India's New Economic Policy Waquar Ahmed, Amitabh Kundu, Richard

Peet,2010-10-04 Conventional interpretations of the New Economic Policy introduced in India in 1991 see this program of economic liberalization as transforming the Indian economy and leading to a substantial increase in the rate of India's economic growth But in a country like India growth is not enough Who benefits from the new growth regime and can it significantly improve the conditions of livelihood for India's 800 million people with incomes below 2 00 a day This edited volume looks at international policy regimes and their national adoption under strategic conditions of economic crisis and coercion and within longer term structural changes in the power calculus of global capitalism The contributors examine long term growth tendencies poverty and employment rates at the national level regional level and local levels in India the main growth centers the areas and people left out the advantages and deficiencies of the existing policy regime and alternative economic policies for India Bringing together the leading figures in the discussion on India's economic policy this volume is the authoritative critical study of India's New Economic Policy

Urban Renewal in India Pablo Holwitt,2020-03-20 This book interrogates contemporary processes of neoliberal urban renewal in the Global South by studying the model of chawl redevelopment in Mumbai India The model of chawl redevelopment is used to address questions surrounding contemporary urban renewal Focusing on attempts to redevelop Mumbai's central middle class neighbourhoods popularly known as Girgaum into a modern downtown of a global metropolis the author sheds light on the impact this development model has on the everyday lives of people inhabiting transformed urban environments He examines from an ethnographic perspective apparently contradictory intentions of planners investors residents activists and politicians A combination of detailed and vivid ethnographic accounts and incisive theoretical arguments the book shows that the highly contested and controversial approach of chawl redevelopment serves as an example of the manifold ideological tendencies in India today and how they combine clash and continuously shape each other in surprising and unpredictable ways Offering new insights in the topics of class dynamics in the era of globalization and neoliberalism urban gating sense studies and urban politics in South Asia this book will be of interest to academics working on South Asian Studies Anthropology Sociology as well as Urban and Global Studies

Genres of Modernity Dirk Wiemann,2008-01-01 Genres of Modernity maps the conjunctures of critical theory and literary production in contemporary India The volume situates a sample of representative novels in the discursive environment of the ongoing critical debate on modernity in India and offers for the first time a rigorous attempt to hold together the stimulating impulses of postcolonial theory subaltern studies and the boom of Indian fiction in English In opposition to the entrenched narrative of modernity as a single universally valid formation originating in the West the theoretical and literary texts under discussion engage in a shared project of refiguring the present as a site of heterogeneous genres of modernity The book traces these figurative efforts with particular attention to the treatment of two privileged metonymies of modernity the issues of time and home in Indian fiction Combining close readings of literary texts from Salman Rushdie to Kiran Nagarkar with a wide range of philosophical sociological and historiographic reflections Genres of

Wachter, 2016-03-08 Large numbers of people in urbanizing regions in the developing world live and work in unplanned settlements that grow through incremental processes of squatting and self building Slums How Informal Real Estate Markets Work shows that unauthorized settlements in rapidly growing cities are not divorced from market forces rather they must be understood as complex environments where state policies and market actors still do play a role In this volume contributors examine how the form and function of informal real estate markets are shaped by legal systems governing property rights by national and local policy and by historical and geographic particularities of specific neighborhoods Their essays provide detailed portraits of individuals and community organizations revealing in granular detail the working of informal real estate markets and they review programs that have been implemented in unconventional settlements to provide lessons about the effectiveness and implementation challenges of different approaches Chapters explore the relationships between informality state policies and market forces from a range of disciplinary perspectives and on different scales from an analysis of the relationship between regulations and housing in 600 developing world cities to an ethnographic account of the buying and selling of houses in Rio de Janeiro s favelas While many of the book s contributors focus on the emerging economies of India and Brazil the conclusions drawn illustrate dynamics relevant to developing countries throughout the Global South The diversity of perspectives combines to create a rich understanding of an important complex and understudied topic Contributors Arthur Acolin Sai Balakrishnan Eugenie L Birch Jos Brakarz Shahana Chattaraj Sebastian Galiani David Gouverneur Yvonne Mautner Paavo Monkkonen Vinit Mukhija Janice E Perlman Lucas Ronconi Bish Sanyal Ernesto Schargrodsky Patricia Cezario Silva Susan M Wachter Environmental Issues in India Mahesh Rangarajan, 2009 Contributed articles presented at a workshop convened at Department of History Delhi University in September 2005

The Emerging Asian City Vinayak Bharne, 2013 Asian cities create concomitant imagery polarizations of poverty and wealth blurry lines between formality and informality and stark juxtapositions of ancient historic places with shimmering new skylines With Asia s re emergence on the global stage there is an acute focus on its multifarious urban issues and identities What are Asian cities going to become Will they surpass the economic and environmental debacles of the West This collection of twenty four essays surveys the most dominant issues shaping the Asian urban landscape today It offers scholarly reflections and positions on the forces shaping Asian cities and the forces that they in turn are shaping Dissent and Cultural Resistance in Asia's Cities Melissa Butcher, Selvaraj Velayutham, 2009-03-23 This book documents urban experiences of dissent and emergent resistance against disjunctive global and local capital technology and labour flows that converge and intersect in some of Asia s fastest growing cities Rather than constructing occupants of the city as simply passive victims of globalisation or urbanisation it presents ways in which people are using everyday strategies embedded in cultural practice to challenge dominant socio economic and political forces impacting on urban space Taking the city as a site of contestation and a stage where social conflicts are played out the book highlights the connections between urban power and dissent the nature and impact of resistance how the spatiality and built environment of the city generates conflict and conversely how protagonists use the cityscape to stage their everyday and public dissent The contributors explore the conditions strategies and outcomes of such dissent and forms of cultural resistance and explore the following themes the impact of urban development gentrification and ghetto isation urban counter narratives and the re imagining of city spaces the role of grassroots activism and social movements cultural resistance in the creation of neighbourhoods and communities the impact of gender class and the politics of identity on forms of dissent the formation of transgressive spaces

Globalization in the Asian Region Gloria Davies, Chris Nyland, 2004-04-28 For anyone seeking a diverse range of perspectives on globalisation in the Asia Pacific region this collection of highly readable essays is a good place to start Focusing on individual countries the chapters examine the specific modalities of global integration and the responses of different sections of society in each country The authors address questions of major importance for democratic societies such as the connection between globalisation and the rise of religious extremism whether globalisation is in reality a new form of imperial preference who the winners and losers are These are complemented by three short case studies dealing with Indonesia's unrealised potential foreign investment in China and patterns in the movement of people between Hong Kong and the mainland The essays provide a rich source of thought provoking analysis of the complex cultural and political responses arising from both opportunities provided by globalisation and its more negative impacts Melanie Beresford Macquarie University Australia

Globalization in the Asian Region draws confident ragged lines across disciplines themes and the conventional boundaries of scholarship The range of material in the anthology is astounding The diversity and admixture of political positions and approaches is confronting Contemporary Asia is thus mapped without overgeneralizing a homogenous whole Paul James RMIT University Australia This collection of thoughtful essays provides a reliable picture of the dynamic and often ironic operation of globalization in Asia today and challenges individuals to believe that as communities we have a choice in how we respond and contribute to globalization The editors highlight the multifaceted nature of globalization and bring to the fore its supraterritoriality A dozen detailed studies make good on these claims from analyses of American militancy since 9 11 terrorism and poverty to case studies on Malaysia Indonesia India Australia New Zealand Japan and China These essays make clear the interactive nature of globalization as various economic cultural and political forces pour into Asian societies while the impact of their responses from exports to currency fluctuations to migration flows to transnational religious movements in turn reshape the selfsame globalization process Timothy Cheek University of British Columbia Canada

Bringing together contributors from both the university sector and business centered research institutions this comprehensive volume offers diverse perspectives on the impacts and consequences of globalization in different parts of the Asian region Each chapter offers a substantial account of globalization within a particular nation state or area in the region Different understandings underpin the chapters Some contributors perceive globalization as progress in the form of economically driven processes that have made nations mutually dependent in unprecedented and complex ways Others emphasize the uneven outcomes of globalization as well as the stakes for economic growth and social order in the global climate of deepening political and religious divisions since September 2001 General and specialist readers alike will gain an appreciation of the myriad emphases placed on globalization within different nations and from various vantage points The book showcases diverse styles of discourse and serves to greatly broaden the scope of what can be discussed under the rubric of globalization within a single volume
