Rising Sun Blinking Jose Maria Lacambra, 2010-03-11 In the middle of 1942 the Japanese landed in Iloilo deep in the heart of the Philippine Archipelago Earlier like a skittish octopus the Japanese Empire had spread its tentacles across the islands after the last American strongholds of Bataan and Corregidor had fallen Jose Lacambra was only eleven years old when the Japanese occupied Iloilo His firsthand account of the adventures and rites of passage were drawn from a diary he kept during those war years With wry wit and a sharp memory for detail he re creates the horror adventure and excitement of those unforgettable years describing them all with a novelists skill and style The Other Empire Ronald D. Klein, 2008 In this survey of literary images of Japan Ronald Klein has identified more than 160 works with Japanese characters providing both comprehensive overviews as well as individual monographs on specific writers This book creates a subgenre of thematic work positing an alternative postcolonial relationship Inside the Bataan Death March Kevin C. Murphy, 2014-09-24 For two weeks during the spring of 1942 the Bataan Death March one of the most widely condemned atrocities of World War II unfolded The prevailing interpretation of this event is simple American prisoners of war suffered cruel treatment at the hands of their Japanese captors while Filipinos sympathetic to the Americans looked on Most survivors of the march wrote about their experiences decades after the war and a number of factors distorted their accounts The crucial aspect of memory is central to this study how it is constructed by whom and for what purpose This book questions the prevailing interpretation reconsiders the actions of all three groups in their cultural contexts and suggests a far greater complexity Among the conclusions is that violence on the march was largely the result of a clash of cultures undisciplined individualistic Americans encountered Japanese who valued order and form while Filipinos were active even ambitious participants in the drama A Charmed Life José María Lacambra Loizu, 2012-04 Born of Basque parents in the Philippines during the early Thirties his schooling was disrupted during WWII allowing him to wreak havoc with the loathed Japanese Occupation Army Jac Chambliss one of his American liberators was to later be come his father in law After the war he moved to his parents home in Pamplona Spain where he ran the bulls during San Fermin At 17 he went to work for a Shipping Company in Bilbao served in Africa in an Army outfit attached to the Spanish Foreign Legion and subsequently went to Paris to study Humanities at the Sorbonne He came to the States and attended Gettysburg College majoring in Physics During his Sophomore year he was named Editor in Chief of the College s Literary Magazine He married Ann Chambliss during his Senior year and graduated with Honors He subsequently earned a Ph D in Nuclear Physics from Duke University where three of his children were born two to become future physicians and one an accomplished painter After acquiring his US citizenship he settled in Orlando Fl to work for an Aerospace Firm designing missiles and defense systems such as SDI the Strategic Defense Initiatives program He retired 30 years later and now travels extensively indulging in writing golf and babysitting for eight lovely grandchildren Filipinas Magazine , 2002 □□□□□□□□ , 1997-07 Shadows from the
