Love And Politics Women Politicians And The Ethics Of Care:

Love and Politics Fiona Mackay, 2001-08-02 This volume is the first to use insights from recent feminist theory on the ethic of care to study the slow progress women have made toward political equality Using empirical case study materials including her own interviews with female politicians Mackay examines care as both a political practice and a political idea using it to explain the current situation with regard to women's representation and to offer a prescription and resource for change Love and Politics Fiona Mackay, 2014 University of Chicago Law Review: Volume 81, Number 2 - Spring 2014 University of Chicago Law Review, 2014-06-27 The second issue of 2014 features articles and essays from recognized scholars Contents include these Articles Group to Individual G2i Inference in Scientific Expert Testimony David L Faigman John Monahan Christopher Slobogin Game Theory and the Structure of Administrative Law Yehonatan Givati Habeas and the Roberts Court Aziz Z Huq Cost Benefit Analysis and Agency Independence Michael A Livermore Accommodating Every Body Michael Ashley Stein Anita Silvers Bradley A Areheart Leslie Pickering Francis In addition the issue includes a Review Essay by Sharon R Krause entitled The Liberalism of Love and these student Comments Toward a Uniform Rule The Collapse of the Civil Criminal Divide in Appellate Review of Multitheory General Verdicts Nathan H Jack All out of Chewing Gum A Case for a More Coherent Limitations Period for ERISA Breach of Fiduciary Duty Claims Raphael Janove Quality ebook formatting includes active TOC linked notes active URLs in notes and all the charts tables and formulae found in the original print version Ethics of Care Marian Barnes, Tula Brannelly, Lizzie Ward, Nicki Ward, 2015-10-28 Over the last 20 years there has been a flourishing of work on feminist care ethics This collection makes a unique contribution to this body of work The international contributors demonstrate the significance of care ethics as a transformative way of thinking across diverse geographical policy and interpersonal contexts From Tronto's analysis of global responsibilities to Fudge Schormans reimagining of care from the perspective of people with learning disabilities chapters highlight the necessity of thinking about the ethics of care to achieve justice and well being within policies and practice This book will be essential reading for all those seeking such outcomes Connected Lives Ruth E. Groenhout, 2004-03-27 Connected Lives examines the account of human nature that is implicit in an ethics of care a picture of human lives that emphasizes interdependency embodiment and social connectedness The book makes important connections to the picture of human life found in theorists of love such as St Augustine and Emmanuel Levinas and shows that when care theory is articulated clearly it provides resources for thinking through some of the difficult moral issues we face in the contemporary world issues such as assisted reproduction and the new genetic technologies Mothers and Others Melanee Thomas, Amanda Bittner, 2017-09-22 When women in politics interact with reporters opponents and constituents they are forced to confront their parental status If they have children they are questioned about their competence in both their public and private lives If they don't they face criticism for not understanding or relating to key policy domains This damned if you do damned if you don't conundrum raises difficult questions about the intersection of gender parental status and politics Mothers and Others examines key areas of citizen engagement with the political system political careers the media and political behaviour to argue that being a parent is a gendered political identity that influences how why and to what extent women and men engage with politics The first major comparative analysis of the role of parenthood in politics Mothers and Others makes important observations about what we know and what we still need to find out Care in Everyday Life Marian Barnes,2012 In this wide ranging book Marian Barnes argues for care as an essential value in private lives and public policies considering the importance of care to well being and social justice and applying insights from feminist care ethics to care work and care within personal relationships

Making Connections Heather Devere,2024-10-27 This book is a historical review of literature and ideas that make the connections between friendship and politics Using pertinent quotations from a wide variety of sources the book is divided into three main parts Firstly it explores interpretations of the concept of friendship tracing its use from the Ancient Greek and Roman philosophical works through to modern and postmodern perspectives touching on different cultural religious and ethical connections Secondly the concept of the political is identified according to different aspects and ideological emphases looking at influences in different time periods and demonstrating the importance of relational politics as viewed through feminism identity culture globalism and the ethics of care The third part draws together the political and friendship highlighting the importance of relational politics and civic friendship as a topic relevant for academic consideration of politics

Love Anna G. Jónasdóttir,Ann Ferguson,2013-11-12 This unique timely book of original essays sets the stage for a new materialist feminist debate on the analysis ethics and politics of love The contributors raise questions about social power and domination situating their research in a materialist feminist perspective that investigates love historically in order to understand changing ideologies representations and practices The essays range from studies of particular representations and examples of love feminist translation mass media images and internet love blogs to feminist theories of love and marriage to ethical and political theories describing critiquing or advocating the use of love in groups as a radical force They break new ground in bringing together questions of gendered interests in love temporal dimensions of loving practices and the politics of love in radical transformations of society Politics and the Order of Love Eric Gregory,2008-08-15 Augustine for all of his influence on Western culture and politics was hardly a liberal Drawing from theology feminist theory and political philosophy Eric Gregory offers here a liberal ethics of citizenship one less susceptible to anti liberal critics because it is informed by the Augustinian tradition The result is a book that expands Augustinian imaginations for liberalism and liberal imaginations for Augustinianism Gregory examines a broad range of Augustine s texts and their reception in different disciplines and identifies two classical themes which have analogues in secular political theory love and related notions of care solidarity and sympathy and sin as well as related notions of cruelty evil and narrow self interest From an Augustinian point of view Gregory argues love and sin constrain each other in ways that yield a distinctive vision of the limits and possibilities of politics In providing a constructive argument for Christian participation in liberal democratic societies Gregory advances efforts to revive a political theology in which love's relation to justice is prominent Politics and the Order of Love will provoke new conversations for those interested in Christian ethics moral psychology and the role of religion in a liberal society The Bloomsbury Handbook of Care Ethics Matilda Carter, 2025-07-24 Emphasising the vulnerability and interdependence of humans care ethics has emerged in recent years as a powerful alternative to dominant modes of thinking in moral philosophy Bringing together the theoretical and applied dimensions of care ethics this pioneering volume provides an authoritative overview of what care ethics is and the contributions it can make to pressing contemporary problems Divided into two parts Part I of The Bloomsbury Handbook of Care Ethics traces the development of care ethics how it interacts with other central components of moral reasoning such as freedom and normative justification and the ongoing discussions among care ethicists about the direction scope and underlying mechanisms of the theory Part II then showcases the varied contributions care ethics can make to key areas of applied philosophy and to research in the social sciences from disability and care medical ethics and feminist ethics to timely issues such as maternity care and public administration With an international team of experts providing interdisciplinary approaches to care this is the place to start if you want to gain an in depth insight into the field of care ethics and its crucial role in addressing worldwide vulnerabilities The Palgrave Handbook of Gender and Development Wendy Harcourt, 2016-04-29 With original and engaging contributions this Handbook confirms feminist scholarship in development studies as a vibrant research field It reveals the diverse ways that feminist theory and practice inform and shape gender analysis and development policies bridging generations of feminists from different institutions disciplines and regions Handbook of Political Theory Gerald F Gaus, Chandran Kukathas, 2004-08-21 The Handbook of Political Theory is a latest addition to the SAGE Handbook collection As with all of our handbooks this is a definitive and benchmark publication that covers all aspects of a given subject This handbook is an essential purchase for everyone interested in Political Theory Constructing Motherhood Identity Against Political Violence Deniz Ülke Arıboğan, Hamoon Khelghat-Doost, 2023-08-22 This volume offers a nuanced understanding of female agency in political violence by reviewing and analyzing the political construction of motherhood as a form of social agency against political violence committed by both state and non state actors in different parts of the world While the international relations discipline has traditionally viewed the relationship between women and violent actors as an exploitative one this book demonstrates that taking maternal bodies seriously creates important intellectual space to examine the types and kinds of violence the discipline of IR takes seriously and the types and kinds of resistance practiced by mothers but often overlooked at least by male mainstream IR Focusing on motherhood as an agency of change this volume will appeal to scholars in the field of gender and international security think tanks working on political and security affairs social activists policymakers an interested public audience as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students undertaking study or research associated with gender and political violence

Citizenship and the Ethics of Care Selma

Sevenhuijsen, 2003-09-02 Care and women's emancipation have often been seen as opposed. Politicians have begun to look again at the issue of care in the context of new reforms in the welfare state, health care policies and family law. Using concrete examples taken from parental rights cases, health care education and the public health sector. Using concrete examples taken from the practice and discourse of care, those found in parental rights issues, health care education, the family and in the public health sector. Sevenhuijsen argues for revaluation of care from a feminist perspective. Political Theory

Rajeev Bhargava, 2008 Care Ethics and Political Theory Daniel Engster, Maurice Hamington, 2015-08-20 Care Ethics and Political Theory brings together new chapters on the nature of care ethics and its implications for politics from some of the most important philosophers working in the field today. Chapters take up long-standing questions about the relationship between care and justice and develop guidelines for the development of a care-based justice theory. Care ethics is further applied to issues such as security, privacy, law and health care where little work has been previously done. By bringing care ethics into conversation with non-Western and subaltern cultures, the contributing authors further show how care ethics can guide and learn from other traditions. A final set of chapters uses care ethics to challenge dominant moral and political paradigms and offer an alternative foundation for future moral and political theory. The book as a whole makes the case for care ethics as an equal or superior approach to morality and politics compared with liberalism, luck egalitarianism, libertarianism, the capabilities approach, communitarianism and other political theories. The volume includes many of the leading care scholars in the world today, engaging in both theoretical and applied discussions of this burgeoning field of study. Ultimately, Care Ethics and Political Theory endeavors to find realistic methods and ways of thinking to create a more caring world. The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2001 Just Love Ann Mongoven, 2009-07-13

Once upon a time, civic virtue described an ethic of political involvement for all citizens. As American democracy evolved, however, the public and private spheres separated. The latter became domesticated and disengaged from public life by an ideology based on gender and a disinterested love of neighbor. Private passion was to be isolated from public reason, private love from public justice. But it need not be so. Drawing on examples of ordinary heroes, Ann Mongoven argues for a transformed civic virtue that articulates just love, passionate care for fellow citizens as such. By connecting theory to practice, Mongoven dramatizes the challenges raised through tangible political examples and lets ordinary heroes suggest the path toward civic renewal. Research Handbook on Legal Evolution Wojciech Zaluski, Sacha Bourgeois-Gironde, Adam Dyrda, 2024-03-14

Adopting an evolutionary perspective, this Research Handbook presents novel and cutting-edge insights into the interdisciplinary field of legal evolution. Engaging with various scientific approaches, it provides a versatile analysis of legal evolution, examining the field as a whole as well as in the context of specific branches of law.
