Lost Scriptures S That Did Not Make It Into The New Testament:

Lost Scriptures Bart D. Ehrman, 2003-10-02 While most people think that the twenty seven books of the New Testament are the only sacred writings of the early Christians this is not at all the case A companion volume to Bart Ehrman s Lost Christianities this book offers an anthology of up to date and readable translations of many non canonical writings from the first centuries after Christ texts that have been for the most part lost or neglected for almost two millennia Here is an array of remarkably varied writings from early Christian groups whose visions of Jesus differ dramatically from our contemporary understanding Readers will find Gospels supposedly authored by the apostle Philip James the brother of Jesus Mary Magdalen and others There are Acts originally ascribed to John and to Thecla Paul s female companion there are Epistles allegedly written by Paul to the Roman philosopher Seneca And there is an apocalypse by Simon Peter that offers a guided tour of the afterlife both the glorious ecstasies of the saints and the horrendous torments of the damned and an Epistle by Titus a companion of Paul which argues page after page against sexual love even within marriage on the grounds that physical intimacy leads to damnation In all the anthology includes fifteen Gospels five non canonical Acts of the Apostles thirteen Epistles a number of Apocalypses and Secret Books and several Canon lists Ehrman has included a general introduction plus brief introductions to each piece This important anthology gives readers a vivid picture of the range of beliefs that battled each other in the first centuries of the Christian era

New Testament Apocrypha, v1 Burke & Landau, 2016 Compilation of little known and never before published apocryphal Christian texts in English translation This anthology of ancient nonbiblical Christian literature presents informed introductions to and readable translations of a wide range of little known apocryphal texts most of which have never before been translated into any modern language An introduction to the volume as a whole addresses the most significant features of the writings included and contextualizes them within the contemporary study of the Christian Apocrypha The body of the book comprises thirty texts that have been carefully introduced copiously annotated and translated into English by eminent scholars With dates of composition ranging from the second century CE to early in the second millennium these fascinating texts provide a more complete picture of Christian thought and expression than canonical texts alone can offer

The Gospels of the Marginalized Marvin W. Meyer, 2012-10-16 The Gospels of the Marginalized provides an exciting new study of three of the most maligned figures in the New Testament story of Jesus Thomas usually considered the quintessential doubter among the disciples Mary Magdalene characterized as a repentant prostitute during much of the history of the church and Judas Iscariot presented as the despicable disciple of Jesus who betrayed his master for money In this book Marvin Meyer one of the most prominent of the scholars of gnostic texts and other early Christian literature offers fresh and accurate translations of the Gospels of Thomas Mary and Judas with their proclamation of the good news of the wisdom of Jesus and he uses these gospels as the occasion to reexamine the place of Thomas Mary Magdalene and Judas Iscariot in the Jesus movement His striking analysis suggests that Thomas was no doubter that Mary Magdalene was a beloved disciple in the inner circles of disciples around Jesus and that the tale of Judas Iscariot as betrayer of Jesus is a piece of fiction Meyer adds a Gospel of the Redeemed as a vivid illustration of how the gospel story of Jesus might read with Jesus as a Jewish teacher of wisdom and Thomas Mary and Judas restored as loyal followers of the teacher from Nazareth

New Testament Apocrypha, vol. 1 Tony Burke, Brent Landau, 2016-12-02 Compilation of little known and never before published apocryphal Christian texts in English translation This anthology of ancient nonbiblical Christian literature presents informed introductions to and readable translations of a wide range of little known apocryphal texts most of which have never before been translated into any modern language An introduction to the volume as a whole addresses the most significant features of the writings included and contextualizes them within the contemporary study of the Christian Apocrypha The body of the book comprises thirty texts that have been carefully introduced copiously annotated and translated into English by eminent scholars With dates of composition ranging from the second century CE to early in the second millennium these fascinating texts provide a more complete picture of Christian thought and expression than canonical texts alone can offer

Gospel Thrillers Andrew S. Jacobs, 2023-11-30 Conspiratorial fears and desires about biblical discoveries are amplified and contained within the covers of a formulaic fiction genre

The Making of the New Testament Arthur G. Patzia, 2025-11-04 The story of the making of the New Testament is one in which scrolls bumped across cobbled Roman roads and pitched through rolling Mediterranean seas finally finding their destinations in stuffy dimly lit Christian house churches in Corinth or Colossae There they were read aloud and reread handled and copied forwarded and collected studied and treasured And eventually they were brought together to make up our New Testament This revised and expanded edition of The Making of the New Testament is a textbook introduction to the origin collection copying and canonizing of the New Testament documents Like shrewd detectives reading subtle whispers of evidence biblical scholars have studied the trail of clues and pieced together the story of these books Arthur Patzia tells the story answering our many questions How were books and documents produced in the first century What motivated the early Christians to commit teaching and narrative and vision to papyrus How were the stories and sayings of Jesus circulated handed down and shaped into Gospels What do we know about ancient letter writing secretaries and copy shops Why were four Gospels included instead of just one How were Paul's letters sent here and there gathered into a single collection Who decided and by what criteria which documents would be included in the New Testament Explore these questions and more about these Scriptures whose everyday gritty story rings true to their extraordinary message the palpable mystery of the Word made flesh

Acts of Paul Glenn E. Snyder, 2013 Acts of Paul is a collection of early Christian traditions that were not included in the canonized Acts the Acts of Paul and Thekla 3 Corinthians the Martyrdom of Paul and other fabulous stories such as Paul baptizing a lion By the end of the second century there was a rumor in North Africa that Acts of Paul had been fabricated by a presbyter in Asia Minor Tertullian De baptismo 17.5 and to this day it is alleged that Acts of Paul is later than

and inferior to the traditions preserved in Acts historically theologically and otherwise But what evidence is there for the composition and reception of Acts of Paul In this study Glenn E Snyder critically examines Greek Latin and Coptic witnesses to Acts of Paul from the second to sixth centuries with chapters on the independently circulating acts extant collections and other evidence for the formation of Acts of Paul Paul and Pseudepigraphy Stanley E. Porter, Gregory P.

Fewster, 2013-09-05 In Paul and Pseudepigraphy an international group of scholars engage open questions in the study of the Apostle Paul and those documents often deemed pseudepigraphal This volume addresses many traditional questions including those of method and the authenticity of several canonical Pauline letters but they also reflect a desire to think in new ways about persistent questions surrounding pseudepigraphy The focus on pseudepigraphy in relationship to Paul affords a unique opportunity to address this innovative inclination not readily available in studies of New Testament pseudepigraphy in general Regarding these concerns new approaches are introduced traditional evidence is reassessed and some new suggestions are offered In addition to Pauline letters treatments of related non canonical Pauline pseudepigraphs are included in discussion The Beginning and the End Michael W. Pahl, 2011-06-01 Have you ever wondered if there might be more to Genesis than fodder for anti evolutionism Or have you ever thought Revelation has to be more than simply a roadmap for the future of the Middle East You re not alone In The Beginning and the End Michael Pahl surveys the opening chapters of Genesis and the concluding chapters of Revelation taking seriously both their historical and literary features as ancient texts and their theological purposes as inspired Scripture The result is a reading of the first and last books of the Bible that sketches out from beginning to end a story of God humanity and all creation a grand narrative in which we are placed in the middle and which calls us to live in a particular way as our identity and our values are shaped in light of our origins and our destiny Reading Christian Apocrypha Tobias Nicklas, Janet E. Spittler, 2025-09-16 Christian apocrypha has suffered neglect Living just outside the Christian canon apocryphal Christian works have been judged deficient secret and even heretical In Reading Christian Apocrypha Tobias Nicklas and Janet Spittler lavish attention upon these extracanonical texts to demonstrate that far from being superfluous or fringe Christian apocrypha plays a crucial role in the history of Christianity Apocryphal works function as important witnesses for the reception of Jesus Paul and other apostolic figures Beyond the reception of canonical figures however they provide foundational stories that fill in the Christian landscape of memories supplying local and regional Christian communities with narratives that tie their own environment traditions and practices to the activities of the apostles and apostolic figures Reading Christian Apocrypha also explores how apocryphal works adopt and adapt Jewish and Greco Roman views on the origin of the world its history and the world to come creating new spaces of interpretation around biblical texts and traditions The apocryphal writings reveal that Christianity from the very beginning developed a wide variety of theological perspectives within diverse linguistic traditions and geographical areas Ultimately Reading Christian Apocrypha demonstrates that the distinction between canonical and apocryphal tradition is far blurrier than often assumed Seeking the Identity of Jesus Beverly Roberts Gaventa, Richard B. Hays, 2008-10-15 In view of the proliferation of conflicting images of Jesus in the church in the academy and in popular culture it is no wonder that his identity sometimes appears more elusive than ever Seeking the Identity of Jesus brings together an interdisciplinary group of leading scholars from the fields of biblical studies theology and church history to focus on the complex problems surrounding the quest for the historical Jesus Their perspectives are richly informed by Scripture testimony from the church's past and experience of the risen Jesus in the present Contributors Dale C Allison Jr Gary A Anderson Markus Bockmuehl Sarah Coakley Brian E Daley Beverly Roberts Gaventa A Katherine Grieb Richard B Hays Robert W Jenson Joel Marcus R W L Moberly William C Placher Katherine Sonderegger David C Steinmetz Marianne Meye Thompson Francis Watson The Inspiration of Holy Scripture, Its Nature and Proof: Eight Discourses ... William Lee (D.D., Archdeacon of Dublin.), 1854 The Inspiration of Holy Scripture William Lee, 1865 The Inspiration of Holy Scripture, Its Nature and Proof William Lee, 1865 A Biblical-Theological Introduction to the New Testament Michael J. Kruger, 2016-05-31 Introductions to the New Testament often take a defensive stance focusing on historical critical issues but failing to address the interests and needs of pastors and Bible teachers However with an emphasis on the theology key themes and overall message of each book in the New Testament this collaborative effort of nine biblical scholars takes a more positive and pastorally relevant approach Written from a distinctly Reformed covenantal and redemptive historical perspective this theologically rich expositional resource will equip readers to study and teach each book in the New Testament with clarity and insight Nag Hammadi Bibliography 1995-2006 David Scholer, Susan Wood, 2009-01-31 This is the third volume of the immensely useful Nag Hammadi Bibliography the first volume of which covered 1948 1969 and was the first publication in the Nag Hammadi Studies series The second volume covered 1970 1994 This third volume provides a complete integration of Supplements II 1 II 8 to the Bibliography as published in Novum Testamentum 1998 2008 with additions and corrections This latest update contains 3 063 entries with the set of three volumes containing 11 580 entries Nag Hammadi and Gnostic studies continue to be of critical importance for the study of ancient religions in the Graeco Roman world and for the study of the world of early Christianity and the present bibliography provides an indispensable reference tool for work in these fields Changing the Goalpost of New Testament Textual Criticism Abidan Paul Shah, 2020-10-02 Before the 1960s the goal of New Testament Textual Criticism was singular to retrieve the original text of the New Testament Since then the goalpost has incrementally shifted away from the original text to retrieving any text or many texts of the NT Some scholars have even concluded that the original text is hopelessly lost and cannot be retrieved with any confidence or accuracy Other scholars have gone a step further to claim that the idea of an original text itself is a misconception that needs to be abandoned If this new approach in NTTC is correct then the authority of Scripture is weakened or no longer valid It will be shown in this book that such is not the case Furthermore emphasis will be placed on the need to return to the traditional goalpost of NTTC i.e. to retrieve the original text Without a generally definitive text the door will be left wide open to recreate any desired text of the NT An unsettled original text will result in an unsettled biblical theology due to a lack of any authoritative and standard text Consequently it will lead to an unsettled Christian faith and practice The New Testament Scriptures in the Order in which They Were Written Charles Hebert, 1882 The Bible Says . . . Larry R. Kalajainen, 2013-02-26

How can people taking diametrically opposing positions on contemporary issues dividing both religious communities and society quote the Bible in support of their views What does it mean to make a claim that the Bible says or teaches something Why appeal to the Bible at all Whose interpretation is the right one If you've felt confused about the Bible's role or authority in such controversies this book may help The author draws upon his more than forty years of pastoral ministry and seminary teaching experience as he examines the Bible what it is and isn't how it came to be a sacred text for Jews and Christians what kind of authority it has and how that authority is used or misused He does not attempt to take a position on the controversial issues themselves but argues for understanding the Bible as a community product arising out of the historical life of communities of faith that then exerts a shaping or normative power in those communities through time and asks how the Bible and the Word of God may be related in constructive ways The Ashgate Research Companion to Theological Anthropology Joshua R. Farris, Charles Taliaferro, 2016-03-09 In recent scholarship there is an emerging interest in the integration of philosophy and theology Philosophers and theologians address the relationship between body and soul and its implications for theological anthropology In so doing philosopher theologians interact with cognitive science biological evolution psychology and sociology Reflecting these exciting new developments The Ashgate Research Companion to Theological Anthropology is a resource for philosophers and theologians students and scholars interested in the constructive critical exploration of a theology of human persons Throughout this collection of newly authored contributions key themes are addressed human agency and grace the soul sin and salvation Christology glory feminism the theology of human nature and other major themes in theological anthropology in historic as well as contemporary contexts
