L'opera completa del Perugino Perugino, Ettore Camesasca, 1969

Italian Confraternities in the Sixteenth Century Christopher F. Black, 2003-08-28 Confraternities were and are religious brotherhoods for lay people to promote their religious life in common. Though designed to prepare for the afterlife, they were fully involved in the social, political, and cultural life of the community and could affect all men and women as members or as the recipients of charity. Confraternities organised a great range of devotional, cultural, and indeed artistic activities in addition to other functions such as the provision of dowries and the escort of condemned men to the scaffold. Other works have studied the local activities of specific confraternities, but this is the first to attempt a broad survey of such organisations across the breadth of early modern Italy. Christopher Black demonstrates clearly the extent, diversity, and influence of confraternal behaviour and shows how such brotherhoods adapted to the religious and social crises of the sixteenth century, thus illuminating current debates about Catholic Reform, the Counter Reformation, poverty, philanthropy, and social control.

The Vatican Collections Art Institute of Chicago, Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco, 1982. Nearly three hundred illustrations and a text reveal the entire range of the Vatican's artistic holdings, replete with priceless masterworks from all periods.

15th and 16th Century Italian Drawings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Jacob Bean, Lawrence Turčić, 1982

Italian Fifteenth- to Seventeenth-century Drawings Anna Forlani Tempesti, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1991. Perhaps more than any other collector of his generation in the United States, Robert Lehman was interested in acquiring early drawings. He made a great effort to add drawings to the collection of paintings, sculpture, ceramics, glass, and other objects that his father, Philip Lehman, had begun assembling. The 116 Italian drawings analyzed and discussed in this volume are among the more than 2,000 works of art from the collection now housed in the Robert Lehman Wing of The Metropolitan Museum of Art. Robert Lehman's collection demonstrates the variety of drawings produced in Italy from the fifteenth to the seventeenth century, a period when the purposes and techniques of drawings, as well as the aims and abilities of the artist who made them, became increasingly sophisticated. The volume includes an elaborate design for an equestrian monument by Antonio Pollaiuolo, a magnificent study of a bear by Leonardo da Vinci, a cartoon by Luca Signorelli, a study for a vault fresco by Taddeo Zuccaro, and many other drawings that are among the best Italian examples to have survived from that era. Most types of drawings, in a wide variety of techniques, are represented: figure studies, grand compositions, landscapes, cartoons, modelli, and even sculptors' studies.

Painting in Renaissance Perugia Sheri Francis Shaneyfelt, 2023-05-11. This volume offers the first comprehensive study of painting in Renaissance Perugia from the late fifteenth to the mid sixteenth centuries. Showcasing works by Perugino, Raphael, and Pintoricchio, as well as less familiar artists who worked in Perugia from ca. 1480-1540, Sheri Shaneyfelt traces the influence and impact of Perugino's workshop in central Italy over more than a half a century. She demonstrates why Perugia, which has been overlooked in modern scholarship was such a vital center for the production of early modern Italian art Shaneyfelt's study also shifts the focus away from the analysis of individual artistic creativity by highlighting the importance and significance of collaboration and workshop production in Renaissance Italy Interweaving historical and archival evidence with analyses of numerous paintings and drawings her book richly illustrated with 115 color illustrations offers many new insights into the vibrant artistic culture of early modern Perugia Leonardo Da Vinci David Alan Brown, Leonardo (da Vinci), 1998-01-01 Examines Leonardo da Vinci's beginnings as an artist and his earliest works including the Uffizi Annunciation and the Munich Madonna and Child Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition

Practice and Theory in the Italian Renaissance Workshop Christina Neilson, 2019-07-18 Verrocchio worked in an extraordinarily wide array of media and used unusual practices of making to express ideas "Gendered Perceptions of Florentine Last Supper Frescoes, c. 1350?490 " Diana Hiller, 2017-07-05 Despite the large number of monumental Last Supper frescoes which adorn refectories in Quattrocento Florence until now no monograph has appeared in English on the Florentine Last Supper frescoes nor has any study examined the perceptions of the original viewers This study examines the rarely considered effect of gender on the profoundly contextualized perceptions of the male and female religious who viewed the Florentine Last Supper images in surprisingly different physical and cultural refectory environments In addition to offering detailed visual analyses the author draws on a broad spectrum of published and unpublished primary materials including monastic rules devotional tracts and reading materials the constitutions and ordinazioni for individual houses inventories from male and female communities and the Convent Suppression documents of the Archivio di Stato in Florence By examining the original viewers attitudes to images their educational status acculturated pieties affective responses levels of community degrees of reclusion and even the types of food eaten in the refectories Hiller argues that the perceptions of these viewers of the Last Supper frescoes were intrinsically gendered Artists' Art in the Renaissance Marilyn Aronberg Lavin, 2006-12-31 Marilyn Aronberg Lavin has taught the history of art at Washington University the University of Maryland Yale Princeton and Universita di Roma La Sapienza Specializing in Italian 13th 16th century painting she is internationally known for her books and articles on Piero della Francesca Her other books include The Place of Narrative Mural Painting in

Italian Churches 431 1600 AD and Seventeenth Century Barberini Documents and Inventories of Art both of which were recipients of international prizes for distinguished scholarship She is one of the leaders in the use of computers and digitized imagery for research teaching and publication in the history of art This book offers a series of case studies intended to introduce and define an important class of fifteenth century Italian art not previously recognized It is argued that the paintings and sculptures discussed were created privately by artists for personal satisfaction and internal needs outside the traditional framework of patronage and commercial gain Since there is no direct documentation from this period of a work being privately made the selection presented here is necessarily speculative Instead the essays focus on works by Piero della Francesca Mantegna Michelangelo Bellini and Titian that appear in the artists testaments letters of refusals to sell and inventories showing ownership at the time of death The task at hand is to uncover the motivation and meaning of works of art in which the medieval craftsman began to rise to the status of independent artist and the maker and the viewer confront each other face to face for the first time

Gendered Perceptions of Florentine Last Supper Frescoes, c. 1350-1490 Dr

Diana Hiller, 2014-02-26 The first monograph to appear in English on the Last Supper frescoes in Quattrocento Florence this study examines the effect of gender on the contextualized perceptions of the male and female religious who viewed the Florentine Last Supper images Using archival literary and cultural sources and by examining a wide range of contexts Diana Hiller argues that the religious viewers perceptions of the refectory frescoes were gendered

Giorgio Vasari Patricia Lee

Rubin, Maurice Rubin, 1995-01-01 Vasari's Lives of the Painters Sculptors and Architects are and always have been central texts for the study of the Italian Renaissance They can and should be read in many ways Since their publication in the mid sixteenth century they have been a source of both information and pleasure Their immediacy after more than four hundred years is a measure of Vasari's success He wished the artists of his day himself included to be famous He made the association of artistry and genius of renaissance and the arts so familiar that they now seem inevitable In this book Patricia Rubin argues that both the inevitability and the immediacy should be questioned To read Vasari without historical perspective results in a limited and distorted view of The Lives Rubin shows that Vasari had distinct ideas about the nature of his task as a biographer about the importance of interpretation judgment and example about the historian's art Vasari's principles and practices as a writer are examined here as are their sources in Vasari's experiences as an artist
