streaming down the road with their lights flashing There were loud sirens Then an ambulance followed I was fighting to get my face to the window so I could see but I wasn't big enough I became frustrated and cried wet tears filling my face so my oldest sister lifted me up Then word got around that the man who was killed was the boy Jason's father who lived up the street I knew Jason and liked him He had a pretty face and a big smile Every time he came by the house and I was standing on the porch he would say hi and call me by my name Sometimes he would say Are you being a good little girl Other times he would say You look very pretty I thought about Jason and how he felt He stood tall and proud and seemed like an old little kid much older than me He seemed caring inside and always dressed nice I never knew my father so I often wondered what it was like to have a father I wondered what a man did in the house Now I wondered about Jason I wondered if he was going to cry I wasn't allowed to go to the funeral but I really wanted to I wanted to see him and make sure he was okay I wanted to tell him I wished those men didn't shoot his father The Flaming Sword ,1898 The Mysteries of Paris Eugène Sue,1847 working at an exclusive mountain lodge she met a young man named Harry Rust from Birmingham Alabama with whom she experienced an instant overwhelming attraction After a brief infatuation they were separated by distance and circumstances for over two and a half years years of letter writing and longing Harry became her longed for escape from her ironhanded mother and her dream for a wondrous future full of possibilities But the future is not always what one envisions In 1936 she and Harry married barely knowing each other but both madly sure of the certainty of their love Little did she realize that she had escaped from life with one difficult personality to another who was not only the intensely passionate love of her life but a man with two distinct personalities the affectionate amazingly talented man with whom she fell in love and a flawed desperately mentally ill individual This true story full of details of the culture attitudes foods smells and life in the South for a woman in the early to mid 1900s is an amazing journey into her struggles triumphs joys and sorrows This is the life of Patti Rust
