The Films of Woody Allen Charles L. P. Silet, 2006 From What's Up Tiger Lily to Match Point Woody Allen's work has generated substantial interest among scholars and professionals who have written extensively about the director In The Films of Woody Allen Critical Essays Charles L P Silet brings together two dozen scholarly articles that address the core of Allen's work from a variety of cultural and theoretical perspectives With a special emphasis on his films of the 1980s this collection includes both general essays that examine various themes and issues encompassed in Allen's repertoire as well as discussions that focus on one or two specific films General essays explore Allen's Jewish background as a religious and cultural facet his apparent love affair with New York City and his relation to various strains of humor particularly American film humor but also Allen's broad use of such traditional comic tropes as irony and parody The essays on individual films include examinations of some of Allen's most significant work including Love and Death Annie Hall Interiors Crimes and Misdemeanors Hannah and Her Sisters Manhattan and Shadows and Fog A number of the articles collected here were originally published in now hard to locate places while others were selected from journals not usually associated with film studies The result is an anthology of essays that presents an overview of the central issues raised by Allen's body of work as well as a close examination of fourteen individual films that convey these larger themes A wide ranging exploration of one of America's most innovative and productive modern directors this book should appeal to both professionals and students of contemporary film comedy

Love, Sex, and the Human Condition Lex Crane, 2007 A handbook on passionate living for rational folk Love Sex and the Human Condition cuts through our media fog of information about living the good life and serves up practical wisdom for people who like being fully alive without slogans sentimentality or empty promises So much of what keeps us from being who we might become has been laid on us by outside forces incessant advertising early childhood experience the expectations of other people inherited cultural and religious baggage These with our fierce drives for love sex and power really enslave us LSHC guides the reader through the maze of influences on our lives to a freedom rarely enjoyed these days LSHC examines both the bright and dark sides of existence Exploring both life and death and the creative and destructive aspects of human nature the book shows how our drives for sex and power can work for us and those around us when tempered with love reason and liberated decision making In provocative chapters like Learning to Be Free Living Deliberately Love Power and Happiness Youth Time and Aging Changing Ourselves Deliberately Crane describes what people fully alive really do to stay ahead of that sense of quiet desperation stalking us A penetrating account of the current human condition and what it takes to be fully alive and engaged even in the face of today

s overwhelming demands The writing style is relaxed witty warm and personal the thinking fresh and profound Crane is a teacher of essential wisdom a real teacher not a promoter of wishful or magical thinking superstition or fundamentalism Here you ll find just clear thinking and a loving push in the direction of intentional living an exciting endorsement of reason and love as our best guides to being fully alive Encyclopedia of Religion and Film Eric Michael Mazur,2011-03-08 Comprising 91 A Z entries this encyclopedia provides a broad and comprehensive introduction to the topic of religion within film Technology has enabled films to reach much wider audiences enabling today s viewers to access a dizzying number of films that employ diverse symbolism and communicate a vast array of viewpoints Encyclopedia of Religion and Film will provide such an audience with the tools to begin their own exploration of the deeper meanings of these films and grasp the religious significance within Organized alphabetically this encyclopedia provides more than 90 entries on the larger religious traditions the major film producing regions of the globe the films that have stirred controversy the most significant religious symbols and the more important filmmakers The included topics provide substantially more information on the intersection of religion and film than any of the similar volumes currently available While the emphasis is on the English speaking world and the films produced therein there is also substantial representation of non English non Western film and filmmakers providing significant intercultural coverage to the topic (Inter)Facing Death Sam Han,2019-10-16 In modern times death is understood to have undergone a transformation not unlike religion Whereas in the past it was out in the open it now resides mostly in specialized spaces of sequestration funeral homes hospitals and other medical facilities A mainstay in so called traditional societies in the form of ritual practices death was usually messy but meaningful with the questions of what happens to the dead or where they go lying at the heart of traditional culture and religion In modernity however we are said to have effectively sanitized it embalmed it and packaged it but it seems that death is back In the current era marked by economic political and social uncertainty we see it on television on the Internet we see it almost everywhere Inter Facing Death analyzes the nexus of death and digital culture in the contemporary moment in the context of recent developments in social cultural and political theory It argues that death today can be thought of as interfaced that is mediated and expressed in various aspects of contemporary life rather than put to the side or overcome as many narratives of modernity have suggested Employing concepts from anthropology sociology media studies and communications Inter Facing Death examines diverse phenomena where death and digital culture meet including art online suicide pacts the mourning of celebrity deaths terrorist beheadings and selfies Providing new lines of thinking about one of the oldest questions facing the human and social sciences this book will appeal to scholars and students of social and political theory anthropology sociology and cultural and media studies with interests in death Projecting Ethnicity and Race Marsha J. Vincent Brook, Marat Grinberg, 2013-12-03 Although Woody Allen's films have received extensive attention from scholars and critics no book has focused exclusively on Jewishness in his work particularly that of the late 1990s and beyond In this anthology a distinguished group of contributors whose work is richly contextualized in the fields of literature philosophy film theater and comedy examine the schlemiel Allen and women the Jewish take on the morality of murder Allen's take on Hebrew scripture and Greek tragedy his stage work his cinematic treatment of food and dining and what happens to New York when Woody takes his films out of New York City Considered together these essays delineate the intellectual artistic and moral development of one of cinema's most durable and controversial directors The Medieval Chastity Belt A. Classen, 2007-03-19 The chastity belt is one of those objects people have commonly identified with the dark Middle Ages This book analyzes the origin of this myth and demonstrates how a convenient misconception or contorted imagination of an allegedly historical practice has led to profoundly flawed interpretations of control mechanisms used by jealous husbands

The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2008-11-28 A Who's Who of Western culture from Woody Allen to Emile Zola Containing four hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley with John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping rubs shoulders with Jacques Derrida as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin With its global reach The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi-voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing as well as an index of names and key terms

Genre-Busting Dark Comedies of the 1970s Wes D. Gehring, 2016-03-09 This examination of dark comedies of the 1970s focuses on films which concealed black humor behind a misleading genre label All That Jazz 1979 is a musical about death hardly Fred and Ginger territory This masking goes beyond misnomer to a breaking of formula that director Robert Altman called anti genre Altman's MASH 1970 ridiculed the military establishment in general the Vietnam War in particular under the guise of a standard military service comedy The picaresque Western Little Big Man 1970 turned the bluecoats vs Indians formula upside down the audience roots for the Indians instead of the cavalry The book covers 12 essential films including Harold and Maude 1971 Slaughterhouse Five 1972 One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest 1975 and Being There 1979 with notes on A Clockwork Orange 1971 These films reveal a compounding complexity that reinforces the absurdity at the heart of dark comedy
