Kay Carmichael, 2019-09-16 Originally published in 2003 Western attitudes to crime were in the past rooted in concepts of sin and therefore of hopes for redemption and forgiveness So what happens to offenders and society as a whole in a world where people no longer talk of sin but of evil If hopes of redemption go too will revenge take the place of forgiveness Kay Carmichael explores these dilemmas in this topical and provocative book She traces the stories of Myra Hindley Mary Bell Sarah Payne James Bulger and his killers comparing public responses to such crimes in various Western countries Art and literature are examined for the light they throw on the evolution of our ideas about sin and forgiveness from Rembrandt to Nathaniel Hawthorne Samuel Becket Dali and writings inspired by the Holocaust Turning to our own day Carmichael discusses the emergence of structural sins or iniquities in which we may all find ourselves involved poverty slavery violence and war are her themes Her analysis leaves her sceptical about many contemporary appeals for forgiveness but hopeful about ideas of restorative justice The Lost Art of Herbal Healing The Hidden Architecture, 2025-09-04 Before pills before prescriptions there were leaves and roots And hands that knew how to use them Somewhere along the way medicine became something sold in bottles grown in labs and stripped of story You were meant to know the plants You just forgot This book is your invitation to remember To return to a slower wiser way of healing One rooted in connection intuition and the quiet power of nature Inside You'll Learn How to build your own home apothecary with the most essential herbs and tools The
