Longing For Darkness Tara And The Black Madonna A 10 Year Journey:

Longing for Darkness China Galland,1990 The author describes her spiritual odyssey while investigating in the U S Europe India and elsewhere the black images that have been tradition in Eastern religions and in European Catholicism

Dark Mother Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum,2001 Bringing a feminist perspective to contemporary findings of geneticists and archeologists Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum cultural historian points out that the oldest veneration we know is of a dark mother of central and south Africa whose signs ochre red and the pubic V were taken by african migrants after 50 000 BCE to caves and cliffs of all continents The oldest sanctuary in the world was created in 40 000 BCE by african migrants in Har Karkom later called Mt Sinai foundation place of judaism christianity and islam Lucia documents the continuing memory of the dark mother and her values in prehistoric images of the dark mother in historic black madonnas and in other dark women divinities whose sanctuaries are on african paths She tracks the memory in rituals and stories of her sicilian grandmothers in persecution of dark others in patriarchal Europe and the United States in the rise of nonviolent dark others since the 1960s in the banners of the 1995 world conference of women at Beijing and in art She finds the dark mother s values justice with compassion equality and transformation in everyday and celebratory rituals of the world s subaltern cultures and suggests that the image and values are in the submerged memories of everyone Gender and Power in Contemporary Spirituality

Anna Fedele,Kim E. Knibbe,2013 Contemporary distinctions between religion and spirituality can often be traced to rebellion against hierarchical institutions with biases towards women and minorities that constrain individual freedom This opposition is carefully addressed in this volume with greater attention paid to gender and power in the context of contemporary spirituality and how these relate to the distinction between religion and spirituality Looking for Mary Magdalene Anna Fedele,2013 Winner of the Award for Excellence in Religion Analytical Descriptive Studies from the American Academy of Religion Anna Fedele offers a sensitive ethnography of alternative pilgrimages to French Catholic shrines dedicated to Saint Mary Magdalene Drawing on more than three years of fieldwork she describes how pilgrims from Italy Spain Britain and the United States interpret Catholic figures symbols and sites according to theories derived from the international Neopagan movement Fedele pays particular attention to the pilgrims life stories rituals and reading She examines how they devise their rituals how anthropological literature has influenced them and why this kind of spirituality is increasingly prevalent in the West These pilgrims cultivate spirituality in interaction with each other and with textual sources Jungian psychology Goddess mythology and indigenous traditions merge into a corpus of practices centered upon the worship of the Goddess and Mother Earth and the sacralization of the reproductive cycle Their rituals present a critique of Roman Catholicism and the medical establishment and question contemporary discourse on gender Faith and Feminism Helen LaKelly Hunt,2007-11-01

Why do so many women of faith have such a strong aversion to feminism And why do so many feminists have an ardent mistrust of religion These questions are at the heart of Helen LaKelly Hunt s illuminating look at the alliance between spiritual conviction and social action Intelligent and heartfelt Faith and Feminism offers a perceptive look at the lives of five spirited and spiritual women of history women who combined their undying faith with feminist beliefs and who made the world a better place by doing so St Teresa of vila a woman whose bravery in confronting her shadows gave her the strength to connect with the world and live a life of divine action Lucretia Mott a Quaker minister who rose from her quiet upbringing to become a passionate speaker and activist working tirelessly on behalf of justice and peace Sojourner Truth a Christian slave who spoke out with unwavering courage to claim her God given rightful place as an African American and a woman Emily Dickinson an extraordinary poet who touched the world with her ability to capture and transform the experience of suffering Dorothy Day a radical journalist who lived a life of voluntary poverty as a way of expressing her passion for the Christian faith and care for those in need A remarkable book that focuses on the idea that spirituality and feminism are really different expressions of the same impulse to make life more whole Faith and Feminism offers a powerful catalyst for reflecting on our sense of self and for living and loving according to our deepest values La Conquistadora Amy G. Remensnyder, 2014-01-24 Amy Remensnyder explores how Spanish Christians shaped the Virgin Mary as a symbol of the twinned colonizing enterprises of conquest and conversion in medieval Spain and early Spanish America Beginning in the eleventh century and ending in the seventeenth century the book brings together the medieval and early modern periods the Old and New Worlds It also brings together minorities whom historians most often treat separately Jews Muslims those Jews and Muslims who converted to Christianity in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries conversos and Moriscos and the indigenous peoples of the New World Feminist Theologies Rosemary Radford Ruether, 2007-01-01 A brief and informed survey of women's studies in religion Highlights the emergence of contextual feminist theologies Contributors are the leading theologians in their field The Resurrection of Mary Magdalene Jane Schaberg, 2004-08-31 The controversy surrounding Dan Brown's novel The Da Vinci Code has intensified interest in Mary Magdalene and Jane Schaberg provides an authoritative source for a deeper understanding and re assessment of this popular figure Within a progressive feminist framework The Resurrection of Mary Magdalene approaches Christian Testament sources through analysis of legend archaeology and gnostic apocryphal traditions This is the story of the suppression and distortion of a powerful woman leader Schaberg presents Mary Magdalene as successor to Jesus in a challenging alternative to the Petrine primacy Versions of Deconversion John D. Barbour, 1994 In Versions of Deconversion John Barbour examines the work of a broad selection of authors in order to discover the reasons for their loss of faith and to analyze the ways in which they have interpreted that loss For some the experience of deconversion led to another religious faith some turned to atheism or agnosticism and others used deconversion as a metaphor or analogy to interpret an experience of personal transformation The loss of faith is closely related to such vital ethical and theological concerns as the role of conscience the assessment of religious communities the dialectical relationship between faith and doubt and the struggle to reconcile faith with intellectual and moral integrity This book shows the persistence and the vitality of the theme of deconversion in autobiography and it demonstrates how the literary form and structure of autobiography are shaped by ethical critique and religious reflection Versions of Deconversion should appeal at once to scholars in the fields of religious studies and theology who are concerned with narrative texts to literary critics and specialists on autobiography and to a wider audience interested in the ethical and religious significance of autobiography A Very Different Story Val Gough,Jill Rudd,1998 The focus of this essay collection is Charlotte Perkins

Gilman s utopianism Feminist Mysticism and Images of God Jennie S Knight,2011-02-28 Feminist theologians often claim that women s experience is their starting point However most feminist theology is remarkably void of analysis of particular women s experiences of imaging God In this book Knight provides practical recommendations to help people transform images in the context of religious practices What difference does it make whether we picture God as an elderly white grandfather a nurturing African American mother or a stranger on the bus Jennie Knight says our image of God affects how we see ourselves how we worship how we treat one another how or whether we work for justice and a host of other life practices But after years of knowing intellectually that God transcends a specific human type Knight still struggles to make an emotional connection with God in different forms She suspects that that struggle is why many seminarians who wrote papers about thea theology abandon nontraditional God images once they hit parish ministry perpetuating the practice of seeing God as a European male on a throne and all the accompanying problems that such imagery creates Knight believes that personal and critical reflection in the context of a supportive learning community combined with experiences of diverse images for the divine in worship can lead to profound changes in self image relationship with the divine and agency in the world This book aims to demonstrate why and how this transformation is both possible and necessary The popularity of The Shack The Secret Life of Bees Joan of Arcadia and other works with nontraditional God figures reveals a culture ready to embrace God in many forms Knight examines how the church can do the same Images of Enlightenment Jonathan Landaw,Andy Weber,2006-09-18 This book is unique in its explanation of the relationship between the multifaceted symbolism of Tibetan Buddhist deity images and meditative practice Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1991

Head and Heart Victor Mansfield, 2002-07-01 This unusual book tells the story of an astrophysicist's search for meaning from psychological philosophical and spiritual points of view Mansfield weaves personal memoir with clear scientific discussion and quotes such famous thinkers and writers as Steven Weinberg Jane Goodall Joseph Campbell C G Jung Nelson Mandela Robert Frost and the Sufi poet Rumi In plain language Mansfield explores radio astronomy the nature of time relativity cosmological expansion and quantum mechanics with personal examples of meditation dreams and synchronicity to show that spiritual experience offers a fundamentally different window into reality than that given by science And he tackles these questions What is invisible matter Am I merely a complex tangle of atoms and molecules controlled by the laws of physics What is the nature of soul How is modern science a form of religion You will be charmed by Mansfield's anecdotes to dramatize his own struggles with such questions In a culture where the relationship between science and spirituality continues to be strained he offers hope for a higher synthesis that embraces dissenting worldviews and encourages compassionate action in the world Missing Mary Charlene Spretnak, 2004-01-15 What ever happened to the Virgin Mary in the modern Catholic Church For the past forty years her presence has been radically minimized In a groundbreaking work Charlene Spretnak cuts across the battle lines delineated by the left and the right within the Church to champion the recovery of the full spiritual presence of Mary Spretnak a liberal Catholic sheds new light on the dethroning of the Queen of Heaven at Vatican II and she traces the rise of a grassroots resurgence of Marian spirituality in recent years She offers fresh reflections on the meaning of Mary situating the Marian renewal in the larger context of contemporary efforts to correct the barrenness and sterility of modernity Spretnak also notes that much of the cosmological symbolism traditionally associated with Mary as the Queen of Heaven and the maternal matrix is simpatico with recent discoveries in scientific cosmology about the profoundly relational nature of the Creation Moreover Spretnak asserts that a deep loss ensues for women in particular when Mary's female embodiment of grace and mystical presence is denied and replaced with a strictly text bound version of her as a Nazarene housewife Complete with a striking insert of contemporary Marian art Missing Mary is a deeply insightful reflection on Mary in the modern age The Publishers Weekly ,1990
