Lost Cow:

The Lost Cow, 2005      Ethics and Teaching A. Block, 2009-03-16 In this book Block critically examines the political and social critique now directed at the teaching profession and to look at some ethical positions the teacher regularly and already takes in the course of her daily life in the classroom      We Belong to the Land Elias Chacour, Mary E. Jensen, 2015-11-15 We Belong to the Land the gripping autobiography of Nobel Peace Prize nominee Elias Chacour capture his life's work toward peace and reconciliation for Israeli Jews Christians and Muslims Nominated several times for the Nobel Peace Prize world renowned Palestinian priest Elias Chacour narrates the gripping story of his life spent working to achieve peace and reconciliation among Israeli Jews Christians and Muslims From the destruction of his boyhood village and his work as a priest in Galilee to his efforts to build school libraries and summer camps for children of all religions this peacemaker's moving story brings hope to one of the most complex struggles of our time      Agriculture Handbook, 1957      The DHIA Supervisor's Manual James Frank Kendrick, 1956      NEKOMONOGATARI (WHITE) NISIOISIN, 2019-10-08 Launching into new territory that the author hadn't mapped out when he embarked on the series NEKOMONOGATARI White tells the tale of heroine Tsubasa Hanekawa from her own perspective in her own voice if that can hold true for a damaged soul who depending on who you're asking suffers from a split personality or a supernatural aberration The bone-chilling brokenness of her household where father and mother and daughter keep three separate sets of cookware in the same kitchen and only ever prepare their own meals and the profound darkness nurtured in the genius schoolgirl's heart come to life if that is the word through her self-vivisection As for our customary unreliable narrator Araragi we seem to learn revealing tidbits about him now that we have an outside view of him at last while his lady friends Senjogahara Hachikuji et al freed from his predilection for proudly inane banter show subtly new faces to us via their female interlocutor Welcome to the Second Season      THE DEVOUT WOMAN Emmanuel Igwaro Odongo-Aginya, 2013 Torn between traditional and the Christian religions Anyadwe the wife of Ogwok one of the pioneers of Christian faith in Coomit village lead a stormy life with her posthumous son Acellam Because of her pious faith in the Christian faith she had received and in her dead husband Ogwok Anyadwe rejected all the traditional inheritance marriage laws which were fronted to her by Opuk the paternal uncle of her husband Ogwok Opuk was a hard liner Traditionalists medicine man and soothsayers who chaired all the village elders meets He was highly respected in the village because of these irreplaceable qualities His prophecies were precise and his herbal Medicines were indubitable Nevertheless he abominated Christianity and called it white man hoax doctrine of dominancy over a black man land cultures and integrities Even if Anyadew gave due respect to Opuk leaderships as anyone else in the village did their ideologies about Christian God and traditional gods were unmatched Notwithstanding the snappish differences between Anyadwe and Opuk the village community appreciated their stands As the results most of villagers practiced both Traditional and the Christians faith because of Anyadwe and Opuk influence Opuk often prophesied about the calamities to befall the village at the start of the year These he always attributed to the disobedience of the villagers for the reason that the community had accepted the Christians God and has forsaken their own traditional gods whom they have been worshipping for years During such occasions he also prophesied successes for the village which he also accredited to those who participated in traditional rituals to appease the traditional gods Even Missionaries at the Coomit Mission were sometimes baffled by Opuk ingenious acts and words however describing them as Satan powers at work Nevertheless they favored Anyadwe and described her as a role model of a pious Christian They looked after her financial and medical needs Hinz: Customary Law Ascertained Volume 1 Manfred Hinz, Ndateelela Namwoonde, 2024-01-23

Angels' Work, Or, The Choristers of St. Mark's, 1860      Folktales of Ancient India Raywat

Deonandan, 2024-06-26 Twenty five years in the making this anthology of centuries old folk tales from the villages of South Asia recreate the oral traditions of old Treat yourself to 27 old fashioned short stories of kings princesses fools wisemen talking animals treacherous villains and unlikely heroes Plucked and distilled from the anthropological literature these tales hearken to a simpler time and faraway places when old and young alike were entertained by fireside storytellers who wandered from village to village to ply their yarn spinning trade Be entertained by Harisharam the Frog who pretended to be a fortune teller until his claims were challenged by the most powerful man in the land Learn of Ravi the Fly a quiet unassuming servant who turned out to be the greatest swindler in the land Be awed by the simple Potmaker whose foolishness thrust him to the front of a great army And yearn for Savitri the perfect princess whose relentless love would falter before none not even the god of Death These tales have been told by oral storytellers in villages across ancient India each time twisting and evolving Some might seem familiar given overlapping themes and the messiness of world history and geography But there s something about folk tales that are distinct from modern stories they reflect not only timeless themes and perhaps the personality of the storyteller but also say something of the nature of the people of the times      Nedarim

Jacob Neusner, 1985-06 The purpose of this preliminary translation is to make possible a set of historical and religious historical studies on the formation of Judaism in the land of Israel from the closure of the Mishnah to the completion of the Talmud of the land of Israel and the time of the composition of the first midrashic compilations      Something More

The Wealth of Nature Donald Worster,1994-10-27 Hailed as one of the most eminent environmental historians of the West by Alan Brinkley in The New York Times Book Review Donald Worster has been a leader in reshaping the study of American history Winner of the prestigious Bancroft Prize for his book Dust Bowl Worster has helped bring humanity s interaction with nature to the forefront of historical thinking Now in The Wealth of Nature he offers a series of thoughtful eloquent essays which lay out his views on environmental history tying the study of the past to today s agenda for change The Wealth of Nature captures the fruit of what Worster calls my own intellectual turning to the land History he writes represents a dialogue between humanity and nature though it is usually reported as if it were simple dictation Worster takes as his point of departure the approach expressed early on by Aldo Leopold who stresses the importance of nature in determining human history Leopold pointed out that the spread of bluegrass in Kentucky for instance created new pastures and fed the rush of American settlers across the Appalachians which affected the contest between Britain France and the U S for control of the area Worster s own work offers an even more subtly textured understanding noting in this example for instance that bluegrass itself was an import from the Old World which supplanted native vegetation a form of environmental imperialism He ranges across such areas as agriculture water development and other questions examining them as environmental issues showing how they have affected and continue to affect human settlement Environmental history he argues is not simply the history of rural and wilderness areas cities clearly have a tremendous impact on the land on which they depend for their existence He argues for a comprehensive approach to understanding our past as well as our present in environmental terms Nostalgia runs all through this society Worster writes fortunately for it may be our only hope of salvation These reflective and engaging essays capture the fascination of environmental history and the beauty of nature lost or endangered underscoring the importance of intelligent action in the present
