Louvre European Sculpture:

The Louvre Musée du Louvre, Jean-René Gaborit, 1994 European Sculpture, 1400-1900, in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Ian Wardropper, 2011 This beautiful book features masterpieces of sculpture in the collection of the Metropolitan Museum dating from the Renaissance through the nineteenth century Celebrated works by the great European sculptors including Luca and Andrea della Robbia Juan Martinez Montañés Gianlorenzo Bernini Jean Antoine Houdon Bertel Thorvaldsen Antoine Louis Barye Jean Baptiste Carpeaux Edgar Degas and Auguste Rodin are joined by striking new additions to the collection notably Franz Xaver Messerschmidt's remarkable bust of a troubled and introspective man The ninety two selected examples are diverse in media marble bronze wood terracotta and ivory and size ranging from a tiny oil lamp fantastically conceived and decorated by the Renaissance bronze sculptor Riccio to Antonio Canova's eight foot high Perseus with the Head of Medusa executed in the heroic Neoclassical style Incorporating information from the latest scholarly research and recent conservation studies sculpture specialist Ian Wardropper discusses the history and significance of the highlighted works each of which is reproduced with glorious new photography The Companion Guide to Paris Anthony Glyn, Susan Glyn, 2000 An exuberant performance THE TIMES Highly praised on its first appearance this new edition of the Companion Guide to Paris fully revised by Anthony Glyn's widow preserves his vivid evocation of Paris its foundation and history ancient churches wide boulevards and narrow streets architecture and philosophy while bringing the book up to date Special attention is paid to the completed Grand Louvre with its Pyramid the d'Orsay and Picasso Museums and the refurbished Centre Pompidou the changes to the Eiffel Tower and the Pantheon and the restoration of the footpaths along the Seine Informed and amusing the book captures the changing moods of this fascinating city Jewish Dealers and the European Art Market, c. 1860-1940 Silvia Davoli, Tom Stammers, 2025-01-23 Before the tragedy of the Holocaust many of the leading art and antiques dealers across Europe were Jewish establishing dynamic cross Channel international and transatlantic networks Aside from a few famous examples however we are only at the beginning of exploring the diversity of Jewish dealers commercial and cultural worlds and reflecting on the particular conditions that made possible their dramatic expansion within the profession Adopting a wider geography than any previous study this book brings together a team of distinguished international contributors to consider Jewish art dealers as an interconnected cohort tied together by common strategies and a shared vulnerability After an extended historiographical introduction the volume presents case studies and trends from 1860-1940 including Jewish family businesses in Western Europe the role of Jews as mediators of art from East Asia the antisemitism and suspicion faced by Jewish dealers Jews as theorists exhibition makers and promoters of modern art and the geographical mobility and professional reinvention of Jewish dealers in times of economic and political crisis With a wide variety of illustrations including paintings decorative arts historic photographs and archival material the volume adopts a mix of methodological approaches to analyse a key chapter in Jewish cultural history and in the history of the international art market Includes Afterword by Charles Dellheim author of Belonging and Betrayal How Jews Made the Art World Modern 2021 Missing Art River Stone, 2025-03-21 Imagine a world where masterpieces vanish without a trace leaving behind only unanswered questions and a void in our cultural heritage This book Missing Art delves into the captivating realm of lost and stolen artworks exploring the mysteries surrounding their disappearances and the relentless efforts to recover them This book examines not just the individual stories of stolen art but also the broader forces at play the motivations behind art theft the complexities of international law enforcement and the evolving role of technology in both the theft and recovery processes Why do these disappearances occur What makes a piece of art so valuable that individuals are willing to risk imprisonment to obtain it The answers lie in a complex web of economic incentives psychological drives and historical circumstances Understanding these factors is crucial to preventing future losses and ultimately preserving our shared artistic legacy We will examine the historical context of art theft tracing its roots from wartime looting to sophisticated modern day heists The book will explore the social and economic factors that contribute to the rise of art crime highlighting the role of organized crime syndicates unscrupulous collectors and the sometimes lax security measures in place at museums and galleries This understanding will provide the bedrock for analyzing specific cases of missing art The central argument of Missing Art is that the disappearance of artworks represents not only a loss of aesthetic beauty but also a severing of our connection to the past Each missing masterpiece carries with it a unique story reflecting the culture beliefs and values of its time Its absence diminishes our understanding of history and impoverishes our collective identity The book will begin by introducing the key concepts of art crime provenance research and the international art market It will then develop its argument through three major thematic sections The first section will focus on high profile art thefts examining cases such as the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum heist and the disappearance of the Ghent Altarpiece panels The second section will investigate the role of wartime looting and its enduring impact on the art world with a particular emphasis on Nazi era plunder The third section will explore the challenges of recovering stolen art highlighting the work of law enforcement agencies art recovery specialists and the legal battles that often ensue The book culminates by examining the ethical implications of art ownership and the responsibility of collectors museums and governments to ensure the safekeeping of cultural heritage Supporting this exploration will be an array of evidence including police reports court documents archival materials and interviews with art historians law enforcement officials and art recovery experts Missing Art also touches on connections between art law history and criminology The legal aspects of art ownership and repatriation are explored as are the historical contexts that led to specific instances of art theft The book also connects to criminology by examining the motivations of art thieves and the methods they employ This book provides a unique perspective by combining rigorous research with engaging storytelling It avoids sensationalism instead offering a nuanced and informative account of the complex world of art crime Written in a clear and accessible style Missing Art is aimed at a broad audience including art enthusiasts history buffs true crime fans and anyone interested in the preservation of cultural heritage The book will be of particular interest to those working in the fields of art history law enforcement and museum studies As a work of non fiction this book adheres to the highest standards of accuracy and objectivity It is a comprehensive overview of the topic focusing on providing a balanced and well researched account of the key issues While the book covers a wide range of cases and topics it does not attempt to be an exhaustive encyclopedia of all missing artworks Instead it focuses on providing a representative sample of cases that illustrate the broader themes and challenges of art recovery Ultimately Missing Art serves as a call to action urging readers to become more aware of the threats facing our cultural heritage and to support efforts to protect and preserve it The book also highlights the importance of provenance research and ethical collecting practices empowering readers to become responsible stewards of the art world The book seeks to address some of the controversies surrounding art restitution particularly in relation to wartime looting and colonial era artifacts It will examine the arguments for and against repatriation acknowledging the complexities and sensitivities involved
