First & Last Michael Frayn, 2017-03-23 One of theatre's subtlest most sophisticated minds The Times One spring morning a quiet shy man in his sixties sets out from Land's End to walk the length of his native land He has never walked more than a dozen miles in his life before his health is uncertain his boots are new and he is too diffident to talk to anyone he meets along the way His slow solitary progress up the spine of Britain is watched by an unseen audience his family and friends at home How far will he get before he is forced to give up Is he being heroic or merely selfish As the days of his absence go by the old alliances and quarrels inside the family shift and alter What emerges is a story about the arbitrariness of human endeavour and about the tenacious complexity of human relationships about one man's glimpse of the country he lives in about courage and about love
