remake his public image to reflect their own Through writings both well known and generally unknown James Soderholm examines the poet's relationship with five women Elizabeth Pigot Caroline Lamb Annabella Milbanke Teresa Guiccioli and Marguerite Blessington These women participated in Byron's life and literary career and the manipulation of images that is the Byron legend Soderholm argues against the sentimental depictions of biographers who would preserve Byron's romantic aura by diminishing the contributions of these women to his social sexual and literary identity By restoring the contexts in which literary works charm or bedevil particular readers the author shows the consequences of Byron's poetic seductions during and after his life Love Poems Reginald Chauncey Robbins,1912 The Erotic Word David M.
