against an emotional and political background that interweaves the very different worlds of London Florida and Central America Another Love Asma Abbas,2018-10-15 In a time when our loves feel conscripted and exhausted by what we often do not remember desiring Another Love A Politics of the Unrequited explores the form method imperatives and inflections of love in the global post colony and offers a way to re apprehend and re inscribe love in an anticolonial materialist and nonfascist politics and aesthetics The figure of the unrequited is invoked as a symptom of a brutally loveless yet effusively sentimentalized era and also as an ineluctable yet very concrete political location in the face of both the intensifying external realities of war occupation apartheid austerity and terror as well as the increasingly normalized internalizations of ordinary imperialism nationalism neoliberalism fascism and colonialism all of which seem bent on extinguishing the possibility of relation itself The book asks that we look at practices of love and other material labors that yield and sustain these realities within complex lifeworlds indeed those which sustain entire systems of our subjection extraction and disposability such as colonialism capitalism liberalism and fascism as lifeworlds especially when given dominant forms of recognition affection embrace and belonging are unacceptable or even repulsive Distancing itself from shortcuts afforded by love s abstract forms deployed in ethical and moral discourses that at once elevate it yet wholly reduce it to a timeless apolitical essence Another Love sees love as a material and political relation to time and space signaling willed and unwilled shifts in historical reality in societies juggling various wars and annihilations It maintains that love is something in and with which we confess our complicities not only with but also against hegemonic notions of belonging devotion martyrdom hospitality publicity collectivity and solidarity nurtured and harvested under capital and colony The longing and the love missed by the pernicious and reactionary politics both of liberal democracy and the incidental fascisms that it claims to set out to fix can give us clues into past present and future moments of rebellion resistance rejection and redemption that are crucial to a liberatory anticolonial and antifascist politic and to rethinking attachment desire and relation itself Love and Terror Alan Jolis,1998 With rich detail and humor a suspenseful historical romance involving Joseph Fouche a7 Robespierre s redoubtable police commissioner during the French Revolution Marie Antoinette and a girl aristocrat conveys the sweep of Parisian life at the time Love & Light Clayton Tylor,2017-05-20 This book examines Swedenborg s spiritual experiences of Heaven and Hell from an esoteric perspective as a feeling the language of angels and spirits To perceive this spiritual feeling begins the regeneration process that develops an inner perception of celestial love as spiritual light When we can perceive love and light as a feeling as it expresses through our physical senses we can start to affect our own psycho spiritual development to evolve from a sensual to a spiritual feeling of conjugal love As we examine love and light as a spiritual feeling through heaven and hell we too begin to experience a deeper spiritual awareness which can initiate a personal communication with the Divine as a Conjugal Love experience With creative self expression as our goal we can take regeneration into our own hands to speed up our own evolution while we transmute the forces that block the spiritual feeling of the Brotherhood of Mankind and

Faith, Hope, Love, and Justice Anselm K. Min, 2018-03-28 Faith hope and love traditionally called theological virtues are central to Christianity This book renews faith hope and love in the context of the many contemporary challenges in many unique ways It is an ecumenical collection of papers equally divided between Catholic and Protestant positions that seek to radically renew the classical doctrine of faith hope and love and argues for their essential connection to the praxis of justice It contains eight different approaches each represented by a distinguished theologian and addressing different aspects of the issues and followed by insightful and critical responses It does not merely seek to renew the theological virtues but to also reconstruct them in the demanding context of justice and the contemporary world nor is it simply a treatise on justice but a theoretical and practical reflection on justice as vital expressions of faith in God hope in God and love of God A non dogmatic and non ideological approach it accommodates both conservative and liberal positions and avoids the separation of the theological virtues from the demands of the contemporary world as well as the separation of justice talk from the theological context of faith hope and love It seeks above all to renew not merely repeat the classical doctrine of faith hope and love in the contemporary context of the urgency of justice and to do so ecumenically comprehensively and from a variety of perspectives and aspects
