Here, Home, Hope Kaira Rouda,2011-04-30 Kelly Mills Johnson becomes restless in her thirty ninth year An appetite for more forces her to take stock of her middling middle American existence and her neighbors seemingly perfect lives Her marriage to a successful attorney has settled into a comfortable routine and being the mother of two adorable sons has been rewarding But Kelly s own passions lie wasted She eyes with envy the lives of her two best friends Kathryn and Charlotte both beautiful successful businesswomen who seem to have it all Kelly takes charge of her life devising a midlife makeover plan From page one Kelly s witty reflections self deprecating humor and clever tactics in executing that plan she places Post it notes all over her house and car will have readers laughing out loud The next instant however they might rant right along with Kelly as her commitment to a sullen anorexic teenager left on her doorstep tries her patience or as she deflects the boozy advances of a divorced neighbor Readers will need to keep the tissue box handy too as Kelly repairs the damage she inflicted on a high school friend realizes how deeply her husband Patrick understands and loves her and ultimately grows into a woman empowered by her own blend of home and career Here Home Hope will surely appeal to readers of chick lit and other women s fiction titles who are ready to transition into something new in their own life Points of Viewing

Children's Thinking Ricki Goldman-Segall,Ricki Goldman,2014-04-08 This book is about learning and ethnography in the context of technologies Simultaneously it portrays young people s thinking attitudes in computer based learning environments and it describes how the practice of ethnography is changing in a digital world The author likens this form of interaction to the double helix where learning and ethnography are intertwined to tell an emergent story about partnerships with technology Two school computer cultures were videotaped for this study Separated not only by geography one school is on the east coast of New England and the other on the west coast of British Columbia on Vancouver Island they are also separated in other ways ethnic make up and inner city vs rural settings to name only two Yet these two schools are joined by a strong thread a change in their respective cultures with the advent of intensive computer use on the part of the students Both school communities have watched their young people gain literacy and competence and their tools have changed from pen to computer video camera multimedia and the Internet Perhaps most striking is that the way they think of themselves as learners has also changed they see themselves as an active participant in the pilot s seat or director s chair as they chart new connections between diverse and often unpredictable worlds of knowledge Working Mother ,2000-04 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives
