Rise And Be Healed Craig L. Bradley,2005 The time period is set for the late 1950s with a clash of a hundred years ago in time Matthew and his grandfather go on a journey into the past to help a relative During that journey they discover the importance of what family really means Matthew and his grandfather find out that age does not matter for time passes in the blink of an eye Life is nothing more than love and standing up for what is right Together they find the strength and love to join in an expedition for truth understanding and what turns out to be a family bond of many years A little imagination from youth intrigue of what is around the next corner and family being the most important thing in life are within the pages of this book This story goes back to a time when family members depended on one another no matter the problem Respect and admiration of the young and old is the intended purpose of this short writing While grappling with the problems of today much of our innocence has been lost The hope that children today will ever have the opportunity to touch the quietness of youth as older generations had is all but gone The simple pleasure of making a snow fort or riding down that first hill on a sled with the snow blowing in our faces is something we all have forgotten Obesity: A Comprehensive Review E.
