ENGLISH DESCRIPTION Big Mama's Funeral is a long short story by Gabriel García Márquez that satirizes Latin American life and culture. It displays the exaggeration associated with magic realism. Most of the places names mentioned come from Colombia and Big Mama herself is an exaggeration of the cacique political boss, a familiar figure in Latin American history and tradition. In Big Mama's Funeral we find ourselves in Macondo once again among recognizable characters and events. The story centers around Big Mama's burial, absolute sovereign of this world who died in holiness at the age of 92 after having preserved her virginity throughout her life and whose funeral is attended by the President of the Republic and even the Supreme Pontiff but also by peasants, smugglers, rice farmers, prostitutes, sorcerers and banana growers. Under the motto of these mythological funerals the author gathered seven stories and also the novella that gives this book its title in which the magical elements that would from then on define García Márquez's work appear in all its splendor cohabiting with reality.
