Bates, 2021-04-21 Louisiana Coushatta Basket Makers brings together oral histories tribal records archival materials and archaeological evidence to explore the fascinating history of the Coushatta Tribe s famed basket weavers After settling at their present location near the town of Elton Louisiana in the 1880s the Coushatta Koasati tribe developed a basket industry that bolstered the local tribal economy and became the basis for generating tourism and political mobilization The baskets represented a material culture that distinguished the Coushattas as Indigenous people within an ethnically and racially diverse region Tribal leaders serving as diplomats also used baskets as strategic gifts as they built political and economic allegiances throughout the twentieth century thereby securing the Coushattas future Behind all these efforts were the basket makers themselves Although a few Coushatta men assisted in the production of baskets it was mostly women who put in the long hours to gather and process the materials then skillfully stitch them together to produce treasures of all shapes and sizes The art of basket making exists within a broader framework of Coushatta traditional teachings and educational practices that have persisted to the present As they tell the story of Coushatta basket makers Linda P Langley and Denise E Bates provide a better understanding of the tribe s culture and values The weavers own language of baskets shapes this narrative which depicts how the tribe survived repeated hardships as weavers responded on their own terms to market demands The work of Coushatta basket makers represents the perseverance of traditional knowledge in the form of unique and carefully crafted fine art that continues to garner greater recognition and appreciation with every successive generation Louisiana dayride ,1995 Louisiana Conservationist ,1985 A Hundred Years of Texas Waterfowl Hunting R.K. Sawyer,2024-08-05 The days are gone when seemingly limitless numbers of canvasbacks mallards and Canada geese filled the skies above the Texas coast Gone too are the days when in a single morning hunters often harvested ducks shorebirds and other waterfowl by the hundreds The hundred year period from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century brought momentous changes in attitudes and game laws changes initially prompted by sportsmen who witnessed the disappearance of both the birds and their spectacular habitat These changes forever affected the state s storied hunting culture Yet as R K Sawyer discovered the rich lore and reminiscences of the era s hunters and guides who plied the marshy haunts from Beaumont to Brownsville though fading remain a colorful and essential part of the Texas outdoor heritage Gleaned from interviews with sportsmen and guides of decades past as well as meticulous research in news archives Sawyer s vivid documentation of Texas deep rooted waterfowl hunting tradition is accompanied by a superb collection of historical and modern photographs By preserving this account of a way of life and a coastal environment that have both mostly vanished A Hundred Years of Texas Waterfowl Hunting also pays tribute to the efforts of all those who fought to ensure that Texas waterfowl legacy would endure This book will aid their efforts in championing the preservation of waterfowl and wetland resources for the benefit of future generations Pascagoula Decoys Bosco, Joe, The decoy factories operating in Pascagoula Mississippi between 1920 and 1971 produced thousands of decoys that were sold in the United States and several foreign countries American Studies Jack Salzman,1990-05-25 This volume supplements the acclaimed three volume set published in 1986 and consists of an annotated listing of American Studies monographs published between 1984 and 1988 There are more than 6 000 descriptive entries in a wide range of categories anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science and technology and sociology Northeast Louisiana: A Community of Innovations Dr. J. Woods Watson,2023-08-30 Northeast Louisiana is the home of amazingly innovative people who have risen above the challenges that would cripple less capable people Despite whatever resource deficits the locals have faced they have repeatedly shown exceptional resiliency and inexhaustible creativity As you read the inspiring stories of innovators you will notice that many of the people seem ordinary but their adaptations have improved life in extraordinary ways A Wetland Biography Gay M.
