Terrorist Profiling and Law Enforcement Noel McGuirk,2021-02-10 This book analyses the usefulness of terrorist profiling utilised by law enforcement officers as a pre emptive means to assist them in the detection prevention and deterrence of terrorism and or its preparatory activities It explores two main themes arising from the phenomenon of terrorist profiling the lawfulness of terrorist profiling and the utility of profiling These two themes are explored in three separate parts Firstly the book begins by drawing upon human rights concerns arising from the use of terrorist profiling by law enforcement officers Secondly an analytical framework capable of making determinations on the usefulness of terrorist profiling This framework develops a profiling spectrum that ranges from formal and informal manifestations of terrorist profiling that forms the basis for evaluating its usefulness Finally the book presents an examination of various manifestations of terrorist profiling by separating the analysis of the construction of profiles on the one hand from their application on the other so as to be able to identify and examine profiling s usefulness as a technique to assist law enforcement officers make predictions about likely offender characteristics This book ultimately concludes that terrorist profiling should only be conducted by undertaking a systematic assessment of the construction of profiles separate from the application of profiles whilst simultaneously taking into account fundamental human rights concerns with the practice of terrorist profiling The work will be an essential resource for academics law enforcement officers and lawyers in the disciplines of law criminology human rights criminal justice and policing As the book engages with terrorist profiling it will also be of interest to those engaged in the psychology of terrorism White House Conference "To Fulfill These Rights" June 1-2, 1966 White House Planning Council for the White House Conference "To Fulfill These Rights",1966
