Rise Of The Barristers A Social History Of The English Bar 1590 164:

The Circulation of Poetry in Manuscript in Early Modern England Arthur F. Marotti, 2021-05-26 This study examines the transmission and compilation of poetic texts through manuscripts from the late Elizabethan era through the mid seventeenth century paying attention to the distinctive material social and literary features of these documents The study has two main focuses the first the particular social environments in which texts were compiled and second the presence within this system of a large body of usually anonymous rare or unique poems Manuscripts from aristocratic academic and urban professional environments are examined in separate chapters that highlight particular collections Two chapters consider the social networking within the university and London that facilitated the transmission within these environments and between them Although the topic is addressed throughout the study the place of rare or unique poems in manuscript collections is at the center of the final three chapters The book as a whole argues that scholars need to pay more attention to the social life of texts in the period and to little known or unknown rare or unique poems that represent a field of writing broader than that defined in a literary history based mainly on the products of print culture

The Strange Death of Edmund Godfrey Alan Marshall, 1999-11-18 On the evening of 17 October 1678 the body of Sir Edmund Berry Godfrey a Westminster Justice of the Peace was discovered in a ditch near Primrose Hill He had been pierced with his own sword and apparently strangled His death led to a widespread popular hysteria about a Popish Plot Although a magistrate famous for his fierce rectitude Godfrey was closely involved with the alternative healer and stroker Valentine Greatrakes and also played a part in many plots and intrigues centred on the uninhibited court of Charles II and Restoration London His death brought to a head a series of rumours about Catholic plots to kill Charles II and install his brother James Duke of York on the throne Identified as the victim of a Jesuit hit man Godfrey became overnight a Protestant martyr and cult figure

The Conquest of Death Matthew Lockwood, 2017-06-27 A fresh and fascinating history of crime and violence in England through the office of the coroner In his fascinating debut Matthew Lockwood explores the history of crime homicide and suicide in England over four centuries through the office of the coroner While the office was established to investigate violent or suspicious deaths Lockwood asserts that the demands of competing parties gradually shaped its systems and transformed England into a modern state earlier than is commonly acknowledged Weaving together strands of social legal economic and political history this book will interest scholars across a range of fields

Writing Early Modern London A. Gordon, 2013-05-07 Writing Early Modern London explores how urban community in London was experienced imagined and translated into textual form Ranging from previously unstudied manuscripts to major works by Middleton Stow and Whitney it examines how memory became a key cultural battleground as rites of community were appropriated in creative ways

Elizabethan Narrative Poems: The State of Play Lynn Enterline, 2019-07-11 Tracing the development of narrative verse in London's literary circles during the 1590s this volume puts Shakespeare's Venus and Adonis and The Rape of

Lucrece into conversation with poems by a wide variety of contemporary writers including Thomas Lodge Francis Beaumont Christopher Marlowe Thomas Heywood Thomas Campion and Edmund Spenser Chapters investigate the complexities of this literary conversation and contribute for the current vigorous reassessment of humanism s intended consequences by drawing attention to the highly diverse forms of early modern classicism as well as the complex connection between Latin pedagogy and vernacular poetic invention Key themes and topics include Epyllia masculinity and sexuality Classicism and commerce Genre and mimesis Rhetoric and aesthetics
