Love and Success, and Other Essays Karl Stern, 1977-01-01 The Myth of Romantic Love and Other Essays Michael Novak, 2017-07-28 Written by noted Catholic philosopher Michael Novak the selections in The Myth of Romantic Love and Other Essays highlight the arc of his intellectual career Collectively demonstrating the fundamental unity of Novak s work the sixteen essays in this book span a broad range of political economic and social topics. The selections offer clarity of thinking for the sake of concrete ends For example The Myth of Romantic Love the chapter from which the title of this work is drawn sharply distinguishes the love that popular culture portrays from the true Christian vision of love And The Family out of Favor argues if things go well with the family life is worth living when the family falters life falls apart Thus true Christian love manifest in marriage and family life is a greater resource for civilized society than any other institution Although this collection shows that Novak s viewpoints did evolve over time he remains a thinker that is clearly rooted in the ancient and medieval Catholic tradition From his discussions of gender relations to economics culture and politics his perspective honors the primacy of man and his immediate experience and thereby ultimately glorifies the Creator Novak s writing will infuriate some readers and inspire many others but both comrades in arms and intellectual opponents will find the clarity and intensity of his writings undeniable National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1971 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Successful Essay Writing for Senior High School, College and University Barry Spurr, 2005 Following a history of Chinese calligraphy going all the way back to the pictographic beginnings of Chinese writing more than 4 000 years ago the author explains the basic construction of individual characters and the ways in which calligraphy is used by Chinese artists including calligraphic seals and Self and Other: Essays in Continental Philosophy of Religion Eugene Thomas Long, 2007-04-11 inscriptions on paintings The essays in this volume focus on some of the topics that are shaping recent continental philosophy of religion These primary topics include self and other evil and suffering religion and society and the relation between philosophy and theology The articles are by an international group of leading contributors to recent continental philosophy of religion Essay on Love Stendhal, 2020-12-17 One of Stendhal's early works is On Love a rational analysis of romantic passion that was based on his unrequited love for Mathilde Countess Dembowska whom he met while living in Milan This fusion of and tension between clear headed analysis and romantic feeling is typical of Stendhal s great novels Rescuing Psychoanalysis from Freud and Other Essays in Re-Vision Peter L. Rudnytsky, 2018-05-08 In his latest groundbreaking book the author examines the history of psychoanalysis from a resolutely independent perspective At once spellbinding case histories and meticulously crafted gems of scholarship Rudnytsky s essays are re visions in that each sheds fresh light on its subject but they are also avowedly revisionist in their scepticism towards all forms of psychoanalytic orthodoxy Beginning with a judicious reappraisal of Freud and ranging in scope from King Lear to contemporary neuroscience the author treats in depth the lives and work of Ferenczi

The author demonstrates that the meta theoretical framework of critical realism offers the tools that can counter the poststructuralist hegemony still prevailing in feminist theory On a general level The Contradictions of Love attempts at reconciling theoretical positions which tend to appear in opposition to one another In particular it offers a way of bridging the gap between the notion of love as a locus of exploitation and that of love as a force which can conquer oppression This book is a unique and timely contribution in the field of feminist theory in that it offers the first elaborate assessment and development of J nasd ttir's important but relatively sidestepped work and in that it counters poststructuralist trends from the point of view of a robust critical realist framework that has hitherto been spectacularly absent in feminist theory although it offers solutions to metatheoretical problems at the forefront of feminist debates in the field of critical realism broadly defined in that it elaborates on crucial ontological themes of dialectical critical realism and the philosophy of metaReality via a discussion of the issues of love sexuality gender and power and finally in the field of love studies in that it offers a sophisticated account of how gender asymmetries prevail in love despite norms of gender equality and reciprocity and in that it reconciles feminist conflict oriented perspectives on love with notions of love as transcending conflict A Victorian Educational Pioneer's Evangelicalism, Leadership, and Love Pauline A.
