Loretta Young An Extraordinary Life:

Loretta Young Joe Morella, Edward Z. Epstein, 1987 Uncovers the true persona of the glamorous Hollywood star including her early years as a star struck actress her tempestuous private life and her years as the first major star to have a successful television series Hollywood Madonna Bernard F. Dick, 2025-05-15 Loretta Young 1913 2000 was an Academy Award winning actress known for devout Catholicism and her performances in The Farmer's Daughter The Bishop's Wife and Come to the Stable and for her long running and tremendously popular television series But That Was Not the Whole Story Hollywood Madonna explores the full saga of Loretta Young's professional and personal life She made her film debut at age four became a star at fifteen and many awards and accolades later made her final television movie at age seventy six This biography withholds none of the details of her affair with Clark Gable and the daughter that powerful love produced Bernard F. Dick places Young's affair in the proper context of the time and the choices available to women in 1935 especially a noted Catholic like Young whose career would have been in ruins if the public knew of her tryst With the birth of a daughter who would have been branded a love child Loretta Young reached the crossroads of disclosure and deception choosing the latter path That choice resulted in an illustrious career for her and a tortured childhood for her daughter The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr Television: A Biography David Thomson, 2017-03-28 The invention or the quaint piece of furniture wandered into our lives in the 1940s as a primitive plaything a clever if awkward addition to the household It was expensive unreliable and a bit of an invalid Television A Biography In just a few years what used to be an immobile piece of living room furniture which one had to sit in front of at appointed times in order to watch sponsored programming on a finite number of channels morphed into a glowing cloud of screens with access to a near endless supply of content available when and how viewers want it With this phenomenon now a common cultural theme a writer of David Thomson's stature delivering a critical history or biography of the six decade television era will be a significant event which could not be more timely With Television the critic and film historian who wrote what Sight and Sound's readers called the most important film book of the last 50 years has finally turned his unique powers of observation to the medium that has swallowed film whole Over twenty two thematically organized chapters Thomson brings his provocatively insightful and unique voice to the life of what was television David Thomson surveying a Boschian landscape illuminated by that singular glow always on and peopled by everyone from Donna Reed to Dennis Potter will be the first complete history of the defining medium of our time Orry Kelly, Miss Weston's Protégé Robert Parkinson, 2017-10-16 Orry Kelly Miss Weston's Protégé provided support for the studio's leading ladies including Claudette Colbert, Dorothy Lamour, and Paulette Goddard. A chapter is dedicated to his Oscar-winning performance in The Lost Weekend and important later films like Dial M for Murder and Love Story also receive detailed analysis. Overall, Ray Milland provides a reappraisal of Milland's earlier career and situates his performances within the broader tradition of star studies. Allan Dwan and the Rise and Decline of the Hollywood Studios Frederic Lombardi, 2013-03-05 It could be said that the career of Canadian-born film director Allan Dwan (1885-1981) began at the dawn of the American motion picture industry. Originally a scriptwriter, Dwan became a director purely by accident. Even so, his creativity and problem-solving skills propelled him to the top of his profession. He achieved success with numerous silent film performers, most spectacularly with Douglas Fairbanks Sr. and Gloria Swanson, and later with such legendary stars as Shirley Temple and John Wayne. Though his star waned in the sound era, Dwan managed to survive through pluck and ingenuity. Considering himself better off without the fame he enjoyed during the silent era, he went on to do some of his best work for second-echelon studios, notably Republic Pictures' Sands of Iwo Jima, and such independent producers as Edward Small. Along the way, Dwan also found personal happiness in an unconventional manner. Rich in detail, with two columns of text in each of its nearly 400 pages and with more than 150 photographs, this book presents a thorough examination of Allan Dwan and separates myth from truth in his life and films. Museum of Broadcast Communications Encyclopedia of Television, 1997 Jim Kobak's Kirkus Reviews, 1986 Kirkus Reviews, 1986 Adult books are categorized by genre, i.e., fiction, mystery, science fiction, nonfiction. Along with bibliographic information, the expected date of publication and the names of literary agents for individual titles are provided. Starred reviews serve several functions. In the adult section, they mark potential bestsellers, major promotions, book club selections, and just very good books. In the children's section, they denote books of very high quality. The unsigned reviews manage to be discerning and sometimes quite critical.
