the thoughts of the leaders who spoke to the author specifically for this book among them former president George H W Bush former British prime minister John Major James A Baker III Wesley K Clark Brent Scowcroft Paul Volcker U S Senator Chuck Hagel and Caspar W Weinberger

No Conquest, No Defeat Ariane M. Tabatabai, 2020-12-15 In early 2019 the Islamic Republic of Iran marked its fortieth anniversary despite decades of isolation political pressure sanctions and war Observers of its security policies continue to try and make sense of this unlikely endurance Some view the regime as a purely rational actor whose national security decisions and military affairs are shaped by the same considerations as in other states Others believe that it is ideology driving Tehran's strategy Either way virtually everyone agrees that the mullahs' policies are fundamentally different from those pursued by their monarchical predecessors No Conquest No Defeat offers a historically grounded overview of Iranian national security Tabatabai argues that the Islamic

Republic is neither completely rational nor purely ideological Rather its national security policy today is largely shaped by its strategic culture a product of the country s historical experiences of war and peace As a result Iranian strategic thinking is perhaps best characterized by its dynamic yet resilient nature one that is continually evolving As the Islamic Republic enters its fifth decade this book sheds new light on Iran s controversial nuclear and missile programs and its involvement in Afghanistan Iraq Lebanon Syria and Yemen

Region, Religion and Politics Amarjit S. Narang, 2022-10-06 An objective and dispassionate study of the oldest religion based regional political party the Shiromani Akali Dal participating in the democratic politics and processes of socio economic development and transformation of the country It delineates and analyses events and developments from the emergence of the Akali Dal as a religious movement its transformation into a religious political party concerned with safeguarding the political social and economic interests of the Sikhs as a minority and to represent them in governing institutions engaged in the struggle for power in secular domain mobilising the community support using the ideology of fusion of religion and politics yet lacking equal support from different sections of the community Rather than dwelling on a mere narrative of events and describing strategies tactics and agitations of the Akalis an attempt has been made to understand why and how social and economic antagonisms arising out of generation and articulation of demands in a pluralistic society undergoing modernization and democratization may be marked by identity politics The study is located in the broader framework of rise and growth of regional parties and identity politics in India as a part and consequence of India s adopted model of state and nation building integration and socio economic development and transformation
