Lost Empire Perceptions Of Likely Policy Shifts In The 1990s:

The Lost Empire John Hemsley, 1991 This is an investigation into the mechanisms of change and how these have an impact on the institutional processes in the Soviet Union These processes are defined with a view to establishing how much inertia exists and why and to what extent they may be responsive to the requirements of perestroika It seeks to establish the constraints on and limitations of perestroika as well as looking at the penalties of failure and the effects on the system as a whole

The Defense Policies of Nations Douglas J. Murray, Paul R. Viotti, 1994 Now in its third edition The Defense Policies of Nations has been thoroughly updated to take into account the dramatic developments of recent years the dissolution of the Soviet Union the resurgence of East Asian powers the emergence of newly independent nations in Eastern Europe the continuing instability of the Middle East and the growing importance of third world nations in global security matters For those dealing with national defense issues on a daily basis or even for those interested in the subject because of its current relevance The Defense Policy of Nations is must reading Gen Theodore J Conway Military Review American Academy of Political and Social Science
