Ten Notable Women of Modern Latin America James D. Henderson, Linda R. Henderson, Suzanne M. Litrel, 2023-10-27 In 1930s rural Argentina a determined fifteen year old left an isolated poverty stricken life to find her fortune in the Paris of South America Buenos Aires There with few connections little education but plenty of persistence

Maria Eva Duarte gained a foothold in the city's artistic scene. Eva Perón then navigated the radio revolution to fortune, providing for her mother and siblings along the way. She caught the eye of rising political star Colonel Juan Perón and with him she rode the pro-labor wave all the way to the presidential palace. The story of Eva Duarte Perón highlights not just her own extraordinary life but the opportunities seized by women of all classes and backgrounds in post-independence modernizing Latin America. This work offers an alternate method for understanding modern Latin America and its history. The ten figures treated are ethnically mixed of African, Indigenous, European, and mestiza heritage. They include figures from all social classes, geographic settings, and occupations seen in Latin America and they acted over the entirety of the more than two centuries of the modern period. Through their stories, the reader comes away with a deeper understanding of this rich, diverse region.

Maired Corrigan and Betty Williams Bettina Ling, 1998-11-01 A new multicultural biography series for young readers that focuses on major achievements by women from around the world.

Latin American Thinkers of Peace Roberto Domínguez, Andrea Oelsner, 2023-08-28 This book analyzes seven Latin American thinkers who have contributed to building bridges for reconciliation and peace: Carlos Saavedra Lamas, Adolfo Pérez Esquivel, Alfonso García Robles, Oscar Arias Sánchez, Rigoberta Menchú Tum, Juan Manuel Santos, and Javier Pérez de Cuellar. Working within an eclectic conceptual approach to systematize the circulation of ideas embraced by each one of the thinkers, the various contributions delve into the current literature of leadership and intellectuals in Politics and Global International Relations. Overall, the central premises of the analysis are based on three fundamentals of mainstream constructivism: a change across time and space in the lifetime of each thinker under analysis; in this book, b) socialization through changing norms, rules, and language; and c) processes of interaction in which actors make choices in selecting networks and strategies. Coming from different walks of life, the seven thinkers examined in this book have accessed the global public square and discussed ideas to reduce conflicts at different scales. In their respective historical times, they circulated their views and ideas beyond the confines of Latin America to influence global political thought and produce change in favor of peace.
