in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries The Making of European Music in the Long Eighteenth Century D. R. M. Irving, 2024-09-03 In this book author D R M Irving traces the emergence of such large scale categories as European music and Western music showing how they originate from self fashioning in contexts of intercultural comparison outside the European continent rather than the resolution of national aesthetic differences within it Taken as a whole this study demonstrates how reductive labels for the musics of a continent or a hemisphere often imply homogeneity and essentialism and how a renewed critique of primary sources can help dismantle historiographical constructs that arose within narratives of musical pasts involving Europe Resources in Education ,1972 Myth and Music Eero Tarasti, 2012-01-02 No detailed description available for Myth and Music Ruth Crawford Seeger : A Composer's Search for American Music Judith Tick Professor of Music Northeastern University, 1997-08-18 Ruth Crawford Seeger 1901 1953 is frequently considered the most significant American female composer in this century Joining Aaron Copland and Henry Cowell as a key member of the 1920s musical avant garde she went on to study with modernist theorist and future husband Charles Seeger writing her masterpiece String Quartet 1931 not long after But her legacy extends far beyond the cutting edge of modern music Collaborating with poet Carl Sandburg on folk song arrangements in the twenties and with the famous folk song collectors John and Alan Lomax in the 1930s she emerged as a central figure in the American folk music revival issuing several important books of transcriptions and arrangements and pioneering the use of American folk songs in children s music education Radicalized by the Depression she spent much of the ensuing two decades working aggressively for social change with her husband and stepson the folksinger Pete Seeger This engrossing new biography emphasizes the choices Crawford Seeger made in her roles as composer activist teacher wife and mother The first woman to win a Guggenheim Foundation Fellowship in music composition Crawford Seeger nearly gave up writing music as the demands of family politics and the folk song movement intervened It was only at the very end of her life with cancer sapping her strength that she returned to composing Written with unique insight and compassion this book offers the definitive treatment of a fascinating twentieth century figure Community Music Therapy Gary Ansdell, Mercedes Pavlicevic, 2004-05-15 Music therapists from around the world working in conventional and unconventional settings have offered their contributions to this exciting new book presenting discussion and practical examples of the ways music therapy can reflect and encourage social change The writers offer fresh perceptions on their identity and role as music therapists Music in German Philosophy Stefan Lorenz Sorgner, Oliver F rbeth, 2011-01-15 Though many well known German philosophers have devoted considerable attention to music and its aesthetics surprisingly few of their writings on the subject have been translated into English Stefan Lorenz Sorgner a philosopher and Oliver F rbeth a musicologist here fill this important gap for musical scholars and students alike with this compelling guide to the musical discourse of ten of the most important German philosophers from Kant to Adorno Music in German Philosophy includes contributions from a renowned group of ten scholars including some of today s most
