Human Rights and Nadine Gordimer's Fiction Mateti Prabhakar, Kanugula Ram Mohan, 2024-07-02 The book explores the complex problem of apartheid racial segregation in South African society and the struggle against the colour bar represented in the fictional world of Nadine Gordimer the Nobel Laureate of the South African Letters It shows how Gordimer a crusader for the human rights of black people has launched a lifetime battle against the apartheid regime's unjust and heartless censorship of creative writing and freedom of speech in South Africa by virtue of fictionalizing her human rights activism thereby teaching humanity It demonstrates how black people are denied their basic human rights from the cradle to the grave by the white chauvinistic apartheid regime This volume is a space for scholars writers and activists to debate issues related to race class and human rights

The Call of Cthulhu and Other Stories Lovecraft H., Howard Lovecraft was an American writer who achieved posthumous fame through his influential works of horror fiction Despite the fact that he was virtually unknown before he died today he is known as the most influential author in his genre The Call of Cthulhu and Other Stories is a collection of wonderful short stories such as Dagon The Nameless City and The Call of Cthulhu These stories full of mystery and fantastic creatures have captured the minds of readers all over the world

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfe and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies
