Another Christ Andrew D. Mayes, 2024-08-30 This is a riveting book with bite an exploration with edginess Compelling and arresting images confront us with a fresh view of Jesus and of ourselves as we rediscover our vocation to be Another Christ for troubled times Recent research into the first century setting of the gospel and the author s years in the Holy Land cast unexpected light on both the identity of Jesus and our present calling while Francis of Assisi reveals how this can be creatively lived out We have a choice If we keep before our eyes images of Christ that are comforting soothing familiar traditional then our Christian life may turn out to be prosaic pedestrian and predictable a preservative to maintain the status quo But if we allow our discipleship today to be unsettled and inspired by images of Christ that are dynamic risky outrageous brave passionate radical then we open ourselves to new possibilities we embark on a liberating adventure an odyssey of the soul a pilgrimage a voyage into untested waters What will we choose Do we dare to take the unpredictable path And which route will respond most courageously to the needs of today s wounded world

God's Beauty-in-Act Stephen M. Garrett, 2013-07-24 Jurgen Moltmann and others contend that Christian theology and the church face a dual crisis one of relevance and the other of identity Despite making this pronouncement nearly forty years ago the church in the West continues to struggle with this crisis Several proposals have been espoused from the way of wisdom to the way of ecclesial praxis Yet little attention is given in Protestant theological discourse to the role God's beauty plays in bringing theology and ethics together By neglecting God's beauty for theological discourse we risk diminishing Christian worship witness and wisdom God's Beauty in Act addresses these issues in part by arguing that the redemptive creative suffering and glorious resurrection of Christ are the nexus of God's being beauty and Christian living God's beauty understood as the fittingness of the incarnate Son's actions in the Spirit to the Father's will radiates God's glory and draws perceivers into the dramatic movements of God's triune life These movements serve as the patterns that shape the imagination enabling participants to perform their parts creatively and fittingly in God's drama of redemption In doing so human beings flourish as they jettison false identities and realities of their own making that are incommensurate with God's purpose found in Christ by the Spirit

A Christian-Muslim Comparative Theology of Saints Hans A. Harmakaputra, 2022-09-19 In A Christian Muslim Comparative Theology of Saints The Community of God's Friends Hans A Harmakaputra focuses on a question that emerges from today's multi faith context Is it possible for Christians to recognize non Christians as saints To answer affirmatively he offers a Christian perspective on an inclusive theology of saints through the lens of comparative theology that is based on the thought of Catholic Protestant and Muslim theologians Karl Rahner Jean Luc Marion Elizabeth Johnson Dietrich Bonhoeffer Paul Tillich and Ibn Arab As a result of this interreligious comparison three theological constructs emerge 1 saints as manifestations and revealers of God's self communication 2 the hiddenness of saints and 3 saints as companions These theological constructs redefine and reconfigure

Christian understanding of saints on one hand and on the other hand provide theological reasoning to include non Christians in the Christian notion of the communion of saints
