Love's A Cookin' R. John,2020-07-20 Midwestern gal Stacey travels to Hollywood with one of her best friends on spring break While there Stacey falls in love with a cook who works at a motion picture production studio They share a torrid week making love and hate to separate but she has to come back to finish her studies and graduate After returning to home and family she makes plans to go back to California move in with the man she loves forging a life with him cooking for the cast and crew at the studio Disaster seems to strike when the studio is sold and dismantled but with the help of friends Stacey and her man begin what would become a multi million dollar cooking business that caters to the world While this novel contains sexual material it is NOT erotica but it is nonetheless intended for an open minded adult audience ON THE RIDE HOME Robin Miller,2024-10-16 This collection of fictional short stories is a look into the musings of the author It pulls the curtain back to see past human existence into the spiritual realm of where we reside as tripart beings We are reminded through these stories that circumstances aren t just what we see and experience through our physical senses but what we sometimes easily ignore from our spiritual senses that are important The perspectives shared by the author help to see events differently and provide light to shadows reintroducing us to the agenda of spirits to derail man's relationship with God. Her stories also illustrate the outcome of those attempts both successful and failed. The author weaves the reader into simple everyday events to embark on journey after journey of decisions that must be made by the characters walking us through each occasion with often surprising outcomes. The reader is able to connect with these stories because each one is relatable and touches on some part of their life whether through personal experience or observation. Each story is an illustration of 2 Corinthians 4:18. While we look not at the things which are seen but at the things which are not seen for the things which are seen are temporal but the things which are not seen are eternal. Someone's Gonna End Up Crying Jo Knowles, 2025-05-27

In this authentic and heartfelt middle grade novel, Maple uses her artwork to help sort through sibling relationships, school drama, and her parents' increasingly fraught marriage. Ten-year-old Maple can't wait for summer. No more math. Adventures with her friends. Best of all, she and Dad are finally going to build a real treehouse. Or are they? Lately, Dad has been quick to storm off when he argues with Mom, which happens more and more. Maple seeks refuge in her sketchbook, filling it with comics and other drawings and posing the questions she can't bring herself to ask anywhere else. She imagines Dadlandia, a place that Dad whooshes off to when he's gone. Maple confides in her favorite tree, her namesake, that she wishes Dad would come home for good. But eventually, Maple will need to step outside her imagination and confront what's happening for real. For that, she will need support from friends and family and strength and courage from within. Celebrated author Jo Knowles delivers complex characters and emotions with care, while illustrator Glynnis Fawkes's powerful illustrations perfectly capture Maple's creative spirit, her struggles, and her capacity for hope. Love Arranged Laura Buss, 2009-11
