tracking mankind's history while suggesting possible earthly and heavenly mechanisms which could have been used in generating that history. The Lost Tree Of Life is a fictional account of what may have been going on behind the scenes during some of mankind's most amazing history. Lost Mill Towns of North Georgia Lisa M. Russell, 2020. The textile era was born of a perfect storm. When North Georgia's red clay failed, farmers and prices fell during Reconstruction, opportunities arose. Beginning in the 1880s, textile industries moved south. Mill owners enticed an entire workforce to leave their farms and move their families into modern mill villages, encased communities with stores, theaters, baseball teams, bands, and schools. To some workers, mill village life was idyllic. They had work, recreation, education, shopping, and a home with the modern conveniences of running water and electricity. Most importantly, they got a paycheck. But after the New Deal, workers started to see the raw deal they were getting from mill owners and rebelled. Strikes and economic changes began to erode the era of mill villages, and by the 1960s, mill village life was all but gone. Author Lisa Russell brings these once vibrant communities back to life.

Different Seconds 2 R.S. Apple, 2014-04-17. Continuing the approach he took in his first collection of poetry, R.S. Apple presents Different Seconds 2. Hello Friend, See Hear Feel the Difference. In these verses, he celebrates the fact that no two people view life in the same way. From the realization that each day dawns with hope and possibilities in Dawn of a New Sky to the fanciful Chasing Unicorns, Apple expresses his thoughts in a unique and powerful cadence. The point counterpoint of One Story Apartment gives us a bird's-eye view into the challenges of relationships, while Death Valley talks of the terror of a terrible traffic accident involving many cars. Different Seconds 2 offers an in-depth, imaginative view of the world through a collection of insightful poetry. Dawn of a New Sky: Ever step on a land where the sun meets the ground. When it comes down, it brings the darkness with it. Blue sky turns to a black canvas. Warm air becomes a chilly reminder of things to come. A dry ground is now being damped. Another world starts to take over.
