American Women Short Story Writers Julie Brown,2014-05-01 This collection of original and classic essays examines the contributions that female authors have made to the short story The introductory chapter discusses why genre critics have ignored works by women and why feminist scholars have ignored the short story genre Subsequent chapters discuss early stories by such authors as Lydia Maria Child and Rose Terry Cooke Others are devoted to the influences race class sexual orientation education that have shaped women s short fiction through the years Women s special stylistic formal and thematic concerns are also discussed in this study The final essay addresses the ways our contemporary creative writing classes are stifling the voices of emerging young female authors The collection includes an extensive five part bibliography

The Oxford Handbook of Transcendentalism Joel Myerson, Sandra Harbert Petrucci, Laura Dassow Walls, 2010-04-16 The Oxford Handbook of Transcendentalism offers an eclectic comprehensive interdisciplinary approach to the immense cultural impact of the movement that encompassed literature art architecture science and politics

800 Years of Women's Letters Olga Kenyon, 2011-10-21 This inspiring and fascinating book is the first truly comprehensive study of women's letters ever published Organised by subject matter and covering a wide range of topics from politics work and war to childhood love and sexual passion 800 Years of Women's Letters reveals the depth breadth and diversity of women's lives through the ages Here Holoise writes to Abelard of her undying devotion Vita Sackville West and Virginia Woolf correspond about life and writing and Queen Victoria complains to Robert Peel about the neglect of Buckingham Palace Many more women write letters that reveal the compassion humour love and tenacity with which they confront the often difficult circumstances of everyday life This is an intriguing insight and a rare opportunity to read the real words of real women in their own intimate language No literary form is more revealing more spontaneous of more individual than a letter P D James

Dust Off the Gold Medal Sara L. Schwebel, Jocelyn Van Tuyl, 2021-08-23 The oldest and most prestigious children's literature award the Newbery Medal has since 1922 been granted annually by the American Library Association to the children's book it deems most distinguished Medal books enjoy an outsized influence on American children's literature figuring perennially on publishers lists on library and bookstore shelves and in school curricula As such they offer a compelling window into the history of US children's literature and publishing as well as into changing societal attitudes about which books are best for America's schoolchildren Yet literary scholars have disproportionately ignored the Medal winners in their research This volume provides a critically and historically grounded scholarly analysis of representative but understudied Newbery Medal books from the 1920s through the 2010s interrogating the disjunction between the books omnipresence and influence on the one hand and the critical silence surrounding them on the other Dust Off the Gold Medal makes a case for closing these scholarly gaps by revealing neglected texts insights into the politics of children's literature prizing and by demonstrating how neglected titles illuminate critical debates currently central to the field of children's literature In particular the essays shed light on the hidden elements of diversity apparent in the neglected Newbery canon while illustrating how the books respond sometimes in quite subtle ways to contemporaneous concerns around race class gender disability nationalism and globalism

Henry James and the 'Woman Business' Alfred Habegger, 2004-08-26 This is a historical critique of Henry James in relation to nineteenth century feminism and women's fiction Habegger has brought to light extensive new documentation on James's tangled connections with what was thought and written about women in his time The emphasis is equally on his life and on his fictions This is the first book to investigate his father's bizarre lifelong struggle with free love and feminism a struggle that played a major role in shaping James The book also shows how seriously he distorted the truth about the cousin Minnie Temple whose self assertive image inspired him and how indebted he was to certain American women writers whom he attacked in reviews but whose plots and heroines he appropriated in his own fiction

Little Women Louisa May Alcott, 2013-05-13 Chronicles the joys and sorrows of the four March sisters as they grow into young ladies in nineteenth century New England in an annotated edition that looks at the work in biographical social and historical contexts

U.S. History As Women's History Linda K. Kerber, Alice Kessler-Harris, Kathryn Kish Sklar, 2000-11-09 This outstanding collection of fifteen original essays represents innovative work by some of the most influential scholars in the field of women's history. Covering a broad sweep of history from colonial to contemporary times and ranging over the fields of legal, social, political and cultural history, this book according to its editors intrudes into regions of the American historical narrative from which women have been excluded or in which gender relations were not thought to play a part. The book is dedicated to pioneering women's historian Gerda Lerner whose work inspired so many of the contributors and it includes a bibliography of her works. The contributors include Linda K. Kerber on women and the obligations of citizenship; Kathryn Kish Sklar on two political cultures in the Progressive Era; Linda Gordon on women, maternalism and welfare in the twentieth century; Alice Kessler Harris on the Social Security Amendments of 1939; Nancy F. Cott on marriage and the public order in the late nineteenth century; Nell Irvin Painter on soul murder as a legacy of slavery; Judith Walzer Leavitt on Typhoid Mary and early twentieth century public health; Estelle B. Freedman on women's institutions and the career of Miriam Van Waters; William H. Chafe on how the personal translates into the political in the careers of Eleanor Roosevelt and Allard Lowenstein; Jane Sherron De Hart on women, politics and power in the contemporary United States; Barbara Sicherman on reading Little Women; Joyce Antler on the Emma Lazarus Federation's efforts to promulgate women's history; Amy Swerdlow on Left feminist peace politics in the cold war; Ruth Rosen on the origins of contemporary American feminism among daughters of the fifties; Darlene Clark Hine on the making of Black Women in America.
