Stacy Mann,2021-06-01 Lacie a normal girl with a traumatic childhood runs into the new guy at the ranch who isn t what he pretends to be Conflicts with love a sad past and a dangerous secret are only some of the things that await Lacie in her upcoming adventures If you enjoy this story make sure to vote with moon tickets BOOK 1 DISCLAIMER This book contains strong language scenes of a mature explicit s xual nature plots and scenes that some readers may find disturbing or triggering The Oxford Book of the American South Edward L. Ayers,Bradley C. Mittendorf,1997 The Oxford Book of the American South resonates with the words of black people and white women and men the powerless as well as the powerful The collection presents the most telling fiction and nonfiction produced in the South from the late eighteenth century to the present Renowned authors such as James Agee Richard Wright Maya Angelou Lee Smith Eudora Welty William Faulkner and Flannery O Connor appear in these pages but so do people whose writing did not immediately reach a large audience For example Harriet A Jacobs book Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl which is now recognized as one of the most illuminating narratives of a former slave was neglected for generations And Sarah Morgan s powerful Civil War Diary has only recently come to widespread attention The Oxford Book of the American South presents compelling autobiographies diaries memoirs and journalism as well as stories and selections from novels and runs the spectrum from the conservative to the radical the traditional to the innovative Editors Edward L Ayers and Bradley C Mittendorf have arranged these diverse readings so that they fit together into a rich mosaic of Southern life and history The sections of the book The Old South The Civil War and Its Consequences Hard Times and The Turning unfold a vivid record of life below the Mason Dixon line We see the antebellum period both from the perspective of those who experienced it first hand such as Thomas Jefferson and former slaves Olaudah Equiano and Frederick Douglass and then from the perspective of authors looking back on that era including William Styron and Sherley Anne Williams Likewise we see the Civil War through the eyes of witnesses such as Sam Watkins through the eyes of later writers trying to make sense of the conflict such as Robert Penn Warren and through the eyes of those using the war's intense passions to fuel their fiction such as Margaret Mitchell and Barry Hannah. The classic authors of the Southern Renaissance in the 1920s and 1930s appear here in the context of the hard times in which they wrote. The years since World War II are chronicled in the powerful words of Martin Luther King Jr.'s Letter from Birmingham Jail, George Garrett's Goodbye Goodbye, Be Always Kind and True, and Peter Taylor's The Decline and Fall of the Episcopal Church in the Year of Our Lord 1952. The editors have selected these readings; their Preface tells us to convey the passions that have surfaced time and again in more than two hundred years of Southern writing. Indeed, the struggles, defeats, and triumphs chronicled in The Oxford Book of the American South speak not just to the South but to all of the American experience. They document and evoke some of the most dramatic episodes in the nation's life.

Eating in the Raw Carol Alt, Nicholas Gonzalez, 2010-10-27

Ten years ago Carol Alt was feeling bad. Really bad. She had chronic headaches, sinusitis, and stomach ailments; she was tired and listless. And then Carol started eating raw and changed her life. Eating in the Raw begins with her story and then presents practical information on everything you need to know about the exciting movement that's been embraced by Demi Moore, Pierce Brosnan, Sting, Edward Norton, and legions of other health-minded people. You'll learn what exactly raw food is and isn't and how to integrate it into your diet. How to avoid the all-or-nothing pitfall: you can eat some cooked foods, you can eat some foods partially cooked, and you don't have to deprive yourself. Why raw food is not just for vegetarians or vegans. Carol eats meat, and so can you. The differences between cooked and raw vitamins, minerals, and enzymes, and what they mean for you. An ease in approach to eating raw and how to eat raw in restaurants. In addition, Carol answers frequently asked questions and offers forty simple recipes for every meal, from light dishes such as Gazpacho and Lentil Salad to entrees including Tuna Tartare and Spaghetti al Pesto, and even desserts like Pumpkin Pie and Apple Tart with Crème Anglaise, rounding out a thorough, accessible, and eminently compelling case why in the raw is the best way to eat.

Youth Homelessness in Late Modernity David

Farrugia, 2015-07-30. This book explores the identities, embodied experiences, and personal relationships of young people experiencing homelessness and analyses these in relation to the material and symbolic position that youth homelessness occupies in modern societies. Drawing on empirical research conducted in both urban and rural areas, the book situates young people's experiences of homelessness within a theoretical framework that connects embodied identities and relationships with processes of social change. The book theorises a symbolic economy of youth homelessness that encompasses the subjective, aesthetic, and relational dimensions of homelessness. This theory shows the personal, interpersonal, and affective suffering that is caused by the relations of power and privilege that produce contemporary youth homelessness The book is unique in the way in which it places youth homelessness within the wider contexts of inequality and social change Whilst contemporary discussions of youth homelessness understand the topic as a discrete social problem this book demonstrates the position that youth homelessness occupies within wider social processes inequalities and theoretical debates addressing theories of social change in late modernity and their relationship to the cultural construction of youth These theoretical debates are made concrete by means of an exploration of an important form of contemporary inequality youth homelessness
