Coquet-Mokoko, 2020-04-15 The rising visibility of interracial couples calls for increased attention to the overlapping of culture and race in safe spaces centered on small group dynamics or in public spaces where peoples of African descent are under the public gaze This comparative study seeks to de-center the U.S.-centered viewpoint common to much of the literature on black-white relations Based on nine years of fieldwork in the American South and in France Coquet shows many unexpected parallels between the two societies Gendered perceptions of cultural authenticity and sexual ethics are a guiding thread being inseparable from the historical and political contingencies re-defining acceptable forms of dating marrying and parenting among cis-heterosexual couples in both societies Her account emphasizes resilience and agency as couples seek to protect themselves and their children while their extended or symbolic kinship networks help white partners acknowledge the existence of racial privilege Reports of Cases Determined in the Supreme Court of the Territory of Utah Utah.

THE LEGEND OF MERCURY MOON Denis Gray, 2025-08-14 A strict Christian woman shy unworldly twenty-eight-year-old Lenora La Roche is a librarian in Joseph City fictional Louisiana She's lived with a horrible unsolved family mystery in Joseph City for most of her life Lenora's grandmother Adelaide La Roche who raised her taught her the Bible and how to love God It's how Lenora approached life with a sense of purity and kindness toward the world A wicked house fire kills Adelaide But hidden in a closet was a metal charred box It had survived the fire A fireman found it It was turned over to Lenora What's in the box shocks Lenora It's the unsolved family mystery She can solve it now evidence is in the charred box Chicago

Chicago She will run off to Chicago with a daring scheme in her of sin and revenge Murder Mercury Moon a Chicago blues legend awaits her An Eye for an Eye Clarence Darrow,1905 On Kubrick James Naremore,2019-07-25 On Kubrick provides an illuminating critical account of the films of Stanley Kubrick from his earliest feature Fear and Desire 1953 to the posthumously produced A.I. Artificial Intelligence Steven Spielberg 2001 The book offers provocative analysis of each of Kubrick's films together with new information about their production histories and cultural contexts Its ultimate aim is to provide a concise yet thorough discussion that will be useful as both an academic text and a trade publication James Naremore argues that in several respects Kubrick was one of the cinema's last modernists his taste and sensibility were shaped by the artistic culture of New York in the 1950s he became a celebrated auteur who forged a distinctive style he used art cinema conventions in commercial productions he challenged censorship regulations and throughout his career he was preoccupied with one of the central themes of modernist art the conflict between rationality and its ever present shadow the unconscious War and science are key concerns in Kubrick's oeuvre and his work has a hyper masculine quality Yet no director has more relentlessly emphasized the absurdity of combat as in Paths of Glory 1957 and Full Metal Jacket 1987 the failure of scientific reasoning as in 2001 1968 and the fascistic impulses in masculine sexuality as in Dr Strangelove 1964 and Eyes Wide Shut 1999 The book also argues that while Kubrick was a voracious intellectual and a life long autodidact the fascination of his work has less to do with the ideas it espouses than with the emotions it evokes Often described as cool or cold Kubrick is best understood as a skillful practitioner of what might be called the aesthetics of the grotesque he employs extreme forms of caricature and black comedy to create disgusting frightening yet also laughable images of the human body creating a sense of unease that leaves viewers unsure of how to react The Girl's Own Annual ,1891 Waltzing with the Ghost of Tom Joad Robert Lee Maril,2002-09-01 In Oklahoma eighth poorest state in the nation poverty is a pressing social problem Even so Robert Lee Maril's Waltzing with the Ghost of Tom Joad is the first comprehensive analysis of poverty in the state Skillfully combining ethnography with statistical analysis Maril portrays the lives of poverty stricken Oklahomans many of them children minorities and the elderly Exploring myths about the poor and discussing the facts behind these myths Maril discusses the real causes of poverty in the state especially low wage labor He concludes by presenting a public policy agenda that would benefit the poor directly and in so doing improve the lives of all Oklahomans From the Foreword by Robert McCormick Why did my grandparents and many Oklahomans of their generation escape from poverty while many others did not The reasons are not clear Nor do we have easy explanations for those present day Oklahomans fighting the same struggle Robert Lee Maril's compelling account shows the plight of hundreds of thousands who remain poor even though conditions in the state have vastly improved Blaming the victim is not an option for intelligent and caring Oklahomans The question before us today is what will we do as citizens to reduce the level of poverty in our state From my vantage point as someone who has fought for increased opportunities for Oklahomans I have seen a common thread that runs through story

after story of individuals who make the move from poverty to prosperity that thread is access to and support for education Inherent inequalities in economic and family backgrounds often dissipate before doors that education routinely opens One wonders in reading Dr Maril s accounts of Oklahomans in poverty how different their stories might have been had someone cared enough to see to it that their underlying condition of poverty did not interfere with their opportunity to get an education
