Love Lies: A True Story of Marriage and Murder in the Suburbs Amanda Lamb, 2015-09-22 A perfect life A perfect lie When Nancy Cooper moved from Canada to Cary North Carolina with her new husband Brad their future was bright living in one of the most picturesque towns in the US the couple mingled with neighbors attended parties and raised two daughters Then on July 14th 2008 the facade came crashing down when Nancy's strangled body was found in a storm pond Nancy's husband claimed that she had gone for a jog and never come back But as the police investigation deepened and as Brad was brought to trial for murdering his wife a complex web of affairs and lies was uncovered involving multiple residents of Cary's idyllic neighborhoods At the heart of it stood the Coopers soured marriage Nancy's threat to leave with the children and her own cold blooded murder It would take a mountain of damning evidence before justice was served

A Companion to Pablo Neruda Jason Wilson, 2014-08 Pablo Neruda was without doubt one of the greatest poets of the twentieth century but his work is extremely uneven There is a view that there are two Nerudas an early Romantic visionary and a later Marxist populist who denied his earlier poetic self By focussing on the poet's apprenticeship and by looking closely at how Neruda created his poetic persona within his poems this Companion tries to establish what should survive of his massive output By seeing his early work as self exploration through metaphor and sound as well as through varieties of love and direct experience the Companion outlines a unity behind all the work based on voice and a public self Neruda's debt to reading and books is studied in depth and the change in poetics re examined by concentrating on the early work up to Residencia en la tierra I and II and why he wanted to become a poet Debate about quality and representativity is grounded in his Romantic thinking sensibility and sincerity Unlike a Borges or a Paz who accompanied their creative work with analytical essays Neruda distilled all his experiences into his poems which remain his true biography Jason Wilson is Professor Emeritus in the Department of Spanish and Latin American Studies University College London
