Arthur C. McGill Arthur C. McGill,2007-01-01 Throughout the 1960s and 1970s Arthur McGill had numerous opportunities to air his rich theological musings outside of the classroom We are now fortunate some twenty five years after his death to have seventeen sermons brought to us by the aid of his wife Lucille McGill and editor David Cain University of Mary Washington These homilies reveal the core themes that distinguish his theological writings relaxing in our neediness before God participating in the death to life pattern of self expenditure and rooting our hope in the unique power of Christ The collection culminates with what Cain notes as McGill s signature sermon on The Good Samaritan wherein we see that the reception of grace always precedes the extension of grace In addressing day to day issues such as possessions speech loneliness and anger McGill is both prophetic and pastoral He does not hesitate to say that the wickedness of Nineveh alas is the wickedness of the United States At the same time he brings a refreshing word with theological depth about human suffering and the God who models ultimate vulnerability This book is Theological Fascinations Volume One marking the hope that further volumes might emerge from the papers of Arthur C McGill evidencing the richness of his theological fascinations

Congressional Record United States. Congress,1957 Just Marriage Andrew Kim,2023-06-01 It is not difficult nowadays to find books decrying divorce and defending the Christian doctrine that marriage is a permanent union Such a teaching by its very nature raises the problem of how to respond when marriages become destructive The response generally given by church officials is that if grave danger is present spouses may separate Some denominations even allow for divorce and remarriage This response however is not particularly helpful for spouses not in grave danger but nonetheless in destructive marriages nor does it tell us anything about how to avoid destructive marriages in the first place This book argues that just conflict in marriage can both prevent marriages from becoming destructive and be a path toward reconciliation for those who find themselves already ensconced within a destructive marriage The criteria for just conflict are adopted and translated from the just war tradition Though conflict in war and in marriage is quite distinct in both domains conflict is just if ordered to unity and reconciliation and unjust when it devolves into mere antagonism whether cold or hot Just conflict then is a path of reconciliation for Christian spouses whose faith rests in the Christ who makes all things new and triumph that highlights the difficulties and the hardships of Latino immigration to the United States With roots set deep in Mexico and Cuba it is a story about letting go of the past the resilience of the human spirit in the face of adversity and of deep unconditional love Maria Torres is a bright university student from Mexico City and a committed social activist who becomes gravely concerned when Eduardo the love of her life decides to cross into the United States illegally and then vanishes from the face of the earth She decides to retrace his footsteps and survives a treacherous and traumatic crossing of the Arizona desert ending up in East Los Angeles an illegal immigrant and desperate to find him In Havana Cuba Ernesto Rodriguez dreams of fleeing his hermetic and state controlled country with the love of his life Yaneti to the United States He succeeds in sending her off first and then she is never heard from again He decides to follow her trail and barely survives a life threatening and harrowing sea crossing washing up confused and half naked on a Florida beach legally a refugee and determined to find her As Maria and Ernesto get busy adapting to their new circumstances in the United States and the search for their missing loved ones a natural catastrophe elsewhere in the world sets the stage for their accidental encounter in Miami putting into place the final pieces of their incredible journey He was out for a few hours he wasn't sure for how long but when he came to he was dehydrated and his lips were cracked and he felt terrible It was late afternoon and the sun was lower in the sky He lifted his head His face was caked with sand and he sat up and spit the sand out of his mouth and looked around with bewildered eyes He slowly got up and saw that in front of him and to each side were tall apartment buildings It was quiet no one was around For a few minutes he just stood there wobbly and confused and unable to process his thoughts clearly He had no idea where he was and he realized that all he had on was his underwear He hesitantly put one foot forward and then another His feet felt heavy and every movement he made hurt him somewhere He made his way in the direction of the nearest building and that's when he saw it a shape that stopped him dead in his tracks fluttering lightly in the late afternoon breeze It was an American flag and to Ernesto it was the most beautiful thing he had seen in his entire life He just looked at it and smiled and a tear rolled down one of his cheeks He knew then that he had made it He was in America
