Nobel Prize in Literature: a case for India Professor AK Ghosh,2024-09-05 Indian sub continental writers of English fiction have always been confronted with onerous choices Inheritors of literary tradition riddled with regional and linguistic finitude the mere choice of a proper name hopelessly parochialize their stories Many critics wonder why such writers did not write in their regional languages the answer to which is that that would invite self exile from the common market of world literature Translations even the best of them remain surrogate It is therefore all the more satisfying that during the recent decades writers born on the subcontinent like Salman Rushdie Hanif Kureishi Vikram Seth Amitav Ghosh and others have leaped into mainstream English fiction and elicited critical acclaim Indian writers in English despite being largely confined to a small typical Indian backwater perhaps because of it have attracted a good deal of attention here and abroad They have brought to Indian literature a style and feel a conviction and maturity all its own We have started feeling like heading for a modern reconstituted Indian sensibility But after a long gap of Rabindranath Tagore s success we may ask ourselves as to why Indians cannot write great literature Perhaps Matthew Arnold s phrase lack of epochal significance applies to the literary works emerging from our soil Can we claim honestly that we have produced a single author who could match the great masters of Western literature A Flaubert A Faulkner Joyce A Tolstoy Family Relationships in Contemporary Crime Fiction Bill Phillips,2019-04-23 Behind every crime novel there is a family The author s the hero s or the heroine s and that of the villains themselves Some families organise themselves into crime syndicates controlling drugs prostitution and illegal gambling Others are simply dysfunctional tearing themselves apart fathers against sons mothers against daughters sisters against brothers husbands against wives Not everyone escapes alive However families do not exist in a vacuum They are an important part of our society for many one of its most essential building blocks That being said society itself can impinge disastrously on personal relationships War that greatest of crimes leaves children bereft of parents Generations of children are stolen by cynical racist administrators in supposedly civilised countries Religion requires its followers to flourish and multiply while abandoning all including family for their faith All of these issues and more are explored in this collection of essays about crime fiction and the family Let's Go India & Nepal 8th Ed Let's Go Inc.,2003-12 The Resource for the Independent Traveler For over forty years Let s Go Travel Guides have brought budget savvy travelers closer to the world and its diverse cultures by providing the most up to date information Includes Entries at all price levels for lodging food attractions and more Must have tips for planning your trip getting around and staying safe Expanded coverage of trekking with day to day trail descriptions In depth cultural information that offers an insider s look at life in the region The scoop on India s swankest nightlife Detailed maps of cities towns and the outdoors Featuring not to be missed Experiences Cultural Connections Master the art of Nepali cooking near Kathmandu Inside Scoops Hidden Deals Gather your own chai in the fields of Darjeeling Off the Beaten Path Traverse the Himalayas on Karnali s white water Get advice read up and book tickets at www.letsgo.com The Fiction of South Asians in North America and the Caribbean Mitali P.
